

New Show of Paintings, Sculpture To Open Here

The Rogue Gallery of Medford announces a one-man show of paintings and sculpture by Melvin Schuler professor of art at Humboldt State College, Arcata, Calif. The show will open with a preview and reception for the artist and members of the Rogue Valley Art Association, Saturday, November 16, at 8 p.m. in the gallery.

This exhibit is expected to attract a great deal of interest in southern Oregon as Professor Schuler's previous work has won much acclaim in California. He has had three one-man shows at Gump's in San Francisco. Other one-man shows have been at the Hillborn Studio in Los Angeles, and in the major galleries in Humboldt County.

Mr. Schuler received his bachelor of arts and master of fine arts degrees at the California College of Arts and Crafts. He studied for a year at the Royal Danish Academy. He has traveled extensively in Europe, Mexico, and Japan. The present show is the result of a year's sabbatical leave when he visited colleges and art centers throughout the United States. The collection consists of 17 paintings in oil and 24 sculptures principally in wood, with some in alabaster and bronze.

The show will remain on exhibit through December 12 during regular gallery hours, 12 noon to 4 p.m., Mondays through Saturdays.

Shoe Magic

Now you can take a pair of leather shoes plus a handbag of another kind of leather and match them in patent. Or take a pair of patent shoes and other type leather bag and match them. A new aerosol product does the job, changing other leathers to look like patent and any patent to a new patent color. (Esquire, 132-20 Merrick Blvd., Springfield Gardens, N.Y.).

"Winter Fantasies" was theme for the Gamma Xi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority style show staged November 9 in Rogue Valley Country Club to benefit the American Cancer Society. Two of the models pictured above are wearing the latest in winter fur styles. Mrs. Donald L. Lacey, Central Point, left, is wearing an autumn haze mink stole with double fur collar, and Mrs. J. Ned Starnes, Central Point, is shown with a full length tourmaline mink coat with three-quarter length sleeves and large collar. The furs were furnished by Samuel of Medford Shopping Center and wigs worn by the models were from Winnie's Beauty Salon and Wiggery.

Ashland WSCS Plans Bazaar, Harvest Tea

ASHLAND — When the November meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service was held in the Methodist Church its theme was "Thanksgiving."

During the morning session Mrs. Forrest Leshar told of festivals of other lands and other times, saying that even before the Christian era such celebrations were held for the purpose of giving thanks for blessings.

Following the luncheon a panel discussion in which Mrs. William Lawrence, Mrs. William Walters and Mrs. P. Malcolm Hammond participated, considered different aspects of the Christian woman's place in community life, her family and her wider sphere of influence through missionary fields.

During the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Jay Kaylor, plans were made for the annual church bazaar to be held November 15 and 16. Chairman for the event asked that all donations be delivered by 9 a.m., Friday.

Announced for December 1 was a Harvest Tea to be given from 3 to 5 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Sidney Ainsworth, 1155 Fern Street. The proceeds are to go to the Methodist Home in Salem.

The day's meeting was concluded with a social hour when dessert was served in the Fireside room from a table centered with lavender chrysanthemums and ribbon streamers. Mrs. Hammond and Mrs. David Coulter poured. New members were introduced by Mrs. Lawrence who presented each with a corsage and literature concerning WSCS work.

Mrs. Erward Nelson was the luncheon hostess assisted by Mrs. Walter Nunley, Mrs. Roy Neal, Mrs. T. H. Schutte, Mrs. Allen McGee and Miss Gladys Whitson.

First Peter Britt Music Festival Benefit Planned

The first fund raising benefit for the Peter Britt Gardens Music and Arts Festival will be the night of Wednesday, November 20, when the Medford Junior Women's Club will present an evening of fashions, entertainment, and cards at the Rogue Valley Country Club.

Proceeds from the evening are designated for the scholarship fund of the Peter Britt Festival, with 42 musicians presenting a full range of classical and contemporary music in a series of afternoon and evening concerts in the natural setting of the historic Peter Britt estate gardens in pioneer Jacksonville.

The Music Festival Association helped the participating musicians defray expenses by giving them a moderate sum to help cover the cost of meals and transportation, also by having local residents offer the use of a room in their home to visiting performers.

"Holiday Flair" is the title of the style show, with fashions created by members of the Junior Women's Club. Models for the event will be Mrs. John V. Asplund and her three daughters, Christine, Mary and Susan; Mrs. Robert Billingsley; Mrs. Gary S. King; Miss Susan Higgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Higgins; Mrs. J. L. Allemen; Mrs. James A. Butler; Mrs. Gene F.

Chamberlain; Mrs. James C. Walp, and guest model, Mrs. John Grilich. Narrator for Jean Hart's Dress Shop will be Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly Jr. Tickets may be obtained from members of the Medford Junior Women's Club, or by calling Mrs. William Clegg, 772-2148, or Mrs. Allemen, 772-6042.

Alpha Chapter Host Group For Officer

ASHLAND — Visiting officers and members from several valley chapters, Order of Eastern Star, were in Ashland last Tuesday evening to greet Mrs. Dale Lamar, Coos Bay, associate grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, when she conducted the annual school of instruction in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. John Mills, worthy matron of Alpha Chapter, presided at the session and introduced the honor guest, presenting her with a corsage. A solo by Mrs. Robert Snyder, accompanied at the piano by Miss Edna Dougherty, was part of the welcome program.

A dinner preceded the stated session and at the conclusion refreshments were served in the dining room from tables decorated with miniature red school houses surrounded with greenery and bright berries. Hosts for the social hour were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Laird and Mr. and Mrs. George Findlay.

In addition to Mrs. Lamar, other visitors were Mrs. Lee Nelson, Coos Bay; Mrs. Russell McCollum, Klamath Falls, grand marshal of the Grand Chapter of Oregon; Harold Rush, Klamath Falls, member of the Home Endowment committee; Mrs. Stewart Pennington, Medford; Mrs. Rush, Klamath Falls; and Mrs. Helen Buffington, Jacksonville, all worthy matrons of OES chapters.

So others may eat

every $1 delivers a Food Crusade package to hungry people across the world

More than half the people on earth do not have enough to eat. Through CARE's Food Crusade, you help feed millions of the hungry—not for just a meal or two, but long enough to give them strength to help themselves.

From our farm abundance, the U.S. donates Food for Peace. CARE adds other staples, packs various units to match country needs. Every $1 you give delivers a package designed to nourish school children, infants, orphans, refugees, disaster victims, destitute families.

Every package you provide bears your name and address, so that the recipients know their friends in America. CARE's American staff in each area supervises deliveries to those who need help most. $1, $10, $100—give what you can!
