'Church's Vision' To Be Subject At First Nazarene

"The Church's Vision" is the topic for Sunday's 11 a.m. service to be given by the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene.

Simultaneous to this service at the church, which is located at 520 N. Holly St., are the junior and primary worship hours. Story sermons will be brought to the children by Mrs. Vernon Ipson and Mrs. Harold Steele, respectively. William Brewster is the director.

The Church of the Nazarene is in the approach to Thanksgiving Sunday, Nov. 24, which carries the annual world missionary emphasis throughout the denomination. The local pastor's message will consider this purpose of the church. His topic will continue "Fruits of Holy Living." Music for the morning service, announced by Perry Christiansen, minister of music, will be given by the sanctuary choir, "Leaves of Sheaves," and the Fishman's Quartet. In the 7 p.m. service there will be a contralto solo by Velma Myers, a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Christiansen, a mixed trio by Cheryl Stewart, Carolyn Cole, and Mike Allen, and an instrumental selection by Robert Hansen. Accompanists for the day are Mrs. Ethel Kornstad and Mrs. William Brewster at the organ and Mrs. Christiansen and Mrs. Sanner at the piano.

Sunday Schedule List By Assembly

The Rev. R. E. Cull, pastor, First Assembly of God, 1108 W. Main St., will speak at both Sunday services.

Topic of the 11 a.m. message will be, "In the Hands of the Living God." The adult choir, under the direction of R. E. Cull Jr., will sing the anthem, "Make Me A Blessing," by George S. Schuller.

For the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic service, Mr. Cull has selected for his sermon, the subject, "The Man Who Rejected God." Mrs. Cull will direct the junior choir in the selection, "Crown of Thorns," by Ira Staphmill. The men's quartet composed of Gerald Smith, Don Rasmussen, James Nilsen, and Don Jacobs will also sing at this service.

Following the morning service a teen-time will be held in the freetime room of the church annex. Mrs. Daniel Cantonwine and Mrs. Don Kahl will be hostesses at a buffet luncheon after which a program will be enjoyed consisting of group singing, devotions, and games. Teen-agers of the church and their friends are invited.

Priest to Conduct School of Religion

The Rev. Joseph H. Smyth, a priest of the Order of the Holy Cross, will arrive in Medford Saturday to conduct a School of Religion at St. Mark's Episcopal Church Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday. He will be the houseguest of the Rev. and Mrs. George Bolster during his stay in the city.

Father Smyth was born in Salem, N.C., of Moravian missionary parents. He has lived in Jamaica and Antigua, British West Indies, was educated in Bethlehem, Pa., and was later graduated from General Theological Seminary. He later practiced as a physician among the various Indian tribes of New Mexico, Arizona, and California, and spent nine years as a missionary doctor in the Bahamas. Last September Father Smyth completed nine years of medical missionary work at the Holy Cross Mission in Liberia. He has now retired from medical work and is on the staff of Mount Calvary, the Order's western monastery and retreat house in Santa Barbara, Calif. At St. Mark's Sunday, Father Smyth will celebrate the holy communion at 8 a.m. and will preach at both the 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. services. He will speak again at Evensong at 7:30 p.m. when the Young People's fellowship will provide the choir, and a question and answer period will follow in the parish hall where refreshments will be served.

Congregational Sermon, Meetings Are Announced

The members and friends of the Congregational Church will meet for study and worship at 11 a.m. Sunday. Hoover Grade School on Siskiyou Boulevard is the temporary meeting place of the church while a new sanctuary and educational unit is being constructed at the corner of East Jackson street and Berkeley Way.

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the church, will preach a sermon entitled "The Dimensions of Devotion." This is Christian Enlistment Sunday for the church, and the service will include the consecration of those who will canvass the members and friends of the church later in the day to receive pledges of financial support for the church's work in 1964. Those present at the service will be invited to make and dedicate their pledges during the worship hour.

Sunday afternoon those who did not make their pledges for the coming year at the church service will be contacted in their homes.
