Medical Panel TV Program to Resume

'Adventures in Medicine,' the medical panel television series seen over Station KBES-TV, will resume at 2 o'clock this afternoon with a discussion on chronic cough, shortness of breath, and chronic bronchitis.

A nationwide 'RD Symptom Alert' is being undertaken by Tuberculosis and Health associations all over the country. The national association notes that since the symptoms of active respiratory disease are easily recognized, early emphasis in the 'alert' is being placed on chronic cough and shortness of breath as possible warning signals.
