Famed Ballet Dancer May Instruct Here

Valley students of ballet may have the opportunity of instruction by George Zoritch, internationally known dancer and teacher, it has been announced. The opportunity will come about provided enough students are interested in registering for instruction, to be given Saturday, November 23 in the Colleen Hope Dancing Studio.

The Premier Danseur can be engaged to instruct two, one and one-half hour classes, one in intermediate and one in advanced dancing, and a half-hour variation instruction, if the interest is sufficient to finance his trip here, Miss Hope stated.

Those who are interested in enrolling in the special classes must contact the studio by Tuesday, November 19 to assure the engagement of Mr. Zoritch, the local dance instructor explained.

George Zoritch is described by Saul Goodman, writer for Dance magazine, as "the world's most traveled Premier Danseur Noble."

Born in Russia, he moved with his family to Lithuania and on his eleventh birthday was taken by his grandmother to see a performance of the ballet, "Coppelia." As a result he became interested in ballet and was enrolled in the Opera Ballet School and before the end of the year was dancing with the Children's Ballet of Kovno.

At 13 he went to Paris where he was trained by the famed Mme Olga Preobrajenska and at 17 he joined the de Basil Ballet Russe as a soloist. After touring for five years he entered Broadway musical shows and later on the West Coast appeared in films.

Returning to ballet and Europe he joined the de Cuevas Grand Ballet and toured for several years until in 1957 he returned to this country as premier danseur of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. He has been with that company since, touring each season from coast to coast.

Lodge Dinner Set In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE - All Royal Arch Masons and guests are invited to attend an annual Thanksgiving dinner to be given by Royal Arch Widows of Jacksonville, Tuesday, November 19 at 6:30 p.m., in the Jacksonville Masonic Temple.

Turkey, rolls and coffee will be furnished, and those who attend should take food contributions for the dinner.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. John Pond, Mrs. Huldah Thurman and Mrs. Joe Crawford.

A Tribute to . . . Natural Gas Line Builders

This week, Natural Gas will be available in abundance, here in the Rogue River Valley. This new fuel brings new energy to industry and new advantages to living in southern Oregon homes. We congratulate the California Pacific Utilities Company, the El Paso Natural Gas Company and all who shared in the building of the new natural gas line from Portland to Medford.

Three soloists will be featured at today's concert of the Paris Chamber Orchestra under the auspices of the Jackson County Civic Music Association. The concert will be at 3 o'clock at Hedrick Junior High School. The soloists will be Monique Frasca-Colombier, violin; Christian Larde, flute; and Michel Renard, cello. The orchestra, under the direction of Paul Kuentz, will open its program with Antoine Dauvergne's "Concert de Symphonies in B Minor, Opus 4, Number 3." Other selections included in today's concert will be compositions by Franz Josef Haydn, Giovanni Battista Pergolesi, Luigi Boccherini, and Gioacchino Rossini. The orchestra includes 14 young French artists.

Phoenix Woman Now in Florida

PHOENIX - Mrs. Cornelia Barnes, long-time resident of Phoenix, has left Oregon to make her home near a daughter, Mrs. P. M. Sturdevant, Homestead, Fla. She will reside at 15401 S. W. 260th Street, in Homestead.

Mr. Barnes and the late Mr. Barnes moved from Bend, Ore., to Phoenix in 1922. She has been active in various groups, including Phoenix Thursday Club and Reames Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, of which is a past matron.

Mrs. Barnes was accompanied to Florida by a sister, Mrs. Alice Allen, Portland. Mr. Barnes has a son, Dr. Donald Barnes, who is on the faculty of the University of Arizona.

Guild Chairman To Be Speaker

Mrs. C. R. Adamson, Wesleyan Service Guild spiritual life chairman for the Western Jurisdiction, will give the program at the Monday, November 18, meeting of the Ruth Esther Unit of the Guild.

The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church. Her program topic is "Introducing Fenelon, Wesley and Underhill."

Dr. Flora Ross will hold the worship service and refreshment hostesses will be Mrs. Mary Note, Mrs. Mamie Bloomfield and Miss Voda Brower.

Plans for a Christmas bake sale will be completed at the meeting. Proceeds from the sale will be added to the mission fund.
