NEW YORK (UPI) — Whitey Ford was in a kind of daze when the New York Yankees asked him if he'd like to sign both as a pitcher and a pitching coach.

sering that he looked forward to a "couple more years of action." Hook went on to say that Roger Maris wasn't on the trading block; Rocky Colavito of Detroit wouldn't do well in Yankee Stadium because his power is to left center which is the deepest spot in Yankee Stadium; pitching was the Yankees' strong suit; the Yanks were trying to develop and not trade for future talent; and that the big drive was to produce a catcher for the future as well as power-hitting outfielders.

"I didn't mean to compete with that other fellow having a press conference today," he said, referring to the fact that President Kennedy was speaking a few blocks away.

Stays in Games One was that Ford had always worked with younger pitchers, this way all hands would feel free to give or ask advice and that Whitey "has been thinking of staying in baseball as a coach when his pitching days are over." Whitey agreed, as-

NY Piled Score On, Coach Says

NEW YORK (UPI) — Coach Jack Christensen of the San Francisco Forty Niners believes the New York Giants "piled on the score" a little Sunday in their battle to take over undisputed first place in the Eastern Division of the National Football League.

Coach Al Sherman's Giants, led by former Forty Niner Y.A. Tittle, walloped the San Francisco team, 48-14—and found out why it isn't wise to aim kicks in the direction of the Giants.

Christiansen was asked immediately after the game if he thought the Giants purposely flexed their scoring muscles against the Western Division door mats.

"It kinda looks that way," the Forty Niner coach said. "I hope he (Sherman) loses all the rest of his games."

Giants Over The Bears However, Christiansen added that he thought the Giants could beat the Chicago Bears in a title game—if they met. New York and Chicago presently lead their respective divisions by one game.

Tittle got off to a slow start against his old teammates, completing only one of seven passes in the first quarter. However, the 37-year-old quarterback finished the day by hitting 16 of 31 for 284 yards and four touchdowns.

The Giant quarterback now has thrown a lifetime total of 193 touchdown passes, putting him only three short of the NFL record set by Bobby Layne.

If Sherman was pouring it on, and Tittle was aching to top Layne's mark, it wasn't apparent in the final period. Rookie Lynn Griffing came in for Tittle and hit Frank Gifford with a 30-yard pass for the final score of the game.

Deceiving Start The early going had all the makings of a good game. The Giants got 10 points on a field goal and a 50-yard run down the middle by Phil King, through a hole so big it looked like he was the only player on the field.

Then Forty Niner quarterback Lamar McHan fired a bomb to Bernie Casey for a 68-yard scoring play to make it 10-7 Giants. But then Tittle hit on scoring passes of 10 yards to Frank Gifford, 45 yards to Joe Morrison, 70 yards to Del Shofner and 10 yards to Morrison. Don Chandler sandwiched another field goal in among the Tittle barrage.

The Giants played it very cool against Woodson, the one bright spot in San Francisco's dreary season. During the early part of the game, they used "squirrel" on-side-type kicks to keep the ball away from the speedy Woodson.

However, holding a very healthy lead in the third period, the Giants decided to test him. Abe took the kickoff on the one yard line and ran it right down their throats for a 99-yard touchdown.

Linfield Wins 21-0 By United Press International Linfield didn't win the Northwest Conference football championship but it came close.

The defending champion Wildcats closed out their season with a 21-0 victory over Willamette at McMinnville Saturday night.

The win gave them second place in the conference with a 4-1 record and an 8-1 for the season.

L-C Champ Lewis and Clark dethroned Linfield 21-7 for its only loss. Pacific captured fourth spot in the conference by defeating College of Idaho 17-0 at Forest Grove.

In season-ending nonconference games, Oregon Collegiate conference games, Oregon Collegiate Conference champion Portland State won over the Seattle Ramblers 31-13 at Portland. Santa Clara shut out Southern Oregon 32-0 at Santa Clara, Calif., and Olympic Junior College got past Oregon College of Education 27-7 at Monmouth.

Salmon Proposal On Waltonian Agenda Tonight Proposed salmon angling closure on the Upper Rogue River will be the main subject this evening at the monthly meeting of the Jackson County Chapter of the Izaak Walton League at 8 o'clock at the American Red Cross building.

The Oregon Game Commission's plan to close the river to Chinook salmon angling above the mouth of Elk Creek next year will be discussed. Tentative regulations drawn up recently call for the closure. Final regulations will be set after a hearing this Friday at Portland. All persons interested are invited to the Walton meeting this evening.

Chicago Bears Humble GB Packers

By NORMAN MILLER UPI Sports Writer

They called George Halas old-fashioned; there were many who said the parade had passed him by and that he hadn't kept pace with the swiftly advancing times in pro football; they said he couldn't win again.

Yet here is 68-year-old "Papa Bear" on the verge of becoming the most successful coach in any era of pro football.

He coached winners during the National Football League's "Gaslight Era" of Ernie Nevers and Jim Thorpe; he had winners during the transitional T-formation days of Sid Luckman and Sammy Baugh; and now he's headed for a winner in the modern highly specialized era of Jimmy Brown, Y.A. Tittle and Johnny Unitas.

Papa's Bears, using his "old-fashioned" techniques of ball-control and defense, destroyed the proud Green Bay Packers, 26-7, Sunday and virtually assured the NFL of a new champion. Four weeks still remain in the season but the Bears are in command with a 9-1 record and a one-game lead over the Packers in the Western Division.

Giants On Top The New York Giants also assumed the undisputed lead in the Eastern Division of the league when they clobbered the San Francisco Forty Niners, 48-14, while the St. Louis Cardinals upset the Cleveland Browns, 20-14. The Giants, with an 8-2 record, now hold a one-game lead over deadlocked Cleveland and St. Louis.

In Sunday's other games, the Pittsburgh Steelers remained in the running with a 34-28 win over the Washington Redskins; the Los Angeles Rams upset the Detroit Lions, 28-21; the Baltimore Colts edged the Minnesota Vikings, 37-34, and the Dallas Cowboys beat the Philadelphia Eagles, 27-20.

The Bears won the NFL's biggest battle of 1963 by beating the Packers at their own game—a crushing ground attack and an unyielding defense. Those were the weapons the Packers had used to win three straight Western titles and the last two NFL playoff games.

More Convincing Win Sunday the Bears were supreme right from the opening minutes and by a more convincing margin than their 10-3 win over the Packers on the opening Sunday of the season. A sellout crowd of 49,166 watched the game at Chicago.

Ageless Bob Pettit has a little less hair than he did 10 years ago when he started his professional career with the St. Louis Hawks.

But, by his own admission, he can "still run as fast and jump as high." And, he should have added, he can still shoot with the same deadly accuracy.

He proved that Sunday night when he became only the second man in National Basketball Association history to pour 18,000 points through the nets.

Pettit scored 33 points in leading the Hawks to a 117-112 victory over the Los Angeles Lakers and boost his career total to 18,015 points. Only Dolph Schayes, who started the season with 19,115 points, has scored more.

Quarterback Billy Wade completed only 6 of 14 passes, but the Chicago ground forces of Willie Galimore, Joe Marconi and Rick Casares ground 248 rushing yards. Galimore's 79 yards were eight more than the entire Green Bay haul of 71.

Roger LeClerc kicked four field goals of 29, 46, 19 and 35 yards; Galimore ran 27 yards for one touchdown and Wade carried five yards for another; and the Chicago defense intercepted five passes and recovered two Green Bay fumbles.

While injured Bart Starr sat on the sidelines, John Roach handled the Green Bay quarterback job for the first three quarters and Zeke Bratkowski for the final period. The Packers' lone score came on an 11-yard run by Tom Moore late in the game.

Threw Four TD Passes At New York, a crowd of 62,982 watched Y.A. Tittle recover from a shaky first period to throw four touchdown passes in a route of the Forty Niners. Phil King and Joe Morrison combined to gain 199 rushing yards and carried the load until Tittle uncorked his arm.

King raced 50 yards on a draw play for the Giants' first touchdown; Morrison caught two of Tittle's scoring passes; and Frank Gifford also grabbed two TD tosses, one from rookie Lynn Griffing. Tittle's passes gained 284 yards. Abe Woodson ran back a kickoff 99 yards for San Francisco.

Charley Johnson threw two scoring passes and gained 274 air yards for the Cards in the win that knocked Cleveland out of a tie for first place. Johnson passed 41 yards to Sonny Randle and 19 yards to Bill Triplett for the score that eventually proved the game-winner.

Cleveland's Jimmy Brown had the consolation of adding an NFL record. He raced 59 yards for the Browns' first score in a 154-yard rushing haul that made him pro football's leading all-time ground-gainer by all methods (runs, pass-catches and kick returns). His 11,353-yard total topped Ollie Matson's 11,317.

Ballman Led Steelers Gary Ballman ran back a kickoff 92 yards with slightly more than two minutes to play and gave Pittsburgh its win at Washington. The Redskins, who suffered their seventh straight defeat, had gone ahead 28-27 on Norm Snead's 21-yard pass to Pat Richter with 2:38 left to play. Ballman earlier had caught a 67-yard scoring pass from Ed Brown.

Roman Gabriel completed three scoring passes to Carroll Dale (66, 42 and 51 yards) in the Rams' upset at Detroit. The last two TD's came in the final period and enabled the Rams to overcome a 21-14 Detroit lead that was built up on Earl Morrall's three scoring passes.

Johnny Unitas hit Jimmy Orr with TD tosses of 60 and 13 yards during the final period to beat Minnesota. The winning TD came with five seconds left to play. In all, Unitas threw four scoring passes.

Don Meredith of the Cowboys also had a productive passing day, completing 25 of 33 attempts for 302 yards and two touchdowns against Philadelphia. Meredith completed his first three of 19 during the first half as Dallas opened a 1-6 lead and coasted to its third win of the season.
