

Hank Bauer To Be Tough With Orioles If Need Be

By JOHN T. KADY
 United Press International
 BALTIMORE (UPI) — The Baltimore Orioles may feel like they are in a Marine boot camp when they report for spring training at Miami, Fla., in late February.

Although Hank Bauer tried to sidestep the issue when he was named the Orioles' new manager Tuesday, the flat-nosed ex-Marine sergeant indicated some Baltimore players will be stepped on if they don't behave themselves.

"I'll be tough if I have to be," said the 41-year-old former New York Yankee outfielder who hit the beach with the U.S. Marines at Okinawa in World War II. "It's up to the players. I'll expect 100 per cent from each man. If I don't get it, I'll take steps to get it."

When Billy Hitchcock was released as the Orioles' manager at the end of last season it was reported that the front office felt he had coddled certain players.

All this should change under Bauer. At least that appears to be the hope of club President Lee MacPhail.

Known as Competitor
 "Hank has a well earned reputation as a competitor and a winner," said MacPhail in announcing Bauer had signed a one-year contract. "His qualities of leadership are what we need to put some spark into this club and change it from just another first division team into a competitor."

The Orioles, picked in pre-season polls to battle the Yankees for the 1963 American League pennant, slipped to seventh place at one stage of the campaign before climbing to fourth at season's end.

Bauer joined the Orioles last season as a coach after managing the Kansas City Athletics for the second half of the 1961 campaign and the entire 1962 season. Actually, Hank quit the A's on the next-to-last day of the 1962 campaign following tiffs with owner Charles O. Finley and General Manager Pat Friday.

"I wasn't ready to manage before...I am now," Bauer confessed.

Peruvian Not Permitted To Fight in NY

NEW YORK (UPI) — "More than for myself I feel sorry for my country, I was anxious to give Peru a great victory Friday night."

With these words and a shrug of his shoulders, Peruvian light-heavyweight champion Mauro Mina today accepted the fact that he will not be permitted to fight in New York state.

Mina was scheduled to meet Allen Thomas at Madison Square Garden Friday night, but the Garden cancelled the bout Tuesday when it learned Mina had undergone eye surgery early this year. Undeclared Johnny Persol of Brooklyn, N.Y., was named to replace Mina against Thomas.

Five Hour Exam
 Dr. Oscar Teran, Mina's manager, admitted that his fighter underwent an eye operation for a detached retina in Lima, Peru, last March. But Teran added that Mina was given a five-hour examination by five eye specialists and they stated that the operation represented no danger.

"After the operation I fought three fights and won them all," Mina said. "I know that I have no problem with my sight and that my chances of beating Thomas are good, but I can't do anything but abide by the decision of the officials."

FIGHT CANCELLED — Mauro Mina, Peruvian light-heavyweight champ, relaxes at hotel in New York after hearing that his fight with Allen Thomas, Chicago, scheduled for Madison Square Garden on Friday, had been cancelled. Mina underwent an eye operation last March for a detached retina and the New York State Boxing Commission ruled against his appearing in the Friday bout. (UPI)

Ragsdale Shares Lead in Scoring

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Southern California sophomore Mike Ragsdale had the Big Six rushing title locked up today, even though there is one more week of grid action.

Garrett romped for 159 yards against Oregon State Friday night to move his season's total to 714 yards on 116 carries for a 6.2 average. That puts him 223 yards ahead of second place Clarence Williams of Washington State.

Titles For Morton
 California's junior quarterback, Craig Morton, also appears to have won a couple of titles. He has clicked on 93 passes for 1,355 yards and 14 touchdowns to dominate the passing figures.

Morton has lost 22 yards rushing, but his 1,333 yards of total offense gives him almost a 200-yard lead on second place Bill Douglas of Washington, who has picked up 1,141 yards.

Willie Brown, USC's do-everything halfback, shares the scoring lead with Stanford's Dick Ragsdale. Both men have tallied 38 points. Brown also is the league's best pass-grabber with 31 catches good for 419 yards.

Another cinch champion is USC's Ernie Jones, who is leading all kickers with a 40.3 average on 41 boots.

MOORE IS INJURED

BALTIMORE (UPI) — Lenny Moore, the Baltimore Colts' star halfback, may be out the rest of the season with a head injury, according to Coach Don Shula.

Moore, one of the Colts' prime breakaway threats, sustained the injury in a game two weeks ago against the Detroit Lions and didn't make the trip to Minnesota last Sunday when the Colts beat the Minnesota Vikings.

MSU Listed Choice of Oddsmakers

NEW YORK (UPI) — It will be Michigan State vs. Washington in the Rose Bowl if the oddsmakers know their points.

The fifth-ranked Spartans of Michigan State are six-point favorites to beat eighth-ranked Illinois at East Lansing Saturday and clinch the Big Ten title and the Rose Bowl bid that goes with it.

On the West Coast, Washington is picked by 14 points to down Washington State and nail down the Big Six championship. Although a bid to the Pasadena classic isn't automatic, the Huskies will be coming up roses if they win.

Another bowl berth is at stake when sixth-ranked Oklahoma clashes with ninth-ranked Nebraska at Lincoln. The Sooners are favored by 3½ points to take the Big Eight title and the Orange Bowl spot that goes with it.

Pittsburgh, ranked fourth among the nation's college football teams and the prime choice for the other Orange Bowl berth, is a 6½-point choice over Penn State at home. Penn State also is hopeful of a post-season game and a good showing could earn them a bid to the Gator Bowl.

Southern California and UCLA, still nursing Rose Bowl dreams of their own, get together at Los Angeles. The defending national and Rose Bowl champion Trojans are favored by 13½ points.

Atlantic Deadlock
 The three-way deadlock for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference will be somewhat resolved Saturday since North Carolina engages Duke. The Tar Heels are picked by a half-point although they're playing at Duke. North Carolina State, the third member of the triumvirate, is a solid 27-point favorite over Wake Forest.

Tenth-ranked Auburn, in the market for a Gator Bowl bid, favored by eight points against Florida State.

In other leading games:
 East: Boston College 14½ over Boston U.; Brown 6 over Colgate; Princeton 7½ over Dartmouth; Columbia 5 over Rutgers; Harvard ½ over Yale.
 Midwest: Purdue ½ over Indiana; Iowa 6½ over Notre Dame; Kansas 4 over Missouri; Minnesota 4 over Wisconsin; Oklahoma State 13 over Kansas State; Michigan 1 over Ohio State.

Southwest: Baylor 6½ over Southern Methodist; Rice-Texas Christian are even; Arkansas 12½ over Texas Tech.
 West: Air Force Academy 20 over Colorado; Stanford 1 over California; Oregon 5 over Oregon State; Utah State 12 over Utah.

Billy Hildebrand Named UPI's Mentor of Week

By EDWARD J. McHALE
 United Press International
 WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (UPI) — Last year, midway in an all-losing season, the student body of Wake Forest College marched on the football coach's home—cheered him to the echo and gave him a scroll indicating their support of him.

Last Thursday, although the Wake Forest team had 18 straight losses for the longest major college losing streak in the nation, 1,200 students turned out to watch a practice session and again show their support.

Last Saturday Wake Forest trailed by two touchdowns at half.

But then the demon Deacons came back to beat South Carolina, 20-19, in one of the most amazing upsets of the 1963 season. For that conquest, and for just plain courage under fire, Coach Billy Hildebrand of Wake Forest today was named by United Press International college football's "Coach of the Week."

have your team beaten on a football field.

"Losing is like having the living heart cut out of you," he said during the now-ended streak of disaster. "All your plans, hopes and ambitions are dashed in front of thousands. Most people don't have their heart, their plans laid out for public view. Coaches do."

"It's not easy, you know, for the coaches and players to go around smiling, joking and keeping a stiff upper lip," he summed up.

Now that the ordeal is over, Hildebrand regards the win over South Carolina as the greatest thing that's happened in his career.

"Pound for pound, man for man, I thought this was the greatest (effort) I've been associated with," he said. "We had lost 18 straight and were down two touchdowns at the half, then held them to one yard (total offense) in the second half. It was tremendous."
