

Kennedy Heads for Texas in Attempt To Unify Democrats

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy, in the role of a political healer, headed today for Texas where he hoped to unify divergent wings of the Democratic party for a stronger showing in 1964.

The Chief Executive and his wife, Jacqueline, on one of her rare domestic speaking tours with her husband, were scheduled to takeoff at 11 a.m. EST from Andrews Air Force Base on the trip that the White House has labeled alternately "political" and "non-political."

Their first stop was San Antonio where the Chief Executive planned to speak in dediation of the Aero-Space Medical Health Center at Brooks Air Force Base. He was due in San Antonio at 2:30 p.m. EST and from there he was to fly to Houston for a dinner tonight honoring Rep. Albert Thomas, D-Tex.

Thomas was among 14 Texas Democratic congressmen flying with the President to San Antonio.

One obvious reason for Kennedy's two-day devotion to Texas was that this home state of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson went Democratic in 1960 by a slim 46,233 votes. Kennedy and Johnson drew 1,167,832 votes to 1,121,869 for the Republican ticket headed by Richard M. Nixon.

In 1956, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower carried Texas by 220,661 votes over Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson. Johnson will accompany Kennedy throughout the tour. The President and his wife will spend Friday night on the L.B.J. ranch at Johnson City, about 70 miles from the state capital of Austin.

Leaves Early Saturday
The Kennedys planned to leave the Johnson ranch early Saturday afternoon and fly to Dulles International Airport outside Washington. There they will switch to a helicopter for Johnson ranch.

His Friday schedule included a breakfast speech in Fort Worth, a lunch talk at the Dallas Trade Mart, two receptions and a Democratic fund-raising dinner in Austin and finally a night helicopter flight to the capital of Austin.

Fire Claims Two Teen-aged Children

OREGON CITY (UPI)—Fire swept through a home here early today and claimed the lives of two teen-aged children of a Clackamas County sheriff's deputy.

The victims were Elma Lee Stewart, 17, and her brother, James Allen Stewart, 14. Their bodies were found in their upstairs bedrooms.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, were downstairs. The blaze broke out around a chimney in the kitchen and raced up the stairway.

Stewart went outside, grabbed a ladder and broke an upstairs window but fire and smoke made it impossible to rescue the children.

The Stewarts suffered cuts and broken glass and burns on the hands and arms.

Firemen fought the flames more than two hours before they could bring out the bodies of the children.

FAIR INSURANCE
NEW YORK (UPI)—The amount of fire and other insurance on the buildings being put up for the forthcoming New York World's Fair may reach $400 million, according to the Insurance Information Institute.
