

SPECIAL VISITOR — Gov. Edmund G. Brown had a special visitor Wednesday — ten-year-old Paul Law of Sacramento, who is mentally retarded. Paul visited the governor to call attention to National Retarded Children's Week, Nov. 17 to 23, and to receive from the governor a statement in behalf of the program. (UPI)

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL DALLAS—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, commenting on President Kennedy's record: His public relations is tremendous, but his performance is poor.

WASHINGTON—Former Senate official Robert G. (Bobby) Baker, under fire in connection with his outside business interests: "I'm in good shape on income taxes; they can't get me there."

WASHINGTON — A union official telling congressmen that waitresses in the bunny clubs should be covered by the minimum wage law: "The employer who hires an attractive girl and pays no wages does not ask the applicants if they know the difference between a Manhattan and a martini—he asks them for their bust and hip measurements."

LITTLE ROCK—From a pastoral letter prepared by several clergymen and aimed at overcoming racial intolerance which will be read in churches and synagogues of Little Rock: "We appeal to the members of all congregations to ask their own consciences if there is any other course that they themselves can follow and still be consistent with what they profess."
