

Music, Sermons Slated By Medford Presbyterians

At the First Presbyterian Church Sunday the assistant pastor, the Rev. David R. Brown, will preach a sermon on "Thanksgiving—For Church and State!"

The senior high choir, directed by Phillip Frohnmayer, will sing the solo, "When I Think Upon Thy Goodness" by Row, Mrs. George C. Flanagan was in Philadelphia, Pa., this week attending a meeting of the United Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, of which she is a member. The board meets twice each year to assist the some 9,200 United Presbyterian congregations in their education efforts.

Fifteen youth of the church and Mr. and Mrs. Brown will attend Youth Synod meetings at the Moreland Presbyterian Church in Portland Friday, Saturday and Sunday of next week.

Sunday at 7 p.m. a Thanksgiving praise service, "Praise Through Sharing," will be held. Various organizations of the church are participating and families are encouraged to take their children to the short service, followed by a time of fellowship in the fireplace room.

Friday at 7 p.m., Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Heyerman, 125 Wilma Way, have invited all college-age young people to their home for an open house.

Sunday at 11 a.m. at Westminster Church the Rev. John O. Reynolds will preach on the subject "The Church on the Frontier." The church choir will sing the anthem "Let All Things Now Living" and a children's sermon will be given for boys and girls from 5 to 10 years of age.

Apostolic Faith Sets Talent Event

The Apostolic Faith Church will open Sunday services with groups from the primary department singing, "I Like to go to God's House," by Diane and Mark Sprague, and "O, How I Love Jesus," by Becky Carver and Peggy Andrews, at the 9:30 a.m. Sunday school hour. The Rev. Loyce C. Carver, pastor, will preach at the 11 a.m. service.

"Talent Sunday" will be observed at the 3 p.m. Children's service, in which those under 14 years participate. Piano solos will be played by Darrell Teel, Pamela Dubs, Lori Dubs, Denise Brown, Janet James, and piano duet by Marilyn James and Doris Burchfield. A violin solo will be played by Paulette Andrews and a flute solo by Debbie Teel. Trumpet solos will be played by Michael Andrews, Ronald Friesen, and Fred Robinson Jr. Becky Carver will sing. The Rev. Clifford Friesen, assistant pastor, is in charge of the youth services.

Ralph Faber will take a group of singers and musicians to the Veterans Administration Domiciliary for the monthly service at 6:15 p.m. At the 7:50 p.m. service at the church Mrs. Allen Friesen will play the violin solo with the orchestra as they present "Traum der Sennerin" by Labitzky, followed by a testimony service and an evangelistic message.

Unitarian Sermon Listed for Sunday

Ernest Wander, chairman of the Rogue Valley Unitarian Fellowship, will read a sermon entitled, "Unitarian Beliefs" when the group convenes Sunday in the Red Cross Building, at 11 a.m. This sermon, written by Pason Miller, was first delivered at the Unitarian Meeting House in Hartford, Conn.

Newcomers to the Fellowship have shown an interest in learning more about the beliefs of Unitarians and the talks and sermons presented during November and December are specifically intended to provide such information.

An opportunity for discussion is provided at the close of each Sunday service at which time coffee is served.

FELLOWSHIP MEETINGS
CENTRAL POINT — Two fellowship meetings will be held Saturday at 2:30 and 7 p.m. at Pentecostal Church of God, Fifth and Pine Streets. A potluck dinner will be served at 5 p.m.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS TO YOU
Sunday, 9:00 a.m.
K-SHA — 860 kc

This week's Christian Science program "Thanksgiving—For What?"

Annual Missions Appeal Scheduled By Area Adventists

Parents who take children to the church for the 9:45 a.m. school are invited to attend the adult study-discussion group led by the pastor in his office. The current study is based on the Gospel of Luke, with this week's lesson on "The Kingdom: Present and Future."

The Junior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 5 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ray Casterline, 45 S. Modoc Ave. A portion of a play entitled "Of Course, You Are a Christian" will be read and discussed. The Senior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. at the church to read a part of "West Side Story" and discuss the challenge presented to the church by delinquency and minority language groups in the cities. Fireside will be at the home of Mrs. Pearl Sleeter, 39 S. Berkeley Way.

The Westminster Church is at 2000 Oakwood Drive.

Members To Be Received Sunday

"The Grace of Gratitude" will be the subject of Dr. George Roseberry's Thanksgiving sermon at First Methodist Church Sunday.

Honored guests at the 11 a.m. service will be the members of Shady Cove Bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters. Miss Lola Ackerman is honored guest.

New members will be received at both morning worship services. There will also be infant and adult baptism for anyone desiring it.

Dedication of all three choirs will be held at both services Sunday. Mrs. C. R. Admon is music director and Mrs. Leslie Boardman is the church organist.

Miss Christine Helman will sing "Arise, Shine, For Thy Light Is Come" at the 9:30 a.m. service and the youth choir will sing "The Heavens Are Telling" by Hayden.

At 11 a.m. the altar choir will sing "Sing To His Name" and the chancel choir will sing "Gloria" (12th Mass) by Mozart with Jamie Henderson at the piano and Mrs. Boardman at the organ.

A reception will be held Saturday at 7:30 p.m. for all new members who have united with First Methodist since August. Dr. Edith Robb is general chairman.

The Youth Committee of the Medford Ministerial Association will meet at the church at 5 p.m. Monday followed by a youth interdenominational dinner at 6:30 p.m. in Wesley Hall.

The Young Adult Searchers will have a card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burk, 808 Summit St., Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Trinity to Hold Communion

A Thanksgiving communion service will be held at Trinity Baptist Church during the 11 a.m. worship hour Sunday. Several men of the church will participate in bringing the message, "A People Give Thanks."

Keith Hookersmith will speak on "For Their Nation;" Marvin Kautz will speak on "For Their Homes;" and Herb Hunter will speak on "For Their Church." The service will conclude with "For Their Lord and Saviour" as the congregation participates in The Lord's Supper.

A discussion of the subject, "The Practice of Christian Liberty" will be held at 7 p.m. Sunday. This is one of a series of discussions of "God's Workshop, the Church." This discussion will be based on I Corinthians 8.

Tonight families of friends and members are invited to a harvest potluck dinner to be held at 6:30 o'clock at the church.

Trinity Baptist Church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage Roads.

Concord Spiritualist Service Announced

GOLD HILL — The Thanksgiving message will be given by the Rev. Elvina Colburn, pastor, at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Colburn will be assisted during the service by Robert Routh, Mrs. Sidney Miller, Mrs. Helen Bush, and Sidney Jones.

A piano-solovox and organ-piano duets will be played by Mrs. Bianca Corona and Mrs. Colburn.

Miss Carol McCall will play the clarinet.

Union Thanksgiving Services Planned in Medford, Ashland

The annual union Thanksgiving services held in southern Oregon communities will be held Wednesday evening or Thursday morning, Nov. 28. The Medford service will be broadcast over radio station KMED.

The Medford service, sponsored by the Medford Ministerial Association, will be held at First Baptist Church, 649 Crater Lake Ave., at 10 a.m. Nov. 28. John Heberling, minister of Central Church of Christ and association president, will speak.

The Ashland service, under the auspices of the Ashland Ministerial Association, will be held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. at the First Methodist Church, North Main and Laurel Streets.

The Rev. Kenneth Herford, minister of Foursquare Gospel Church, will give the sermon.

Other ministers participating in the Medford service will be Dr. George Roseberry, First Methodist, prayer of thanksgiving; the Rev. Harold Sanner, First Church of the Nazarene, president's proclamation; the Rev. William Wash, Church of the Brethren, scripture; the Rev. Bernard Andrews, First Baptist, offertory prayer; the Rev. Roland Stewart, Free Methodist, response reading; and the Rev. Vernon Hanson, Ascension Lutheran, benediction.

The First Baptist Church choir will sing "For the Beauty of the Earth." Soloist will be Maynard Hadley and Mrs. Andrews organist.

Part of the offering received will be donated to the Jackson County Board of Christian Education.

The community service will be held in Talent at the Assembly of God Church Wednesday, Nov. 27, at 7:30 p.m.

Pastor A. Clark Smith of Talent Friends Church will give the sermon. Music will be by the choir of the Talent Methodist Church.

Also participating will be the other minister, the Rev. Violet M. Bolliger, Methodist, and the Rev. J. C. Arnett, Assembly of God.

Individual churches in the valley have also scheduled services. Wednesday services include:

Congregational, St. Luke's
The Medford Congregational Church and St. Luke's Methodist Church will join in a union Thanksgiving eve service at 7:30 p.m. at St. Luke's, 2320 Siskiyou Blvd.

The altar choir of St. Luke's will sing "The Breaking Waves Dashed High" by Brown. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Claude Griffin with Mrs. Charles R. McDonald at the organ. Organist for the evening will be Mrs. Ray Powers of the Congregational Church.

The Rev. Robert Tull of the Congregational Church will preach. Mr. McDonald, St. Luke's pastor, will preside at the service.

Zion Lutheran
Zion Lutheran Church, North Oakdale Avenue and Fourth Street, will serve holy communion at its service at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 27. The senior choir will sing "O Bread of Life."

Berean Baptist
Thanksgiving eve service at Berean Baptist Church, Crater Lake Highway and Avenue A, White City, will be held Nov. 27 at 7:30 p.m.

Services scheduled Thursday by individual churches include:

Apostolic Faith
The Rev. Loyce Carver, Apostolic Faith Church, will give the Thanksgiving message at the service to be held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. Music will be furnished by the choir under the direction of William E. Walden.

They will sing the Netherlands folk song "We Gather Together" and "America the Beautiful," with the junior high choir singing the first line of lyrics, and as a third number, "Let the Mountains Shout for Joy." Congregational singing and personal testimonies of praise will be a part of the service.

Ascension Lutheran
Thanksgiving services at Ascension Lutheran Church, 2617 Barnett Road, will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. A musical service will be presented.

The junior choir, directed by Mrs. Roy Miller, will sing "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come." Mrs. John Hall will direct the senior choir singing, "We Gather Together." A solo, "Bless This House," will be sung by Dick Mellum.

Christian Science
A traditional Thanksgiving Day service will be held Thursday at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor Ave., at 11 a.m.

A Bible lesson on "Thanksgiving" will be read, opening with a verse from Psalm 33:1. The service will include hymns, prayer, and a period when church members may stand up and express their thanks.

1957 Award of Merit Winner

CHURCH NEWS
National Religious Publicity Council

Food Offering Set Sunday By Congregationalists

The members and friends of the Congregational Church will meet for worship and study at 11 a.m. Sunday. Both the service of worship and the church school will be held at Hoover Grade School, which is the temporary meeting place of the church while a new sanctuary and educational unit are under construction at the corner of East Jackson Street and Berkeley Way.

On Thanksgiving Sunday, the children of the church school are invited to attend the opening portion of the worship service with their parents. Before they are dismissed to their classes, a food offering will be received and dedicated, which will then be distributed to a needy families in the community.

Later in the service an offering will be received by the adult congregation and dedicated to the Share Our Substance Appeal of Church World Service. The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the church will conduct and preach for the service.

After they leave the adult service, the children will go to their regular class meetings.

Persons who are interested in becoming members of the church on Sunday, Dec. 8, are invited to meet at 3:30 p.m. Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tull, 401 Ardmore Ave.

Zion Lutheran Music Announced

"Jesus is the Answer" is the title of the sermon which the Rev. Harvey C. Covert will preach Sunday morning at the Zion Lutheran Church, West Fourth St. and North Oakdale Ave.

The junior choir, under the direction of Charles Mickelson, will sing "Bless This House" for the 11 a.m. worship and the senior choir, directed by Oscar Bjorlie, will present the anthem "I Will Thank Thee" during the offertory.

The School of Religion Class will meet Sunday at 4 p.m. in the Fireside Room. John Masson will be the instructor. The class which has been meeting on Thursday morning, will meet Monday at 9:30 a.m. in the Fireside room, next week only.

The Senior Luther League will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. Their guests will be members of the Senior Luther Leagues from Calvary Lutheran Church, Grants Pass, and Mt. Zion Lutheran Church, Yreka, Calif. Sandra Myers, Lois Slesler, and Linda Mattson are in charge of arrangements for this meeting.

The Intermediate Lutheran League will have a roller skating party Saturday, Nov. 30. All members are to meet at the church at 7 p.m. and transportation will be provided.

Meeting Tonight to Stress Youth Groups

CENTRAL POINT — Members from the Medford, Grants Pass, and Klamath Falls Pilgrim Holiness Churches will meet at the Central Point Church tonight.

The Rev. J. Larson, Aurora, Ore., president of the Young People's Society of the Northwest District, will speak. The meeting will be to promote growth of youth societies.

First Christian Topic Announced

The Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans will preach on the subject "This Is The Victory" Sunday morning at the First Christian Church. It is based on I John 5:4. A report will be made to the congregation on the results of the building fund raising program which is being completed this week.

The choir will sing Thanksgiving anthems at both services Sunday. At 9:30 a.m. the carillon choir will sing "Song of Praise."

The chancel choir will sing "Thanks Be to God" at the second service and the junior choir will sing "Song of Praise" during the offertory.

Mrs. C. C. Peterson and Mrs. M. E. Lawrence will host the coffee hour which is now held between the two services.

All the Youth Fellowships will meet at the church at 6 p.m.

The Chi Rho in their study of the new testament will discuss God's relationship to man.

Irissie Grovett will lead the study and Barbara Taylor will give the devotions. The Christian Youth Fellowship will have a business meeting and recreation in addition to a study which will be led by Nancy Taylor. The pastor of the Adventist Church, the Rev. Arvin W. Winkle, will be the guest speaker at the Midler's meeting.

Union Thanksgiving Services Planned in Medford, Ashland

The Rev. Kenneth Herford, minister of Foursquare Gospel Church, will give the sermon.

Other ministers participating in the Medford service will be Dr. George Roseberry, First Methodist, prayer of thanksgiving; the Rev. Harold Sanner, First Church of the Nazarene, president's proclamation; the Rev. William Wash, Church of the Brethren, scripture; the Rev. Bernard Andrews, First Baptist, offertory prayer; the Rev. Roland Stewart, Free Methodist, response reading; and the Rev. Vernon Hanson, Ascension Lutheran, benediction.

The First Baptist Church choir will sing "For the Beauty of the Earth." Soloist will be Maynard Hadley and Mrs. Andrews organist.

Part of the offering received will be donated to the Jackson County Board of Christian Education.

The community service will be held in Talent at the Assembly of God Church Wednesday, Nov. 27, at 7:30 p.m.

Pastor A. Clark Smith of Talent Friends Church will give the sermon. Music will be by the choir of the Talent Methodist Church.

Also participating will be the other minister, the Rev. Violet M. Bolliger, Methodist, and the Rev. J. C. Arnett, Assembly of God.

Individual churches in the valley have also scheduled services. Wednesday services include:

Congregational, St. Luke's
The Medford Congregational Church and St. Luke's Methodist Church will join in a union Thanksgiving eve service at 7:30 p.m. at St. Luke's, 2320 Siskiyou Blvd.

The altar choir of St. Luke's will sing "The Breaking Waves Dashed High" by Brown. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Claude Griffin with Mrs. Charles R. McDonald at the organ. Organist for the evening will be Mrs. Ray Powers of the Congregational Church.

The Rev. Robert Tull of the Congregational Church will preach. Mr. McDonald, St. Luke's pastor, will preside at the service.

Zion Lutheran
Zion Lutheran Church, North Oakdale Avenue and Fourth Street, will serve holy communion at its service at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 27. The senior choir will sing "O Bread of Life."

Berean Baptist
Thanksgiving eve service at Berean Baptist Church, Crater Lake Highway and Avenue A, White City, will be held Nov. 27 at 7:30 p.m.

Services scheduled Thursday by individual churches include:

Apostolic Faith
The Rev. Loyce Carver, Apostolic Faith Church, will give the Thanksgiving message at the service to be held Thursday at 10:30 a.m. Music will be furnished by the choir under the direction of William E. Walden.

They will sing the Netherlands folk song "We Gather Together" and "America the Beautiful," with the junior high choir singing the first line of lyrics, and as a third number, "Let the Mountains Shout for Joy." Congregational singing and personal testimonies of praise will be a part of the service.

Ascension Lutheran
Thanksgiving services at Ascension Lutheran Church, 2617 Barnett Road, will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. A musical service will be presented.

The junior choir, directed by Mrs. Roy Miller, will sing "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come." Mrs. John Hall will direct the senior choir singing, "We Gather Together." A solo, "Bless This House," will be sung by Dick Mellum.

Christian Science
A traditional Thanksgiving Day service will be held Thursday at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor Ave., at 11 a.m.

A Bible lesson on "Thanksgiving" will be read, opening with a verse from Psalm 33:1. The service will include hymns, prayer, and a period when church members may stand up and express their thanks.

St. Peter's Lutheran
The Rev. John E. Simon, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, will give the Thanksgiving sermon Thursday at 10 a.m. The church is at 1020 E. Main St.

Unity
Corner Holly and Haven Streets
Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.
REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister
Worship Hour — 11:15 a.m.

"Let All the People Praise Thee"
Psalms 67:3
Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m.
Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.—4 p.m.
3777 Jacksonville Hwy. — Ph. 772-6902 — Everyone Welcome

Southern Baptists List Sermons; Dinner Planned

The Rev. Gilbert Skaar, pastor of First Southern Baptist Church, has chosen for his sermon topic Sunday "The Blessed Life."

Song service, led by Robert Klusman, will begin at 10:45 a.m. In the 7:30 p.m. service the pastor will speak on "Who Crucified Jesus?"

An all church fellowship dinner will be held in the recreation room at the church at 794 Lozier Lane, Tuesday at 7 p.m. in connection with the stewardship growth emphasis being initiated at the church this month.

All church and Sunday School members and their families are included. A party for children under the age of nine will be held in the primary department room and nursery care will be provided for children three and under. Neighboring Baptist churches will provide helpers for both the dinner and child care. Mrs. Dave Johnson is dinner chairman and Harvey Hunt, who is directing the stewardship effort, will act as program chairman. Included in the program will be a brief message by the pastor and a film entitled "A Budget Bowl."

Two Churches Set Sunday Events

CENTRAL POINT—"Thanksgiving Day with Confidence" is the sermon subject chosen by Dr. Donald Krug, pastor, for the Central Point Presbyterian Church service, Sunday at 11 a.m. The choir will sing "Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem" by Mauser, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Schafroth.

A booster night for the Youth Fellowship will feature a spaghetti feed Sunday at 6 p.m. to be followed by a program.

JACKSONVILLE — The Rev. Robert T. Bridge, Medford, will be guest speaker at the First Presbyterian Church, Jacksonville, Sunday morning. His sermon title is "But if not..." Music will be a solo by Mrs. Dave Allen.

Immediately following the worship service a coffee hour will be held in the Social hall. All visitors and members of the congregation are invited to join in this informal fellowship.

The Men's Study Group will meet at the church at 7 p.m. Sunday.

Partnership Dinner Planned

The annual partnership dinner at Ascension Lutheran Church will be held Sunday at Cubby's Dining Room at 5:30 p.m. All confirmed members and friends are invited to attend.

A program is planned and the film, "The Uncommitted" will be shown. General chairman of the dinner is Bill Petersen, local Boy Scout director. Charles Swenson is in charge of the program committee and Otto Paulsen is the vest committee chairman.

The Pacific Lutheran University band will present a concert in Medford Tuesday, Nov. 26, at 8 p.m. Preceding the concert a dinner for the band members will be served by Zion and Ascension Lutheran at Zion Lutheran Church. Housing is also being provided by members of the congregations.

Berean Baptist Lists Activities

"Tragic Inconsistency" will be the Rev. R. A. Haden's subject at the worship service at 11 a.m. at Berean Baptist Church, corner of Crater Lake Highway and Avenue A, White City. This is the second in a series of reasons for the church's being. The Scripture portion is Ephesians 4:11-15.

Soloist will be John Probst who will sing "How Great Thou Art!" Mrs. Lucille Cuddy will be pianist and Mrs. Haden will be organist.

The Baptist Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m. with their directors Doug and Pat Fisher. "Dating and Teen-agers" will be the continued topic for discussion.

"Vengeance Belongs to God" is the pastor's message for the 7:30 p.m. service. The young people will be leading the musical part of the program.

Annual Offering To Be Taken at First Nazarene

In cooperation with the worldwide emphasis throughout the Church of the Nazarene, the Medford First Church of the Nazarene at 520 N. Holly St., will hold Thanksgiving services Sunday morning.

The annual Thanksgiving offering which is expected to exceed $1½ million for the general church, is the special feature of the day. It is for world missions. First Church has seven chapters for various age groups in its missionary society, formed for the study of missions.

An added feature this year in the preparation of "Good Cheer" plates and baskets of food stuffs for shut-ins and needy. This is under the direction of Mrs. A. F. Stewart.

The local church goal for the world missionary offering is $2,500, according to the Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor. His message in the 11 a.m. service Sunday is entitled "The Church's Vision."

Music Announced
Perry Christiansen, minister of music and education, has announced the sanctuary choir will sing "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" and Jack Delmonte will sing a tenor solo.

During the 7 p.m. service music will be presented by a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Bill Brewster, Mrs. Rex Vowell, Dean von Stein and George McCune, a duet by Mrs. Vowell and Mr. Delmonte, and a tenor solo by Robert Hansen. The pastor's message continues the topic of the past two Sunday evenings, "Fruits of Holy Living."

Juniors presenting music for their worship service Sunday will be Jim Steele and Bob Griffith, who will sing a duet, and Letha Young who will present the instrumental prelude music. The story sermon will be given by Ronald Weatherford. The junior church is under the direction of Bill Brewster with Miss Carol Harris as music supervisor.

Unity Church Lists Coming Services

"Thanksgiving and Immortality" is the subject of the lesson the Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of Unity Church, Holly and Haven Streets, has chosen for the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service. The text is taken from I Corinthians 15:57. This is the last lesson in the series on Thanksgiving.

Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ. Mrs. H. H. Bresse will sing "I'll Walk With God" by Nicholas Brodsky. A coffee hour will be held at the close of the service, with Mrs. Wilbur E. Howell, chairman.

The prayer ministry will meet Wednesday, Nov. 27 at 11 a.m. at the church. Those attending are to take their lunch. Coffee will be served.

The study class will meet at 1 p.m. The Wednesday night study class will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Unity center, 3777 Jacksonville Highway. The Grants Pass class will meet as usual. The Ashland class will recess for the week. The lesson for all study classes will be "A Very Personal God" from Ernest Wilson's new book, "Soul Power."

Unity church is an affiliate of the Unity School of Christianity at Lee's Summit, Mo.

St. Luke's To Mark Thanksgiving

The 11 a.m. worship service Sunday at St. Luke's Methodist Church will be directed to God in praise and thanksgiving. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor of the church, will preach on the theme: "Implementing Thanksgiving."

The altar choir, composed of boys and girls from the church school, will sing the morning anthem: "We Praise Thee Lord" by Jeffery. It is under the direction of Mrs. Claude Griffin. Mrs. McDonald assists at the organ.

The church is located at 2320 Siskiyou Blvd.

Two Meetings Set By Adventists; To Pack Boxes

Members of the four Valley Seventh-day Adventist churches will attend the Rogue River Academy Home and School meeting at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Pathfinder Clubhouse, located on the school grounds.

Those attending are reminded to take trading stamp books with them to be applied towards the purchase of a second new bus for the school. The first bus, purchased on the trading stamp plan, has been in operation for approximately a year, and another of the older buses will be retired from service as soon as the second bus can be obtained.

Medford Pathfinders will meet at the clubhouse Monday, Nov. 25, at 7 p.m. where they will finish decorating, packing, and distributing boxes of food to local families in need of aid. Club members are divided into 10 units, and each unit will be responsible for one or two families.

Canned goods, collected by the Pathfinders in the Medford residential area at Halloween, will form the basis of the boxes, supplemented with fresh fruits and vegetables.

According to Sidney Nelson, director of the group, exceptional response to the program by Medford residents will enable the boys and girls to repeat Monday night's activities during the Christmas season.

Mother, Daughter Honored by Church

APLEGATE VALLEY—Honoring Mrs. Wilfred Pearson and daughter, Anne, before their departure Tuesday for Honolulu, Ruch Community Church has arranged a "going away" fellowship time Sunday evening. In consideration of the event Pastor Earl G. Mortlock has selected "Friendship" as the subject of his sermon at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Pearson and daughter will be joined in Hawaii by Mr. Pearson, who left earlier, and the family will make their home there. Their home here will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Adams of the Alegate.

First Baptist Church

Conservative-Fundamental
On The Air
K-BOY
11:00
12:00

B. E. Andrews, Pastor
Byron Evans, Youth Dir.
NOW Meeting in The Beautiful New Church, 649 Crater Lake Avenue
SUNDAY, NOV. 24

9:4