

Sniper's Bullet Kills John F. Kennedy During Parade

Spectators hug the ground as newsreel cameramen take pictures as the President is rushed to Parkland Hospital critically wounded in Dallas, Tex. (UPI)

DALLAS (UPI) — Here is a chronological breakdown of the final minutes of President Kennedy's life. Some times are approximate:

11:35 a.m. EST—Presidential airplane lands at Dallas Love Field.

11:45 a.m.—President Kennedy motorcade through downtown Dallas delayed momentarily to allow the President and Vice President Lyndon Johnson to shake hands with greeters at airport.

11:50 a.m.—Motorcade starts from airport.

12:16 p.m.—Motorcade reaches fringe of downtown area.

12:25 p.m.—Motorcade moves through downtown area.

12:28 p.m.—Motorcade moves from downtown area toward Trade Mart, where President was to speak.

12:31 p.m.— President and Texas Gov. John Connally shot.

12:38 p.m.—President rushed to Parkland Hospital.

12:40 p.m.—Staff surgeon and neurosurgeon called. They performed tracheotomy (opening throat) and applied breathing stimulants.

1 p.m.—President dead.

Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, a former Marine and self-styled communist who once renounced his American citizenship and unsuccessfully sought to become a Soviet citizen, was charged with the murder of President John F. Kennedy. Oswald is shown here at the Dallas Police Station where he is being held. He also is charged with the murder of a Dallas policeman who he allegedly shot when the officer attempted to question him. (UPI)

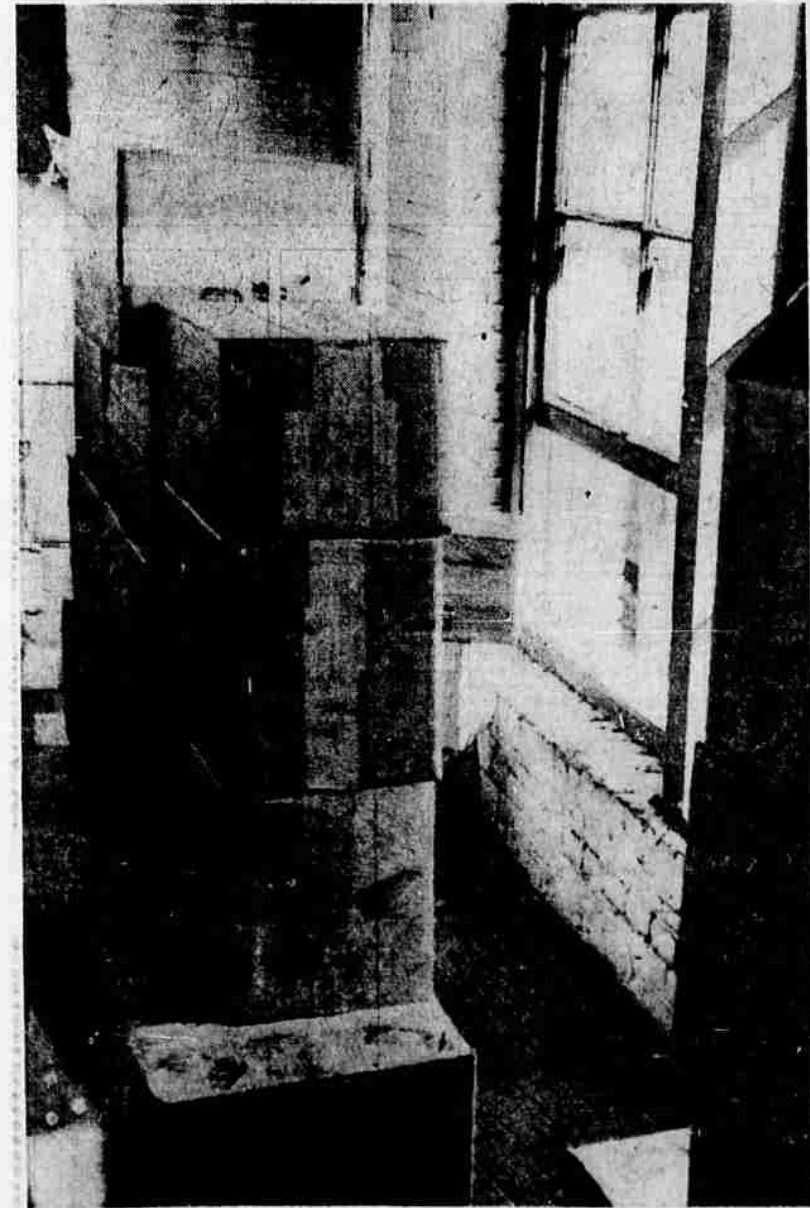

This window is the spot from which a sniper assassinated President Kennedy and injured Texas Gov. John Connally. The President's car was in the upper right-hand corner (arrow). (UPI)

Dallas Police Department Lt. Carl Day carries the rifle believed to be assassination weapon. (UPI)

The President's car, carrying the wounded President John F. Kennedy speeds toward Parkland Hospital. (UPI)

The hiding place of the sniper, whose bullet killed President Kennedy, and the window from which he was shot is shown here. It is on the sixth floor of the Texas School Book Depository building. (UPI)

A member of the Dallas Crime Lab holds a lunch sack and drink bottle which were found at the sniper's hideout. The killer apparently ate his lunch while waiting for the President's motorcade. (UPI)

The arrow in this picture points to window where assassin shot the President of the United States, John F. Kennedy, in Dallas, Tex., Friday. (UPI)