

Hood, Olsen and Moses Get Mention On Little All-Coast

BY HAL WOOD
UPI Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The greatest collection of gridirers ever to perform for the West's small colleges—many of them headed for the pro ranks—was named to the 1963 United Press International Little All-Coast College Football Team Saturday.

Every man was a star for his club and some of the statistics of these lightly-publicized stars are fantastic.

Long Beach State, Lewis and Clark in Oregon and Central Washington each placed two men on the first team.

Headling the cast was fabulous Beau Carter, Fresno State's great signal caller.

"He's the best quarterback we've played against all season," said Coach Bob Titchener of San Jose State, "and that includes Craig Morton of California."

his club to a 9-0 record this year and it may draw a bid to represent the West in the NAIA Camella Bowl in Sacramento.

Among the linemen, Neal Petties of San Diego State caught 59 passes for 1,233 yards and 13 touchdowns. Guard Wayne Swanson of Central Washington, who has only one hand, was a bearcat on defense who averaged eight tackles per game.

And so it went on through the list.

Other names on the first team were tackle Ken Sugarman of Central Washington; guard Gary Boggs, Lewis & Clark; center Howard Kindig, Los ANGELES STATE; and tackle Pete Dengenis, Linfield.

Rogue River Closure Called Off

PORTLAND (UPI)—Tentative closure of the Rogue River to salmon angling above Elk Creek was rescinded at the final hearing on 1964 angling rules by the Oregon Game Commission Friday.

Instead the commission voted to make it illegal to use other than a single hook above Pierce riffle on the Rogue.

In one other change from the tentative code, the commission eliminated the 20-fish possession limit on shad as requested by the Coos Area Spin Fishing Club.

Opening date for the general trout season will be April 25 except streams in zones 1, 3 and 4. The season will run through Oct. 31.

NEW YORK (UPI)—What do you say? What can you say? You're a sports guy and the fate of the whole world has been changed by a guy with a rifle.

You think back to the Olympic Games in Melbourne, down under in Australia.

The Russians won it, and you wondered bitterly what ever happened to the Yankee sons of Daniel Boone and Davey Crockett.

The Russians won it, and you wondered bitterly what ever happened to the Yankee sons of Daniel Boone and Davey Crockett.

Wonders About World
Then a rifle barked in Dallas, down in Texas, a town well known by Crockett, and you wondered again what goes on in this world of ours.

Nobody knows the answer. Who, at the moment. Or why, ever.

You saw him many times, the man named John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

At an Army-Navy game in Philadelphia's vast Municipal Stadium he stood undismayed sans topcoat while the rest of the 102,000 shivered in the cold.

"He's nuts," a guy commented.

But, when he started his physical fitness program headed by Oklahoma football coach Bud Wilkinson, you knew why. Here was a man dedicated to the American way of life—a winning way of life.

Reaches for Foul
There was the All-Star game at Washington last summer. JFK was there in shirt-sleeves, reaching awkwardly for a foul ball, hotdog in hand.

Late President's Interest In Sports Cited By Leaders

National sport leaders expressed shock, anguish and sorrow over the assassination of President Kennedy, a man who was an athlete in his youth and a sports fan throughout his life.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick voiced his grief in solemn tones.

"I can say little because I am terribly shocked," Frick said. "The death of President Kennedy is a terrible blow."

Frick said he and the President were neighbors for a time in Bronxville, N.Y., "and we were all fond of him."

Pete Rozelle, commissioner of the National Football League, expressed "deep shock" at the tragedy.

American Football League Commissioner Joe Foss said: "It is difficult at this time to comprehend the full impact of President Kennedy's loss as a man as well as the head of our government. Words are useless at a time such as this. The magnitude of his loss can only be measured by time and his accomplishments as a heroic serviceman and a devoted servant of our country. Our sympathy is with the Kennedy family in its hour of bereavement."

Grant of Portland Runs Over Roseburg, 19-14

By United Press International
Grant of Portland ground its way into the finals of the Oregon Class A-I high school football playoffs Friday night with a 19-14 victory over Roseburg.

The Generals' victory at Roseburg sent them into next weekend's championships against the winner of Saturday night's Beaverton-North Salem game at Salem.

The latter contest was postponed from Friday night as a result of the assassination of President Kennedy. The Grant-Roseburg game went on as scheduled because the Portland team already had started for the Douglas County city, the Oregon School Activities Association said.

Grant drove 71 yards for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter, with Karl McDade getting the touchdown on a 2-yard run.

Roseburg regained the lead at 14-13 in the third quarter with Beamer scoring again on a 4-yard run. That set the stage for Grant's winning drive.

All action in the state class A-2, B, and eight-man playoffs was scheduled this afternoon.

Runs, Too

Carter, in nine games so far this season, has completed 90 out of 187 passes for 1,266 yards, including eight touchdowns. He also carried the ball for 174 yards to bring his yardage total for the year to 1,440 yards.

But just as sensational was little Mickey Hergert, Lewis & Clark halfback. He packed the pigskin 159 times for 872 yards rushing, caught 19 passes for 237 yards. And he scored 17 (that's right, 17) touchdowns.

Or take the case of Charlie Reed of Whitworth, the 190-pound junior fullback. He scored nine touchdowns while averaging 135 yards per game rushing in the Evergreen Conference. The other halfback on the first team, Dee Andrews of Long Beach, was picked by all opponents as a standout.

Oregon-OSU Game Set For Nov. 30

EUGENE (UPI)—The Oregon-Oregon State football game will be played here next Saturday because of the death of President Kennedy.

The announcement was made jointly Friday afternoon by the school's presidents, Dr. Arthur S. Flemming and Dr. James H. Jensen of Oregon State.

Oregon is listed as a slight favorite. Both teams will rest until Monday.

All Big Six games also were postponed.

Waltonians Give Award to R. L. Hubbard

PORTLAND (UPI)—Richard L. Hubbard of Portland was to receive an award as "Waltonian of the Year" from the Oregon Division of the Izaak Walton League of America Saturday night.

The presentation was scheduled to be made at an awards banquet at the conclusion of the state organization's 41st annual convention.

Golden Beaver awards were to be given to Charles S. Collins of Roseburg and Fred Goetz, Sarah Bechill and KGW-TV, all of Portland.

L. C. Binford of Portland, former national president of the league, was to receive a special honor award.

Giants-Cards Struggle Heads Today's NFL Card

By JOE GERGEN
UPI Sports Writer

Just three weeks ago in St. Louis, New York quarterback Y. A. Tittle gave the Cardinals' bright young signal-caller, Charley Johnson, a course in National Football League know-how as the Giants thrashed St. Louis, 38-21.

The Eastern Division title hopes of three clubs—including the Cards—may now rest on how well Johnson learned his lessons. Sunday in New York, the same two teams meet once again with the Giants holding a slim one-game lead over both St. Louis and Cleveland (7-3).

The Pittsburgh Steelers (6-3) who trail New York by only a game and a half, must hurdle the Chicago Bears to remain in contention in the East. The Bears, whose 9-1 record is the best in pro football, drubbed Green Bay last week to go one game up on the Packers in the Western Division.

The Browns meanwhile host the pass-happy Dallas Cowboys and the Packers entertain the hapless San Francisco Forty Niners.

Mel Renfro Hurts Wrist, Will Miss Game

EUGENE (UPI)—All-American halfback Mel Renfro of Oregon severed the medial nerve in his right wrist Friday night and will not play in next weekend's Oregon State game, it was announced Saturday.

The nerve connects most of the fingers to the wrist. Renfro underwent surgery Friday night and doctors said there will be no permanent damage.

The injury occurred when he hit his hand against a mirror at his home.

Happy Camp Teams Start Hoop Season

HAPPY CAMP, Calif. — The Happy Camp High school varsity and junior varsity basketball teams played their first scheduled game of the season at Fort Jones Friday night.

There are 13 more scheduled games, six of which are Evergreen league tilts, in addition to two tournaments.

The schedule calls for six home games, the first of which is after the Christmas holidays on Jan. 10, a league game with Elina.

Coaching the varsity is Bob Hokanson who has tutored unbeaten teams in Evergreen league competition in the past two years. The junior varsity is coached by Doug Paul, new to the school this year, the regular football and baseball coach at the school.

Sports Activity Slows to Minimum After Tragedy

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

The sports world reacted to the assassination of President Kennedy with postponements and cancellations that reduced weekend activity to about a score of college football games plus some pro basketball and pro football games.

Some 30 college football cancellations included such games as Yale vs. Harvard, Dartmouth vs. Princeton, Wisconsin vs. Minnesota, Indiana vs. Purdue, Air Force vs. Colorado and Kansas State vs. Oklahoma State. Several of the 30-odd games effected have been or may be rescheduled.

AFL To Be Idle

Three of the National Basketball Association's four Saturday night games will be played and the National Football and National Hockey leagues will play their regular Sunday schedules. The American Football League, however, postponed its entire weekend card.

Flat and harness racing at all New York state tracks was cancelled until next Tuesday at the request of Gov. Nelson Rockefeller and a Friday night television fight at Madison Square Garden was postponed.

The most important sports event of the weekend was the Michigan State-Illinois football game Saturday which was to determine the Big 10 football championship and a Rose Bowl

No Football Telecasts

Army and Navy cancelled all sports activity scheduled for Saturday, but there was no decision whether the annual inter-service football classic scheduled for Nov. 30 in Philadelphia will be played.

"We will have to wait and see whether there is a reasonable time after the funeral," said a West Point spokesman. President Kennedy's funeral is scheduled for Monday.

The only sport with events in progress at the time of Mr. Kennedy's death was horse racing. Many tracks cancelled what remained of their programs for the day and these cancellations were quickly followed by cancellations of night harness racing in various sites.

All telecasting of college football Saturday was cancelled by the Columbia Broadcasting System in order to clear the network of all scheduled programs and make room for new telecasts. CBS also cancelled its regional telecasts of NFL games on Sunday.

The television fight between Allen Thomas of Chicago and Johnny Persol of Brooklyn was to be rescheduled for next Friday night at the Garden.

Ford Offer To Buy Lions Team Approved

DETROIT (UPI)—William Clay Ford's offer to buy the Detroit Lions football club for $6 million was given overwhelming approval today by 94 per cent of the stockholders, making Ford the sole owner of the club by next Jan. 10.

Ford said that he would evaluate the work of the administrative and coaching staffs of the Lions at the end of the season, but will have no announcements to make until he assumes control of the company next year. Ford has said earlier he planned to retain head Coach George Wilson.
