Student From Mexico To Speak at CARE Tea

Guest speaker for the annual CARE tea of Medford Travel Study Club to be held Tuesday, November 26, at the Girls Community Club, 229 North Bartlett Street, will be Humberto Rodriguez from Mexico City. The young man is a student at Southern Oregon College and will speak of the living conditions and literacy problems in Mexico and the Latin American countries.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs and the Oregon Federation, with which the Medford club is affiliated, are carrying on a program of aid for these countries in an effort to help them solve their literacy problems.

Mayor James Dunlevy will attend and officially open the tea.

Chairman To Talk
 Mrs. Clay M. Lee, Medford, member of Travel Study Club and chairman of projects for the Oregon Federation, will give a brief resume of the CARE literacy program and its accomplishments.

Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Beryl Lyon, president of Travel Study Club, point out that a basic education is essential to prepare children for earning a living. In Latin American countries, many do not go to school because they do not have pencils, notebooks, books and other equipment needed to enter classes.

The CARE literacy program will help these children, and adults, to acquire an education by providing school kits containing the supplies on which their future may depend.

Pouring at the tea will be Mrs. William R. Harms, Grants Pass, president of First District; Mrs. Roy Nye, Ashland, state department chairman of international affairs; Mrs. James Dunlevy, Mrs. Howard Goldsmith, Miss Josephine Kirtley, Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, Mrs. Jack Holmes, president of Medford Junior Women's Club, and Mrs. Lyon. Miss Robin Zundel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zundel, Coleman Creek road, will display her collection of dolls from 24 foreign countries.

The public is invited to share in this CARE-Literacy program. "We are challenged as never before to help eliminate illiteracy from the face of the earth," Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, president of General Federation of Women's Clubs, has said. "We share because we CARE."

Patricia Estella DeHaas Bride of Wayne Fields

CENTRAL POINT—Miss Patricia Estella DeHaas became the bride of M. Wayne Fields in 7 o'clock evening rites held November 16 in Eastwood Baptist Church. The Rev. K. L. Mathewson officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. DeHaas, 1929 Scenic Avenue, Central Point and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Herbert C. Fields, 411 Beatty Street, Medford, and the late Mr. Fields.

Mr. DeHaas escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's floor length gown of peau d'ange lace and organzine over taffeta was made with basque bodice and long sleeves of lace. The Sabrina neckline was embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins, and the bouffant overskirt was picked up over ruffles of lace. Lace appliques and self-fabric bows trimmed the skirt. Her veil of hand-rolled silk illusion was held from a queen's tiara of lace trimmed with sequins and pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Sister Is Attendant
 Mrs. Grant Davis, Medford, a sister of the bride was matron of honor and Miss Kay Fields, a sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Their long gowns of sapphire blue satin in identical style, were designed with princess bodices. The skirts of controlled fullness were made with shirred back panels and their pill box headpieces of velvet petals held their float veils. Their colonial bouquets were of pink and white carnations.

William Owens was best man and ushers were Michael DeHaas, brother of the bride and Thomas Owens. Kenneth Johnson was groomsmen.

Lighting the candles were Miss Debbie Hewlett and Ryan Fields, brother of the bridegroom. Mel Rennick was soloist and Mrs. Dean Anderson played the organ music.

Baskets of blue tinted and white chrysanthemum decorated the altar.

Reception Held
 About 100 guests attended the wedding and reception given by the bride's parents in the church reception room. Miss Karan Mathern and Mrs. James Martin poured coffee and Mrs. Henry Pech and Mrs. Henry Pech Jr., presided at the punch bowl.

Cutting and serving the wedding cake were Mrs. Edward Owens and Mrs. Kermit DeHaas. Mrs. Gary Hicks had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Clyde Fjarli was at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a beige suit with brown accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose a green printed dress with black redingote. Both had carnation corsages. Mrs. DeHaas wearing orange and Mrs. Fields yellow.

Relatives of the bride from out of town were Mrs. Hicks, a sister of the bride, Spokane, and her grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Rood, Fresno, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Manning and daughters, Miss Bobbie Manning, Roseburg, and Miss Bonnie Faye Manning, Eugene, friends of the bridegroom's family, attended.

Pre-wedding events included a miscellaneous shower for the bride-elect given by Mrs. Davis, her honor attendant, and Miss Mathern. A lingerie shower for her was given by Mrs. Edward Owens and Mrs. Martin.

The couple made their wedding trip to California and now are living at 513 South Holly Street, Medford. The bride, a 1963 graduate of Crater High School has been employed by Cubby's Restaurant. The bridegroom, a 1961 Medford High School graduate is employed at Fir-Ply Incorporated.

Friendship Night Held

ASHLAND—Friendship Night sponsored by Hope Rebekah Lodge had for its theme "The Gay Nineties" carried out in a costume parade of that era. Visitors from other lodges as well as those of the Ashland lodge joined in the fun by wearing old time dresses.

Awarded prizes for their "Gaslight Period" apparel were Mrs. Lee Morton, Jacksonville; Mrs. Pat McNew, Central Point, and Mrs. Rachel Dankworth, Ashland. Gifts were presented to the winners by Mrs. Harvey Shipley, noble grand of the Ashland lodge.

Each of the visiting lodges presented either a pantomime, a game or a short skit on the program. Members taking part were from Medford, Central Point, Kerby, Grants Pass and Cottage Grove.

Plans were announced for a special meeting to be held at 2:30 o'clock today in the lodge hall when Miss MonteBelle Cummings of Grants Pass will show pictures and tell of her experiences last summer as winner of a trip to the United Nations. Miss Cummings' prize-winning essay in the annual IOOF-sponsored pilgrimage made her one of the group of high school students to tour the United States. High school students in the junior and senior classes are eligible for the 1964 contest and are especially invited to the meeting.

The lodge session was followed by a special hour when refreshments were served by Mrs. J. S. Hall, Mrs. Ernest Hamaker and Mrs. Lee Wallis.

Grandmother Club To Meet
 Reports on a national convention of Grandmother Clubs of America will be given by delegates at the Rogue Chapter meeting Monday, November 25 at 12:30 p. m., in Girls Community Club.

A covered dish luncheon will be served by officers as hostesses. Rolls and coffee will be furnished and members should take table service.

Mrs. O. L. Gaston will preside at the business meeting after luncheon.
