This Spanish curio hutch and chest, in sunny accent colors of Valencia Red, Cadiz Blue, Avocado or Verde Green, will always lend a festive atmosphere to your home. Medallions on carved posts, brass or wood grilles and specially designed pull hardware further bestow a Mediterranean flavor. Notice the intricate carving effect on the base of the chest. In addition to the above colors, both pieces come in a highly distressed, brushed fruitwood or antiqued white finish. Worth Furniture Company.

Yreka Church Women Meet; Events Listed

YREKA — Mrs. Ella Soule gave a talk before the Lydia Circle of the Methodist Womens Society of Christian Service on Christian Social Concerns and Christian Social Stations entitled, "Who Cares?" The Circle met in the home of Mrs. Robert Buckner, November 19. A birthday gift was presented to the hostess by the group.

Mrs. Tom Brackney, president conducted the meeting. Announced were a union service to be held Thanksgiving Eve at 7:30 p. m. in the Methodist Church, when the Methodist choir will present special music; on Thursday November 24 at 7:30 p. m. the Girl Scout troupe sponsored by the Lydia Circle will hold a candlelight badge service in the church; the WSCS will hold the annual Christmas party Thursday, December 12 in the evening at the home of Mrs. T. M. Deter on Fort Jones Road. The Lydia Circle will be host group.

The traveling basket has gone to about half of the circle membership. Members were asked not to keep it longer than 10 days. The money from this project is for a memorial fund of the church.

The hostess served refreshments.

Veteran Groups Sponsor Dinner

ASHLAND — A Thanksgiving dinner was enjoyed by 75 members of veterans of World War I and auxiliary November 21 in the Armory. It was followed by a program and closing with brief business meetings of the two units.

Taking part in the after-dinner entertainment were Miss Theresa Krug, who gave an appropriate talk on the meaning of Thanksgiving, and Mrs. Frances Gallatin, who presented a monologue. William Turner served as master of ceremonies.

Out of town guests at the dinner meetings were Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Curry of Grants Pass, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Lucas and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edall of Medford.

Another combined social and business meeting of the barracks and auxiliary is planned for December 12. At that time officers will be elected for the following year.

University Plans Concert Season

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove—Dr. Walter Richardson, operetta tenor and Pacific voice teacher, will be the featured soloist as the Pacific University Orchestra opens its concert season December 7.

The orchestra, under the baton of Albert Shaw, Acting Dean of the School of Music at the University, will present a program of music, both sacred and secular in nature.

The performance, free to the public, is scheduled for Saturday, December 7 at 8 p.m., in Brighton Chapel on the university campus. Raphael Spiro will be assistant conductor, and Mrs. Jean Taggart, concertmistress.

INSPIRATION NEW YORK (UPI) — Nanna Ditzel, Danish industrial designer, drew inspiration from a park bench when creating a new line of furniture for children. And what happened? A children's bed of two long park bench like slats. The beds can be used with or without a back.
