St. Mary's High
St. Mary's High School chapter of the National Honor Society heard an account of Alba, Italy, Friday from John W. Snider, former Medford mayor and organizer of the Sister City Committee.

Snider, who was official guest at the Sister City's Truffle Festival in October, spoke of the history, industry, and mode of life in Alba.

As a result of Snider's suggestion, members of the Honor Society plan to exchange correspondence with students of English in Alba during the coming months.

Foundation Gives Funds to Colleges

Today, 532 privately supported, coeducational and male liberal arts colleges and universities receive checks totaling $80,500 from Household Finance Foundation, B. R. Marks, manager at 128 E. Main St., announced. These checks ranged in amount from $100 to $1,000 based upon the full-time enrollment of the individual colleges.

Since 1956, when HFC established its annual program of gifts, these have totaled more than $550,000. Checks are sent to all four year accredited colleges and universities in the 47 states in which Household Finance Corporation operates.

In Oregon these include Cascade, George Fox, Lewis and Clark, Mount Angel, Northwest Christian, Reed and Warner Pacific Colleges, Pacific and Willamette Universities and the University of Portland.
