"December 7 - Day of Infamy," the second of the documentaries dealing with the major events of the century, will be presented Dec. 6 at 7:30 p.m. over KJES-TV.

The hour-long documentary sponsored by U. S. National Bank makes wide use of Japanese film previously unleased in this country, revealing Japan's war lords plotting their strategy of world conquest, and showing of American leaders in the decade preceding Pearl Harbor.

Through special arrangements with United Artists TV, the bank will present other exclusive Wolper Television documentaries including: "Ten Seconds That Shook the World - The Story of the Atom Bomb"; "Berlin - Kaiser to Khrushchev"; "The Rise and Fall of American Communism"; and "The American Woman in the 20th Century."

Untold Thousands File Past Bier of President Kennedy WASHINGTON (UPI)—Through the cold night and into the day they kept moving upon the Capitol to pay their respects to the fallen President. Hundreds in state beneath the dome of the great rotunda. At 9:25 a.m. EST, police formed a cordon in the long line at a point about two blocks east of the Capitol. This meant that some thousands who had endured the near-freezing weather for hours would be disappointed. The cordon was necessary to assure that the rotunda would be cleared in time for John Fitzgerald Kennedy's last ride in the White House. Hundreds in the Capitol when the cordon continued to shuffle forward to file past the casket. As the last of the visitors passed the flag-draped casket at 9 a.m. EST, Capitol Police Chief Charles J. Sullivan estimated that 250,000 persons viewed the casket on its ancient catafalque shrouded in black.

Building Permits Rise During Month Building permits increased in Medford in October, 1963, compared to October, 1962. The University of Oregon Bureau of Business Research has reported. In October, 1963, the total was $566,734 compared to $432,433 in the same month last year.

At midnight authorities had warned those at the end of the slow moving line - almost 30 blocks long - that they might not get a chance to get into the rotunda. Police repeated the warning at 2 a.m. and again at 3 and 4 and 5 a.m. and still they came. Among the latecomers in reverence beside the bier were former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the man Kennedy defeated for the presidency in 1960, and his wife, Patricia. They appeared at three minutes before 9 o'clock.

The massive doors to the Capitol were closed promptly at 9. Those inside the rotunda were allowed to file past the bier. By 9:05 a.m. EST, the last of the tens of thousands of ordinary mourners passed the bier.

Kennedy Casket Bearers Named WASHINGTON (UPI) - The servicemen who bore President Kennedy's casket today are: Army-1st Lt. Samuel R. Bird of Wichita, Kan.; Sgt. James L. Chesk of Ocala, Fla., and Pfc. Jerry J. Diamond of Dow, Ohio. Air Force-Sgt. Richard E. Gaudreau of Ashby, Mass. Coast Guard - Yeoman 2-c George A. Barnum of Lake City, Minn.

Except for Diamond and Smith all of the men served as casket-bearers since the President's body arrived Friday night from Dallas.
