

NATURAL GAS ARRIVES—Medford Mayor James Dunlevy, right, "turns" the valve Thursday signifying the arrival of natural gas in Southern Oregon. Natural gas actually was turned into the area's mains Nov. 16. Observing the event near the California-Pacific Utilities network of pipes at their regulator station on North Front Street are E. K. Albert, center, San Francisco, California-Pacific Utilities Company president, and Murray S. Gardiner, Medford district manager. The regulator station reduces the natural gas pressure from 25 to 5 pounds per square inch.

EDITOR'S: The following is a digest of the major domestic and international news not related to the events in Dallas and Washington.
By United Press International

MIAMI, Fla.—A force of 50 detectives was on round-the-clock duty today in a search for the sex-slayer of 10-year-old Loren Thorbahn. Her body, showing signs of massive blows on the skull, was found on the city's outskirts in same general area where the remains of a 19-year-old girl, the victim of a similar crime, was found last month.

NORWALK, Ohio—The last body of the 63 elderly patients who died in a fire at a rest home here has been removed from the ruins. An investigation has been launched by Gov. James Rhodes into the cause of the tragedy. Authorities continue the grisly and difficult task of identifying the charred bodies.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—Trial resumes Tuesday in the "murder for hire" case of lawyer T.

Eugene Thompson, accused of arranging the slaying of his heavily insured wife. The trial was recessed until then because of the day of mourning for President Kennedy.

CONCORD, N.H.—Condemned killers Frederick Martineau, 38, and Russell Nelson, 36, have received their seventh stay of execution. They were convicted for the slaying three years ago of Maurice Gagnon of Lincoln, R.I.

LAWRENCE, Mass.—Joanne M. Graf, 22, a Sunday school teacher from Chicago, was found strangled Sunday with two nylon stockings and the leg of a leotard. She was the 12th woman strangled in eastern Massachusetts in the past year and a half. Ten of the killings are still unsolved.

INTERNATIONAL
ROME—The Christian Democratic and Socialist party leaders make their all-important decision today whether to ratify an agreement for a new center-left government committed to support of NATO. Prospects appeared good that the agreement would be approved and that Italy would have a new government by the end of the week led by Premier-Designate Aldo Moro.

MOSCOW—The official newspaper of the Soviet Communist party has called for a rapprochement between Red China and the Soviet Union. The newspaper "Pravda" said the Kremlin would "do everything to overcome differences" with Red China, with whom the Soviet Union has been carrying on an ideological war.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam—A Communist raiding party overran a U.S.-backed training camp for South Viet Nam troops, killing at least 37. The Viet Cong raiders captured four American soldiers and critically injured a U.S. Army lieutenant.

BRUSSELS—The staff of the Soviet Embassy in Leopoldville, ousted by Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula, has left here for Moscow on a special jetliner. The Russians, including Ambassador Sergei Nemtchina and his entire staff, were expelled by Adoula for allegedly conspiring with opposition groups to overthrow the government.

JFK Grandmother Not Told of Death

BOSTON (UPI)—President Kennedy's 98-year-old grandmother has not been told, and probably never will be, of the President's assassination.
Mrs. John F. Fitzgerald celebrated her 98th birthday Oct. 31. She is the widow of former Boston Mayor John (Honey Fitz) Fitzgerald.
"Her mind is keen, very keen, and we are afraid she'd understand this awful thing all too well," Miss Katherine Fitzmaurice of Worcester, the woman's constant nurse, said.
Mrs. Fitzgerald lives with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Fitzgerald. She is confined to her room and cannot see the flag flying at half-staff outside the house.

Church Leaders Denounce Slaying Of Lee Oswald

PORTLAND (UPI)—Religious leaders Sunday denounced the slaying in Dallas, Tex., of Lee Harvey Oswald, who had been charged with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.
Dr. A. Raymond Grant, Methodist bishop of the Portland area, said, "I shuddered when I learned the crowds cheered when Lee Oswald had been killed. . . . God have mercy upon us, that human life has become so cheap and that tragedy has been heaped upon tragedy."
Rabbi Emanuel Rose of Temple Beth Israel said, "I think that this killing is also a disgraceful infringement on the legal process of democratic government."
The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edmund Van de Zander, chancellor of the Catholic Archdiocese of Portland, said "This profoundly adds to the confusion and consternation that overshadows our country. Another act of violence in no way lessens the shame we already feel for the tragedy."

The Rt. Rev. James W. F. Carman, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Oregon, said, ". . . if a person is a true patriot, and not the kind of a crackpot that killed the President, as an American, he will not tolerate any individual taking the law into his own hands however indignant he may be. . . ."

Nurserymen Elect Chapter Officers

Chet Thompkins, Grants Pass, was elected president of the Cascade Chapter of the Oregon Association of Nurserymen at their meeting Tuesday, Nov. 19.
Other officers elected were: John Hamilton, Grants Pass, vice president; Hazel Carney, Applegate, secretary-treasurer; L. A. Baker, Klamath Falls, and Willard Hershberg, Central Point, directors, and Mrs. Nell Faulkner, Central Point, representative to the state association. Mrs. Faulkner is retiring president.
Merv Belknap, executive secretary of the Oregon Association of Nurserymen, discussed the various insurance policies available through the state association.

John W. McLoughlin, Jackson County Extension Agent, gave a talk on tree diseases, illustrated with slides of diseases common to this area. The presentation was followed by a discussion of the problems confronting nurserymen and garden products suppliers in this area.
The next meeting will be Feb. 18 in Grants Pass.

Dallas Closes Assassination Case

WASHINGTON (UPI)—With the death of Lee Harvey Oswald, Dallas authorities consider the case of President Kennedy's assassination closed, but the FBI said Sunday night it would continue to investigate the matter.
"There is very strong evidence that Oswald was the President's assassin," a Justice Department spokesman here said. "But we do not consider the case closed just because Oswald himself has fallen victim to an assassin."
"We will not consider the case closed until we have obtained all evidence we can," the spokesman said.

Deschutes Judge Heads Oregon Counties
PORTLAND (UPI)—Deschutes County Judge D. L. Penhollow was elected president of the Association of Oregon Counties at the close of its annual convention here.
Also elected were Yamhill County Judge R. E. Renne as vice president and Benton County Commissioner Melvin S. Hawkins as treasurer.

Oregonian's Body Found in Humboldt

EUREKA, Calif. (UPI)—Police Saturday found the body of an Oregon fisherman floating face down in Humboldt Bay near the end of a street that dead ends on the bay.
The victim was identified as James Ledgerwood, 47, McMinnville. He had been missing for about 24 days, officers reported.
Deputy Coroner Chalmers Crichton, who performed a partial autopsy, said there were no apparent signs of foul play.
Police theorized he may have fallen into the bay.

Remove polishing wax before applying a new coat. And clean the surface thoroughly with a mild soap and soft water.
