Lansdale's Tribute of Respect

TO THE MEMORY OF THE

Nation's Martyred President, Wm. McKinley.

Music Hall, Thursday, Sept. 19

At 2 O'clock, P. M.

Singing, "America," by Audience.

My country 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the pilgrim's pride!
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

My native country, thee,
Land of the noble, free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

Our fathers' God! to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

Reading President's Proclamation, Rev. J. J. Rothrock.

Scripture Lesson and Prayer, Rev. G. D. Sweigert.

Vocal Solo, "Lead, Kindly Light,"

Address, Prof. H. Horace Beidler.

Address, Rev. F. W. Johnson.

Singing, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," by Audience.

Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee,
E'er though it be a cross,
That raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

Angels to beckon me,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!
Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony grave,
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my cross to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet in my dream I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

Or if, on joyful wing
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

There let the way appear,
Steps unto heaven;
All that thou sendest me,
In mercy given!

Address, Rev. A. J. Amthor.
Doxology.
Benediction, Rev. J. J. Rothrock.

Efforts Renewed To Tie Thompson To Wife's Killer

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI)—The prosecution renewed its efforts today to link accused slayer T. Eugene Thompson with the alleged "middleman" and actual killer of the young attorney's wife.

One and possibly both of the two other men, who like Thompson are charged with first degree murder, were expected to take the stand today or Wednesday.

Prosecutor William B. Randall was believed ready to call Dick W. C. Anderson, 34, Minneapolis salesman, to the stand soon. Police said Anderson has admitted he was hired to do the killing and that he carried it out in the fashionable Thompson home on March 6.

Thompson was charged with masterminding the plot to do away with his wife, Carol, 34, mother of the couple's four children. The prosecution says he hoped to collect more than $1 million in insurance and take up with a paramour.

Norman Mastrian, 39, one-time Minneapolis boxer, has been called the middleman in the slaying by police and several witnesses at the four-week-old trial.

Grant J. Mullinger, St. Paul detective, was on the stand Friday when the trial was recessed because of President Kennedy's assassination. The trial remained in recess through funeral services Monday.

Questions Charged

Several other detectives were expected to be called before Anderson makes his appearance on the stand. Legal questions surrounding the possible testimony of Mastrian have been cleared up, but it was not known if Randall would summon Mastrian to testify.

Mastrian has refused to say anything to police about the case, and could invoke the 5th amendment to the U.S. Constitution if called. The amendment protects a person from self-incrimination.
