

Loyola Picked 1st, OSU 10th In Pre-Season Basketball Poll

NEW YORK (UPI) — Defending NCAA champion Loyola today was chosen the nation's top team in the annual pre-season polling by the 35 members of the United Press International board of basketball coaches.

The Ramblers, who beat Cincinnati for the national title by a scant two points last season, again found themselves ahead of the Bearcats by a slim margin in the coaches voting.

They received 22 first-place votes and a total of 325 points. Cincinnati, meanwhile, had only 10 first-place votes but 285 points.

New York University, with three first-place votes, was third with 265 points.

Duke was fourth; Wichita fifth; Arizona State sixth; Ohio State seventh; Texas eighth; Michigan ninth; and Oregon State was tenth.

Loyola, which opens its season Monday against North Dakota, will defend its championship with four of the five starters who brought the crown to the Chicago campus.

Loyola and Cincinnati were the only teams named on all 33 ballots and were the only teams receiving first place votes with the exception of NYU.

Points are allotted on the basis of 10-9-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 for first through 10th places.

The "second 10" included, in order, Kansas State, Kentucky, UCLA, Providence, San Francisco, Illinois, Stanford, Oklahoma State, Villanova and West Virginia.

Second ten: 11. Kansas State, 42; 12. Kentucky, 35; 13. UCLA, 33; 14. Providence, 31; 15. San Francisco, 26; 16. Illinois, 24; 17. Stanford, 22; 18. Oklahoma State, 21; 19. Villanova, 17; 20. West Virginia, 13.

Florida A&M To Play Morgan
MIAMI (UPI) — The Florida A&M Rattlers will get a revenge crack at Morgan State College of Baltimore Dec. 14 in the annual Orange Blossom football classic here.

Dr. George W. Gore, president of the Tallahassee school, announced the match Monday. Florida A&M annually plays the role of host team in the classic in the Orange Bowl.

Morgan State handed the Florida school its worst beating in 20 years when the Northerners rolled over A&M 50-0 in 1943.

SIGN FOR SHRINE
MIAMI (UPI) — Fullback Bill Swingle and guard Tim Powell of Northwestern have signed to play for the North team in the annual Shrine college football game in the Orange Bowl Dec. 21.

Steinbeck Reveals Reaction in Poland To Assassination

EDITOR'S NOTE: American Nobel Prize-winning novelist John Steinbeck has been on a cultural tour of the Iron Curtain countries at the personal request of the late President Kennedy. He was in Warsaw when the news of the assassination reached the Polish capital. Now in Vienna, he describes the Polish reaction.

By JOHN STEINBECK (As Told To UPI)
VIENNA (UPI) — It was the most fantastic thing I ever saw. The line-up at the American Embassy began early in the morning and lasted until midnight. The Poles lined up to sign the condolence book. Most of them didn't stop at merely signing their name. Some wrote long sentiments.

A young Polish sculptor appeared at the door of the new embassy early the next morning with a bust of the President and asked if he could put it in the lobby as a memorial. It was placed there, along with a picture of the President, draped in black.

Not Enough Guards
Then they began piling on the flowers. Day and night the people came. There weren't enough embassy guards to go around so the embassy members took turns at guard duty.

I've never seen anything like it. The Poles said they'd never seen its like either, not for anyone. We heard about it in Warsaw late at night. We had just got-

Annual Oregon Club Banquet Set Dec. 5
EUGENE (UPI) — The annual Oregon Club banquet Monday was rescheduled for Dec. 5 at the Eugene Hotel.

Willamette football Coach Ted Ogden was named as main speaker for the banquet, which is held to honor the Oregon football team.

The Hoffman Award will be given at the dinner to the Duck's most valuable player for this season.

DISAPPOINTMENT
PORTLAND (UPI) — Lewis and Clark football players, disappointed at not receiving a bid to compete in the NAIA playoffs, turned in their suits today.

The team had been working out since completing the regular season with an 8-0 mark in hopes of landing a berth. But the NAIA today announced College of Emporia, Kan., and Prairie View A&M of Texas were picked for the final two spots in the four-team playoff.

Lewis and Clark had an 8-0 record. "Well, that's it," Coach Joe Huston said when he was notified.

Longest Basketball Dribble Scheduled
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — Marquette University students said today they would start the "world's longest basketball dribble" Saturday by bouncing a ball from Kalamazoo, Mich., to Milwaukee.

The ball will be dribbled continuously on the ferry from Muskegon, Mich., to Milwaukee and then bounced by relay teams until the Western Michigan-Marquette basketball game Dec. 7.

Lewis & Clark Fails To Win Bid From NAIA

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics today announced selection of College of Emporia, Kan., and Prairie View A&M as the third and fourth teams to compete in semifinal playoffs for the NAIA football championship.

Last week, St. John's, Minn., and Kearney, Neb., State were chosen for the playoffs.

A. O. Duer, NAIA executive secretary, said Kearney (9-0) and Prairie View (8-0) would meet Dec. 7 at Kearney College of Emporia (10-0) and St. John's (8-0) will meet this Saturday at Metropolitan Stadium in Minneapolis.

Winners of the playoff games will collide Dec. 14 in the Camellia Bowl at Sacramento, Calif. Winner of that game is regarded as the nation's small college football champion.

Northern Illinois 9-0, ranked No. 1 in today's final NAIA football ratings, could not participate in the playoffs because conference rules prohibit the school from competing after November.

St. John's finished second in the balloting, followed by Kearney in the No. 3 spot and College of Emporia and Prairie View tied for fourth.

After that came Northeastern Oklahoma 10-0 in sixth place, Southwest Texas State 9-0 in seventh and Lewis & Clark, Ore. (8-0) in the No. 8 spot. Rounding out the top 10 are Central Washington State 9-0 and Florida A&M 7-1.
