

Staubach Selected Heisman Trophy Winner in Football

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (UPI) — Roger Staubach, Navy's runaway winner of the Heisman award as the top college football player of 1963, asked for only one thing more today — a victory over Army.

"The award is something I'll treasure all my life," said the 21-year-old Middle Tennessee quarterback from Cincinnati, Ohio. "Naturally, I'm extremely excited and pleased. This is really great, but we've still got the Army game."

Staubach, only the fourth junior to gain the award during the 29 years it has been given by the Downtown Athletic Club, made his comments even as the traditional Army-Navy game officially was being postponed from Nov. 30 to Dec. 7 because of the late President Kennedy's death.

Staubach's coach, Wayne Hardin, said, "I never personally had any doubt that he would win it. I think that he deserved the award and am very proud of him. I know that he realizes that without the fine play of his teammates he would not have been able to win the award."

Landslide

The 6-foot, 2-inch, 190-pound Ohioan, who drew a near landslide total of 1,860 points in the balloting by sports writers, broadcasters and telecasters throughout the nation compared with only 504 points for runner-up Billy Lothridge of Georgia Tech, readily conceded he could not have won the award alone.

"I owe it to everyone," he said. "My grade school coach... My coaches in high school and junior college... Coach Hardin and, of course, all my teammates."

Staubach, who will be presented with the award at the Downtown AC in New York on Dec. 4, was mentioned on 694 of the 784 votes cast. He received 517 votes for first place, 132 for second, and 45 for third. He was voted first in each of the five selections of the nation.

Points were computed on a basis of three for a first place vote, two for second and one for third.

Lothridge, Georgia Tech's brilliant quarterback, received 65 first place votes while Michigan's Sherman Lewis of Michigan State, who wound up third with 369 points, polled 33 first place votes.

Don Trull of Baylor finished fourth with 253 points while Scott Appleton of Texas was fifth with 194.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fraley's follies and the weekend football "winners" — but remember in these "irrationals" the oblate spheroid takes bewildering bounces.

Games of the Week

Texas over Texas Aggies — A Thursday feature as Texas finishes an unbeaten season and stamps into the Cotton Bowl. The Longhorns are 13-point favorites and should better that in joining the mythical national championship.

Michigan State over Illinois — With the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl trip in the balance, State's defense should make the Thanksgiving difference while the offense beats the six point spread.

The East

Yale over Harvard — Going for the one point underdog. Princeton over Dartmouth — Bigger than seven for the Ivy title.

Syracuse over Notre dame — Seven seems too much to give. Cornell over Penn — But not in this one.

Also: Columbia over Rutgers and Boston College over Holy Cross.

The Midwest

Ohio State over Michigan — And thanks for the point.

Indiana over Purdue — Here, too.

Wisconsin over Minnesota — Bigger than four or a loser.

Missouri over Kansas — Taking the four-point underdog.

Cincinnati over Miami, Ohio — Beating the six spot.

The West

USC over UCLA — But 13 points looks too big.

California over Stanford — Not for the underdog.

Oregon over Oregon State — Better than two points.

Washington over Washington State — And better than two TD's.

The South

Duke over North Carolina — It's a total toss up.

Alabama over Auburn — Wouldn't take the six points.

Pitt over Miami — By more than eight.

Florida over Florida State — Beating the four points.

Also: Mississippi over Mississippi State, Georgia Tech over Georgia, Tennessee over Vanderbilt, Memphis State over Houston, Maryland over Virginia, Clemson over South Carolina, West Virginia over Furman, Richmond over W&M and VPI over VMI.

The Southwest

Rice over Baylor — It's a coin flipper.

SMU over TCU — Taking the three point underdog.

Oklahoma over Oklahoma State — Better than the 21.

Wichita over Tulsa — But not by seven.

Arizona State over Arizona — Nore here, either.

Cleveland Has Luck In Drawing

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Cleveland Browns will be sitting pretty if they finish in a two-way tie for first place in the Eastern Division at the conclusion of the regular National Football League season Dec. 15.

If the Browns deadlock the New York Giants, the St. Louis Cardinals or the Pittsburgh Steelers for the Eastern crown, they will serve as the host team for a playoff game in each instance Dec. 22.

Because four teams — the Browns, Giants, Cardinals and Steelers — still are in the running for the NFL's Eastern title, 10 possible playoffs were assessed and decided upon Tuesday during coin-tossing ceremonies. The results were announced by Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

The Giants were almost as lucky as the Browns in the "heads or tails" lottery. If the New Yorkers tie either the Steelers or the Cardinals, they will host the playoff game. In the event of a three-way tie among the Giants, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, the Giants draw a bye and then meet the Browns-Steelers winner at Yankee Stadium.

Only One Toss

Only one toss was needed for a possible playoff in the Western Division, where the Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers are the only teams still battling for the title. The Packers won the toss and will have the home field advantage in a playoff with the Bears, if one is necessary.

If the Cardinals, the Giants and the Browns — currently tied for the Eastern lead — should finish that way, the Browns will host the Giants on Dec. 22, with the winner entertaining the Cardinals the following Sunday. This would postpone the championship game until Sunday, Jan. 5.

If St. Louis ties Cleveland and Pittsburgh, the Steelers entertain the Browns, with the winner hosting the Cardinals. If Pittsburgh, New York and St. Louis finish in a tie, the Giants host the Cardinals and the Steelers entertain the winner.

The Steelers will serve as the host team if they wind up in a two-way tie with St. Louis.

Harvey Released By NY Rangers

NEW YORK (UPI) — Doug Harvey, one of the National Hockey League's all-time great defencemen who was hooted and then booted out of New York, may make Toronto his next port of call.

The 33-year-old former star of the Montreal Canadiens went into hiding Tuesday after the Rangers gave him his unconditional release.

However, it was learned he may attempt to hook on with the Toronto Maple Leafs the defending league and Stanley Cup champions, or the Boston Bruins, who are holding down their customary basement berth in the NHL.

Manager-Coach Punch Imlach of the Maple Leafs said he would be "willing to listen" to Harvey "when and if he approaches me about a job."

"I've always been a good listener," said Imlach.

The Bruins are more desperate for backline help than Toronto but they may not be willing to match the $20,000 salary New York was paying Harvey as a part-time performer this season.

Wrestling Clinic at SO College

ASHLAND — Southern Oregon Coaches and Competitors Wrestling Clinic will be held on Saturday, Nov. 23 from 10 a.m. throughout the day at Southern Oregon College gym.

This is the only state-wide clinic of this caliber sanctioned by Oregon School Activities Association. The clinic will be conducted by Bob Bennett, wrestling coach for SOC, and Bill Ryder, wrestling coach for Grants Pass High.

This will be a participating type of a clinic. Each school will be limited to four selected wrestlers. Officials are encouraged to attend and all interested spectators are welcomed.

The schools participating in the clinic are as follows: Grants Pass, Medford, Crater, Ashland, Sutherlin, Anderson, Calif., and many Junior Highs. All schools are encouraged in attending.

SOC first wrestling match will be with Humboldt State on Dec. 6, 1963.

KC Trades Siebern For Gentle

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — The Kansas City Athletics had completed a general house cleaning today with the trade of Norm Siebern to the Baltimore Orioles for Jim Gentle and $25,000.

The exchange of first basemen Tuesday marked the departure of the last of the old Athletics, those who were on the team's roster when Charles O. Finley purchased the club in January, 1961.

Finley has wielded a busy broom from the start in his efforts to rebuild the Athletics. But he has swept at a spring-cleaning pace during the past eight days in a crash program to add power to the lineup.

Last week, the Athletics sent second baseman Jerry Lumer and pitching mainstays Dave Wickersham and Ed Rakow to the Detroit Tigers in exchange for slugger Rocky Colavito, a right-handed swinger. The Tigers also sent along relief pitcher Bob Anderson and $50,000 with Colavito. That was the first step in Kansas City's program for power.

One-Two Combine

The second step in the program came Tuesday when they got Gentle, a left-handed slugger.

"We feel that now we have the best one - two home run combination that Kansas City has ever had," said Athletics General Manager Pat Friday.

Siebern, the last varsity hold-over from the club Finley purchased, was the only semba- lance of power in the Kansas City lineup during the past three seasons. He batted cleanup. His best year was 1962 when he hit 25 home runs, drove in 117 and batted .308. Last year he hit 16 homers, drove in 83 runs and batted .272.

Gentle, who at 29 is one year younger than Siebern, had a poor year last season. He batted .248, hit 24 homers and drove in 72 runs.

But Gentle has produced more for the Orioles in the past four seasons than Siebern has produced for the Athletics. During that period, Gentle hit 124 homers, drove in 308 runs and batted .272. Siebern hit 78 home runs, drove in 367 runs and batted .289.

Eight Quintets Prep for Tipoff

SALTEM — Four basketball teams each from the Northwest Conference and the Oregon Collegiate Conference are applying finishing touches to their attacks in preparation for the fifth annual NAIA Tip-Off Tourney to be hosted by Willamette and Pacific Universities Dec. 5-7.

Teams and first round pairings for the season inaugural are:

At Willamette, Linfield and Oregon College and Eastern Oregon College and Willamette; at the Forest Grove High School gym, Portland State College and Lewis and Clark and Oregon Technical Institute and host Pacific.

Second round play continues at both sites, but all eight teams will meet at Willamette Dec. 7 for the finals starting at 5 p.m. and carrying through to the championship tilt.

Last year Lewis and Clark won the tourney to replace Willamette as tip-off titlists. WU

Stronger Pilot Hoop Crew Seen

By JAMES F. COUR

PORTLAND (UPI) — "We're going to be stronger."

That was the way Al Negratti describes the Portland Pilots' basketball fortunes this season. And the "stronger" Pilots might just be the darkhorse team on the Pacific Coast.

"Our shooting is stronger and we are definitely stronger at guard," Negratti said.

Portland, which compiled an 8-18 record last year, but came up with a 67-58 late season victory over NCAA Western regional champion Oregon State, will be led by Steve Anstett.

Anstett, a 6-8, 215-pound center, probably will break the Pilots' three-season varsity career scoring record in his senior year.

He has 803 points in his first two varsity campaigns. The record is 1,199 points.

Anstett averaged Portland with 47.2 points in 26 games for an 18.2 average and 323 rebounds last season.

"Steve is really tough," Negratti said. "He can hold his own with about anyone."

The Pilots' coach said "rebounding and defense may be our weak points...at least, we appear to be weakest in these departments at this stage."

"But, as of now, this is the hardest working, most spirited group I've had since I've been out here."

Negratti is a former Seton Hall star who is in his ninth season as head basketball coach at Portland.

Play SF State

The Pilots will open their season against San Francisco State at Hudson's Bay High School in Vancouver, Wash., Saturday night.

Negratti probably will open with Anstett at center, 6-6 Cincinnati Powell and 6-5 Jim Dorch at forwards and 6-2 San Coston and 6-3 Tom Nichols at guards.

His top reserves figure to be 6-7 Mickey Toner, 6-4 Dave Cooper, 6-5 Dennis Channing and 6-3 Ken Falkner.

The Pilots 26-game schedule includes Oregon State, Seattle and DePaul.

Army-Navy Contest To Be Dedicated To Memory of Kennedy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Army and Navy will get a chance to play their annual football classic at the specific request of the family of the late President Kennedy.

The game will be dedicated to Kennedy's memory, the Pentagon announced Tuesday.

After a day of conferences, Pentagon officials said it was decided to reschedule the Philadelphia game for Dec. 7, a one-week postponement.

Buccaneers Buy Freese From Reds

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, in a move to strengthen their infield, today purchased third baseman Gene Freese from the Cincinnati Reds.

Purchase of the 29-year-old Freese was announced by General Manager Joe L. Brown, who last year traded away three-fourths of the infield that brought the Pirates their first world championship in 35 years in 1960. At the time, he said the trades were made to bulwark his pitching in order to make the club a contender.

Brown refused to disclose the price paid for Freese but said "it was the highest price ever paid for a player in the eight years I have been with the Pirates."

"The management has justified their confidence in me by approving the purchase," Brown said. "I talked with Gene and he said he was happy to be back with us. He told me he is in top-notch physical condition and felt it was like coming home again by rejoining us."

Brown added that the Pirates would give up a minor league player to the Reds. He said the identity of the player would be announced later.

Brown's dealings between 1962 and 1963 sent first baseman Dick Stuart to the Boston Red Sox, shortstop Dick Groat to the St. Louis Cardinals and third baseman Don Hoak to the Philadelphia Phils.

In return, Pittsburgh received pitcher Don Schwall and catcher Jim Pagnallaro from the Sox, pitcher Don Cardwell and infielder Julio Gotay from the Cards, and outfielder Ted Savage and infielder Pancho Herrera from the Phils.

Stuart, Groat and Hoak, along with second baseman Bill Mazeroski, comprised the Pirates' infield in 1960 when they were world champions.

Thurlow Shines

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — Hard-running Stanford halfback Steve Thurlow looked good Tuesday during a two hour scrimmage.

Coach John Ralston was pleased to see that Thurlow, who had been sidelined earlier by a charley horse, came through in fine shape. The Indians were working hard in anticipation of Saturday's big game with California.

Nebraska's Devaney UPI Mentor of Week

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — He took over the football job at a school which hadn't had more than a couple of winners in two decades and racked up a 9-2 record his first year.

During his second season he steered the club to a gaudy 9-1 mark.

The ninth victory, a 29-20 defeat of Oklahoma last Saturday, was more than just another win. It gave him just his first Big Eight title in 23 years; it nailed down a trip to the Orange Bowl; and it won for Nebraska Coach Bob Devaney the title of United Press International Coach of the Week.

Devaney said the triumph over the always tough Sooners was the "greatest" of his career. Then he immediately started handing out praise. By the time he was finished he had mentioned every assistant coach and most of the players.

Credits Aides

"Give my assistants a lot of credit," he said. "They did a heck of a job of getting the team ready."

Asked for his analysis of the game, Devaney said it could best be described as a "hard-hitter." There were numerous fumbles and some of them, he said, stemmed from jarring tackles.

On the Monday preceding the game, Devaney assured a quarterback luncheon meeting of several hundred rabid fans that "we're going after Oklahoma" and added that his players were already beginning to "prime" themselves for a top effort.

After the game, the happy coach was able to say, "we took the game right to them from the opening kickoff — and we seldom gave them good field position."

DENVER LOSES MINGO

DENVER (UPI) — Halfback Gene Mingo has been lost to the Denver Broncos of the American Football League as a running back for the remainder of the season.

Coach Jack Faulkner said Tuesday that Mingo, who suffered a chipped elbow against the New York Jets last week, will still be used for placekicking duties but could no longer be used as a runner.
