Signature V by Ampex Corporation.

CAN LEARN FAST - Lucky family if they receive an organ for Christmas. Every member of the family can soon learn to play this self-contained console electric organ. And, it's a beautiful brown mahogany furniture piece that fits wonderfully well into any decorating scheme. By Hammond Organ.

Diamond Jewelry Popular Gift Item

Women have an affinity for diamond jewelry, especially at Christmas. Of all the jewelry forms, pins are the most practical and "safe" gift choices because they are adaptable to most apparel. The classic gold pin lavished with a diamond spark keeps company with all ages: on the wrist of a college girl, on her mother's velvet cocktail hat, or on grandmother's silky holiday dress. Re-styled designs for pins are nature forms, leaves, flowers, birds and even butterflies. Gold leaf pins with engraved veins emerging from diamond-tipped stems look freshly fallen. Hair buns and floral sprays come in realistic or stylized versions. Solitary substantial pins are studies in contrast, with alternating petals of polished and Florentine-finished gold. Free-form and abstract pin designs, dramatized with diamonds, are reminiscent of famous sculptures and paintings. Earrings come in designs to match pins to complete the jeweled ensemble. High Fashion

Holiday Custom Is Explained

The tradition of giving gifts at Christmas began with a legend, as did so many other holiday customs. It was believed at one time that the Christ Child went from door to door during the holiday season, disguised as a beggar and asking alms. In return for kind and deserving souls. Since no one knew when or where He might appear, Christians feared to turn beggars from their door lest they unknowingly turn away the Christ Child. This began the custom of charity to the poor at Christmas time; today this charity is still practiced, but not out of fear, rather, it is done out of love, generosity and thankfulness by those who have been materially blessed.

Lockets

Victorian-type lockets of glistering gold are enjoying a revival. Oval, round and heart-shaped lockets have a deep-set center diamond on the cover or are engraved with forget-me-nots. Necklaces clasps are an unusual fashion jewel gift. For the woman who wears a favorite necklace, there are clusters of pearls and diamonds resting on the topside of a clasp in several designs. Not only is the jeweled clasp practical, it's beautiful and meant to be worn in the center front hollow of the neck. Jeweled clasps accommodate

FOCAL POINT

Hospitality during the holidays begins with a festive, gracious table setting. As the focal point, nothing can surpass the elegance of heavy silverplate pieces such as the punch bowl set shown here. By Wallace Silver-Smiths.

BOTH SHOWN - Two popular names in the musical world are Steve Allen and the Melodics. Both are shown here. The Melodics has been increasing in popularity with professionals such as Allen, Jan Garber and Carmen Lombardo, as well as with very young music students. This mouth instrument with its piano-like keyboard belongs in the Christmas stocking along with the harmonica. Melodics by M. Hohner, Inc.

Parakeets Make Good Gifts for Christmas

Want to give relatives and friends an extra surprise this Christmas? Then plan on giving a parakeet, the third most popular pet, right behind puppies and kittens. This suggestion comes from French's Pet Bird Laboratories in Rochester, N. Y., which reports that for the last several years these clever little birds have become increasingly popular as gift items. They are easy to care for and are really simple to teach. The bird is taught a Christmas greeting for an added touch. Parakeets learn from constant repetition of words and phrases, a spokesman points out. "It's merely a matter of time and patience." You may not get your Parakeet to learn "Silent Night" between now and Christmas, but chances are he'll reward you with a cheery yuletide greeting if you cheerfully just give him a few minutes a day on his education. 'Different' Gifts On Holiday List

Would you like to give something different this Christmas? Why not give a: Bird feeder to that family with a lovely backyard. Weather-watching science toy set to a bright young boy. Charm bracelet that recalls important occasions to your mother or mother-in-law. Glamorous lens case to a contactless wearer. Fancy locket to a fashion-conscious near-sighted friend. Bible dictionary to a Sunday school student or teacher. Personalized mail marker to your favorite young fan. Outdoor statue to the land-scaping enthusiast. Donation to a friend's favorite charity in your friend's name. Sweatshirt bearing a crazy slogan to a teenage boy. Early American design mailbox to a colonial deck enthusiast. Pocket alarm watch to a lady friend. Spice rack, complete with herbs and spices to a gourmet cook.

Door Can Be Made Into Large Holiday Package

You can make your door into a huge Christmas package by pinning wide strips of red satin material to all four sides, and drawing them together into a great bow, adding ornaments and holly for color contrast. Whatever the materials you decide upon for your decorations, make sure they are sturdy and can be fastened securely. If your entrance is unimpaired, weatherproof your designs with a coating of clear plastic or use water-resistant materials such as oilcloth.

DISHWASHER - Very Merry

at Christmas is the home-maker who receives a new electric dishwasher. When Christmas dinner's over, all her best china and glassware disappear into the dishwasher or use water-resistant materials such as oilcloth.

CASUAL SLIP-ONS - Comfort for him begins with flexible leather casual slippers and house shoes. The shoe on hand has a hard of elasticated leather around the top for snug fit, and neat slim leather soles for a dressy appearance. The slippers are made of leather and have cushioned insoles.
