

Hints Given on Making Christmas Card List

Those gay Christmas cards that decorated mantel and mirror and tree can serve a practical purpose when you take them down.

That is the best time — and they are the simplest means — for making up your 1964 Christmas card list. If the list is revised now, while new names and addresses are readily at hand, the addressing of cards next Christmas will be almost effortless.

For those to whom maintaining a list is a problem in itself, the card maker offers a number of easy solutions, some of which are available in stores and others hand-fashioned at home.

If your list runs to several hundred people and you must of necessity be meticulous about it, then probably the best system is to post the names and addresses on file cards and index them in a small file box. An advantage of this system is that the cards offer ample space to jot down information about the person and his family as it is received during the year.

For those with shorter lists, the personal telephone directory is a handy reference. A tiny check mark beside a name may be used to indicate that you two exchanged cards the previous Christmas. A second mark could be used for those to whom you send gifts.

Hallmark, as well as other greeting card firms prepare date books each year which are ideally suited for compiling Christmas address lists. The date book is part calendar and part address pad, and here again there's a place on which to note birthdays, anniversaries and other special occasions of the coming year. These are available without cost at stationery counters in stores.

For a romantic-looking gift, paste a paper dolly in center of package that has already been wrapped; cut second dolly to fit corners of box.

Sugar Plum Tree Adds Warmth to Yule Season

Be a sugar plum fairy this holiday season. For a Christmas gift any family will enjoy, make a sugar plum tree. It will add a warm, festive note to the Yuletide celebration.

Use a real or artificial tree about two feet tall and hang it with brightly frosted Christmas cookies, garlands of cranberries and tinted popcorn, fruit candies tied with ribbon, and candy-dotted popcorn balls. Top it with a star-shaped cookie agleam with silver candies.

Miss Alice Hutchinson, head of the home economics department of The R. T. French Company, packers of spices, herbs, and extracts, suggests that a cookie tree be used as a decoration for the front hall during the holidays. Guests can be invited to nibble on the decorations. (Keep extra cookies on hand to replace disappearing ones, she suggests.)

The "goodie tree" is so easy to make that even the children can help. In fact, they'll probably want to. Put them to work stringing the cranberries and popcorn, which go on first. (For extra color, tint the popcorn by sprinkling with diluted food color.)

Popcorn Balls

Next come the popcorn balls. Roll them in cake decorates while still sticky, insert colored pipe cleaners and hook the ends over the tips of the branches.

Next, fix your fruit candy balls. Here's how: grind together one-half pound each of pitted prunes, seedless raisins soaked five minutes in warm water, seeded dates and figs or apricots. Add one cup of chopped nuts, one-half teaspoon of salt and one teaspoon of cinnamon.

Shape into small balls. Roll in a mixture of one-half cup sugar, and one teaspoon cinnamon. Wrap balls in square of colored cellophane and tie the ends with red or green ribbons and loop to tips of branches.

Make Patterns

Now for the cookies and here you can let your fancy roam. Use cookie cutters or make your own cardboard patterns by tracing whimsical animals

Contrary to popular belief, teen-age boys are not a special breed, they have individual preferences, just like grownups. Most teens are sports conscious though, and would be delighted with a pair of tickets to a favorite sports event.

Your favorite cookies, cut in holiday shapes, are sure to bring appreciative murmurs from friends and family as they toast each other's health and happiness with Christmas egg nog.

ped into the over, make a hole in each one large enough for the string which will be used to hang it on the tree. When cookies are done, let your artistic talents take over. Decorate them with confectioners' sugar frosting and cake decorates and make them as gay and colorful as your Christmas mood.
