

Jaycees Challenged To Paunch Bowl Mix

Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce members were formally challenged yesterday to contend against the Grants Pass Active 20-30 Club in a "Paunch Bowl" football game.

The challenge was accepted orally. A written acceptance will be prepared.

The "game" is to be played at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 8, at Grants Pass High's Cavanaugh Field. Proceeds will go to the United Crusades in each community.

The challenge was presented at Stanley's Restaurant here yesterday by William D. Ferguson, Paunch Bowl chairman for the Grants Pass club. It was accepted by Jim Butler, member of the Medford Jaycee board of directors. He will chairman the participation of the Medford group.

Tackle football will be played. Pledges Made

The Grants Pass challenge states that should the jaycees "make the mistake of accepting. Active 20-30 pledged itself to the following:

- To subject its team composed of young, middle-aged and elderly club members to any rules adopted by the adversary. (This includes the famous "Medford Rules" under which no athletic team from Medford is ever beaten, only robbed.)
- To devote all proceeds from those sadistic enough to attend to worthy charitable purposes.

The challenge also maintains that the GP club has consistently demonstrated superiority over organizations in its area and is anxious to exhibit its obvious talents throughout more remote areas such as Jacksonville Junction (a town no one knows as Medford).

It is also stated that "the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Medford are well known to be adequately uniformed and poor in judgment to be likely to accept contest without reasonable hope of winning."

Naming of Delta Park Complex After John Kennedy Suggested

PORTLAND (UPI)—The proposed Delta Park complex north of Portland may be renamed the John F. Kennedy Memorial Park and Stadium.

Naming the sports complex for the late president was suggested Wednesday by two Delta Park Commissioners, Edward Whelan and Robert Gunderson.

The idea drew some support from city and county officials at a meeting but was opposed by the City Commissioner Ormond Bean.

He said the city had gone to a lot of trouble to name the park site and if it were changed the public would have to be re-educated. He indicated also he would be reluctant to again go through the proceedings to name the park.

To Study Proposal

The commission decided to study the proposal for future

recommendation to city and county commissioners.

The park belongs to the city, but the stadium, if approved by voters, would be built by the county.

A plan for creating an international center for athletics at Delta Park was proposed by Ed Welch, representing Ebasco, Inc., of San Francisco.

Proponents argued that naming the park after President Kennedy would have some meaning for foreign officials, while Delta Park would not.

Notre Dame Takes On Syracuse Eleven

NEW YORK (UPI)—Notre Dame made its first visit here since 1949 today for a Thanksgiving Day meeting with Syracuse.

Syracuse, winner of seven of nine games this season and still hopeful of a bowl bid, was a 7½ point favorite over the Fighting Irish, who have won only two games and lost six.

Defending Notre Dame's record, Athletic Director Moose Krause pointed out that five of the team's six losses were to teams now in the running for bowl bids.

"We are not a bad football team," Krause said. "Notre Dame wants to win this one as much as it wanted to win games when we were national champions."

Beat North Carolina

The last time Notre Dame played in New York was in 1949 when it steam-rolled North Carolina, 42-6, but the Irish built a tremendous so-called "subway alumni" in this city due to their colorful games here with Army in the past.

Notre Dame and Syracuse have met twice previously, with the Irish winning the first encounter in 1914 and the second one two years ago. The score of that last game was 17-15 with Notre Dame winning on a controversial field goal which was kicked after time officially had run out.

Ducks Hold Light Drill

EUGENE, Ore. (UPI)—The Oregon Ducks ran through a light practice session Wednesday in preparation for Saturday's game against Oregon State.

Coach Len Casanova worked the Ducks on goal line offense, conversions and kickoffs. End Rich Schwab and sophomore center Herm Meister handled the kicking duties because of injuries to regular booter Buck Corey and Corey's alternate, halfback Mel Rentro.

Three TV Tilts This Saturday

NEW YORK (UPI)—Three college football games will be televised regionally Saturday by the Columbia Broadcasting System in place of the postponed Army-Navy game which was to have been televised nationally.

CBS has announced the Yale-Harvard game will be telecast in the East and that the Baylor-Rice game will be shown in the South and Southwest.

The third game, yet to be selected, will be shown in the Midwest and Far West.

CBS will televise the Army-Navy game when it is played on Dec. 7.

The Army-Navy game will replace the Miami (Fla.)—Alabama game, which was scheduled on Dec. 7 and may be rescheduled.

Broncs, Raiders Clash in AFL

DENVER (UPI)—The Denver Broncos, with quarterback John McCormick scheduled back at the controls, faced the Oakland Raiders today in the first game of the American Football League's revised schedule.

The nationally-televised game, scheduled to start at 12:30 p.m. EST, was the first AFL action since Nov. 17. The league wiped out its schedule after the death of President Kennedy and extended the season one week.

Follow the Denver-Oakland clash today, the league's other six teams will play Sunday. Kansas City will be at New York, Houston at San Diego and Buffalo at Boston.

In Cellar

Denver is ensconced in the cellar of the AFL's Western Division and is hungry for a win. But the Raiders are at least equally motivated. They are the only team in the division with a chance to overhaul San Diego and get into the AFL championship game.

McCormick became a stand-out almost overnight after veteran Frank Tripucka abruptly announced his retirement early in the season.

But he twisted his knee badly Oct. 13 against Houston and Denver's fortunes sagged.

Oakland started the season by knocking off Houston and Buffalo, then losing four straight with star back Clem Daniels out with an injury.

But with Daniels back in harness, Oakland compiled a 6-4 record in the Western Division.

Honeymoon at Pasadena Hope Of UW Guard

By JOHN R. LONG
United Press International

SEATTLE (UPI)—All-Coast guard Rick Redman got married this morning and is looking forward to having a honeymoon in Pasadena—and getting back on the first string.

Redman, a stalwart on the Washington line most of the season, was demoted to bench warmer status two weeks ago following the Husky loss to UCLA. He was married to Elaine Ethier, a coed at the university, at St. Patrick Church here at 8 a.m. Redman then had to report for football practice.

Ethier Moved Up

The wedding originally was scheduled for Saturday, but was moved up two days when the Washington-Washington State game was postponed to that afternoon out of respect to the memory of President Kennedy.

If all goes well Saturday and the Huskies beat the Cougars, the Redmans can spend the last two weeks of December in Southern California while Washington gets ready for the Rose Bowl game.

Of course, other plans will have to be made if Washington State wins here and Southern California comes out on top in its cross-town clash with UCLA. In that case the Trojans will represent the West Coasts in the New Year's Day classic at Pasadena. The Redmans will have to honeymoon somewhere else.

Red Raider Gagers Open New Campaign This Saturday Night

ASHLAND — "It's a matter of how long it will take them to come," feels Head Coach Ted Schopf in assessing the prospects of his newest Southern Oregon College basketball edition.

He has the opinion, just the same that "we'll be all right."

The outlook is for a good, fast little club.

Schopf has told a Portland writer that the Red Raiders are pinning their hopes on speed. The Raider mentor has a shortage of real height and experience but says, "We'll be able to run with anybody."

The Raiders open their 1963-1964 campaign this Saturday night against Western Washington College at Bellingham, Wash. Next Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 2 and 3.

Shults Veteran

The team's veteran is Jerry Shults, ex-Medford high, a good ball handling, quick-shooting senior who has been a regular since his freshman year. Other lettermen are Bill Franks, from Glendale, Royce Kiser, from Camas Valley, and Tom Bernet, from Grants Pass. Kiser is a junior with a couple years of varsity play behind him and Franks a senior with one year of varsity play.

Redden Lauds Two Representatives For Lease Stand

Rep. James A. Redden (D-Medford) today lauded two eastern Oregon legislators for their stand on the Boardman lease.

Redden stated that Rep. Clinton Haight (D-Baker) and Rep. Jack Smith (D-Condon) showed "courage and business acumen" in opposing the one-sided Boeing lease.

Redden pointed out that eastern Oregon is more favorably disposed to the lease because of the geographical location, but that "this lease is a bad deal" for any part of Oregon.

Redden stated that "as an attorney, I would not allow any state, in the position of the state, to sign such an unfavorable lease." He emphasized the following portions of the lease which he said would "hurt Oregonians":

- If Boeing polluted the Columbia River, and the State stepped in to prevent it, it could be a breach of the lease.
- There is no requirement on Boeing's part to develop any project helpful to the State.
- Unequal rights in cancellation, with Boeing having more rights than Oregon.

Redden claimed these were but a few of the problems, adding that the "use test" was weighted in Boeing's favor, and that Boeing's right of first refusal on added land was unfair to Oregonians.

On a "strictly business" basis, the Medford legislator said that Oregon could get a better deal for the citizens and need not give this 77-year stranglehold to an out of state industry.

The bill involved, according to Redden, read more like a release of liability than a proposed statute. He claimed more of the language of the bill was devoted to ratifying past acts of the Land Board, which are not completely known to the members of the legislature, than actually curing recently found defects.

Redden expressed hope that more legislators would take a "long, hard look" at House Bills 1014 and 1020 before next Monday.

Oregon's Hoop Team Should Be Stronger

By GORDON RICE
EUGENE (UPI)—Oregon's basketball team should be stronger this season despite the presence of eight sophomores on a 14-man squad, coach Steve Belko believes.

Or, to put it another way: "It should be a good season for us if you don't figure it on wins and losses."

That's because the Ducks face the problem of stopping such outstanding big men as Oregon State's Mel Counts, Portland's Steve Anstett and Stanford's Tom Dose without an established center of their own.

The battle for the starting spot now is between sophs Gene Brockmeyer (6-9) and John Franz (6-6). Belko says, Lewis Patterson (6-9), another soph, suffered a broken hand early in the practice season and "is a little further behind."

The Oregon coach also has experimented with using veteran forwards Jim Johnson (6-5) and Steve Jones (6-5) at the center spot if all else fails.

"If we do that, Johnson would be our offensive center and we'd use Jones there on defense," according to Belko.

If the center problem can be solved, the Ducks will be in good shape. Johnson and Jones, both two-year lettermen, tied for the team lead in scoring last year with 376 points each.

Behind those two at forward are Larry Cooley (6-4), who played 117 minutes last season, and Bill Jennings, a 6-5 sophomore.

Barnett In Key Spot

Three letterman guards also return, but the key man at this position will be 6-3 Jim Barnett, rated one of the best sophomores in years at Oregon.

"It's going to take him a little while to adjust," Belko warns, but "we think he will provide some extra punch for us."

The Riverside, Calif., star led the frosh in scoring with a 22.3 average last season and cracked the 30-point mark twice.

The other guard probably will be Elliott Gleason, a 6-2 junior letterman who scored well at the end of last season. Also available are Bob Yates and Pat Loy, both junior lettermen.

Another sophomore who might surprise everyone is Dave Kafoory, a guard from Portland's Cleveland High School. Overlooked in the freshman crop of a year ago, he averaged 10.5 points a game and Belko rates him as one of the best outside shooters he's had in recent years.

The Ducks play 26 games starting Monday and Tuesday nights at Palo Alto, Calif., against Stanford.

"We've added a couple of teams and with possibly one exception all the other teams we always play will be stronger," Belko thinks. In addition to the traditional Northwest opponents, the Ducks play California, Stanford, Montana, Wyoming, Air Force and Denver.

De Gaulle Foe Raps Funeral Trip

PARIS (UPI)—A Socialist foe of President Charles de Gaulle charged Wednesday night that the French leader used his trip to President Kennedy's funeral for "political exploitation."

Marselle's Mayor Gaston Deferre, who is believed to be the "Monsieur X" the opposition is grooming to oppose De Gaulle in the next presidential election said in a speech at a political scientists' dinner that the U.S. visit was being used "for the profit of Gaullism."

Deferre said De Gaulle went to Washington because he realized that the assassination of Kennedy had put his own anti-Americanism in a bad light—and perhaps in the hope that the new U.S. administration might be more sympathetic than the old to his hopes of dominating Europe.

"With Kennedy, that (policy of domination) didn't work," the mayor said. "Perhaps he (De Gaulle) hopes it will succeed with Johnson."

Deferre said he himself favors French recognition of Red China, which De Gaulle has been rumored considering. If the president does grant it, the Socialist charged, it would only be "to show hostility to the United States."

Jacques Plante Shines Despite Ailing Shoulder

By United Press International
Talk about courage.

Jacques Plante, the New York Rangers' goalie, suffered a severely bruised shoulder 10 nights ago, sat out two games, and then decided to return to though he still was in considerable pain.

All "Jake, the Snake" did was turn aside 34 shots in helping the Rangers post a 3-2 victory over the Detroit Red Wings in the National Hockey League's only holiday eve game.

"My shoulder was hurting plenty in the third period," game. "I hope I can raise my arm tomorrow."

Especially Brilliant

Despite the agony, Plante was especially brilliant in the final session, blocking 12 shots to only three for Detroit netminder Terry Sawchuk.

Don McKenney tipped in a long shot by defenseman Harry Howell for the Ranger winning goal at 12:24 of the final period. New York had gone ahead, 2-1, earlier in the session on a bouncing, 65-foot drive by Don Johns. Detroit tied the score two minutes later when Norm Ullman beat Plante from close range.

Rod Gilbert of the Rangers provided another highlight of the game in the first period when he converted a penalty shot, which was called when Detroit's Larry Jeffrey fell on the puck in the crease during a New York attack.

Glines, Bray On Court Squad at Oregon Tech

KLAMATH FALLS — Oregon Tech's basketball squad, 1963-64 version, will not be erasing any of the all-time conference marks that were established by the 1962 Owls, but the hustle, intelligence in picking up basketball know-how and speed make Coach Jim Partlow's "building year" less of a grind.

Inexperience and lack of height make the OTI position in conference action a definite question mark.

Ron (Wilt) Wilkerson, 6-10 center, is looking much improved over last year and could play a vital role in the team's final standings. Two others, both reserves from last year's sensational club, Wayne Dennis, 6-1, and Chuck Hawkins, 6-4, will help.

Fresh Mike Glines, a standout from Crater High, is looking good as are first year men Mike Werten, guard from Newport, and Dan Leahy, Lakeview, and a sophomore transfer from OSU, Bruce Bray, Medford.

A top notch ball player, Rich Lyons, a transfer from Contra Costa Junior College, is expected to develop into one of the Oregon Collegiate Conference's better players. Bruce Gibeau, Myrtle Point, and Larkin Wade, Vallejo High, are both frosh with potential and should see action this season.

Oregon Tech's initial turnout was 33 and for the first time in history the Owls will field a junior varsity squad. Larry Burleson will coach the club which at this time is made up entirely of freshmen.

Work Out In Secret

CORVALLIS, Ore. (UPI)—Coach Toramy Prothro locked the public out of Oregon State's practice as he ran the Beavers behind guarded doors Wednesday.

The secret workout was in preparation for Saturday's contest against rival Oregon.

Long Session For Washington

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—While most of the Big Six clubs held light workouts Wednesday, coach Jim Owens pushed his Washington Huskies through their longest and hardest session of the week.

Owens stressed work on defense, goal line offense and passing protection in preparation for Saturday's important contest with Washington—a game which may determine whether Washington goes to the Rose Bowl.

John Kennedy Jr. Stamp Suggested

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI)—A drive for a postage stamp of 3-year-old John F. Kennedy Jr.'s gallant salute to his father's casket started here today.

The Sacramento Union endorsed the idea in an editorial, and a local furniture store owner started gathering signatures on petitions addressed to the postmaster general.

The Union said a stamp of the small boy's salute to his dead father and President "will remind us again and again of the rededication to preservation of our nation's ideals which each of us resolved in silent pledge as we sorrowed for our martyred President."

The newspaper said the stamp would serve "as a lasting tribute to the courage of all the Kennedys."

Jack Brandwein, store owner and an originator of the idea, said 1,000 petitions with room for 15,000 signatures had been printed.

Brandwein said such a stamp would honor President Kennedy "in his own image."

Portland Firm Bids Low on Road Job

A Portland firm was the apparent low bidder this week on a 16.25-mile paving project on the Lake of the Woods Highway.

The bid of $1,071,667 was $280,524 below the Bureau of Public Roads' estimate. It was submitted by Warren Northwest, Ind.

The contract calls for base course surfacing and bituminous paving of the highway in Jackson and Klamath Counties. With its completion it will provide a paved surface along 4.464 miles of grading for 11,802 miles.

The project is a segment in the new east-west route connecting Medford with Klamath Falls, crossing the Cascade Mountain summit at an elevation of 5,106 feet.
