Miss Jane Louise Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Evans, 2405 Starlite Lane, became the bride of Marvin Wendell McGee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orlo W. McGee, 2410 Stearns Way, in a ceremony held November 23 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The Rev. Gilbert Lulay officiated at the wedding and read the nuptial mass held at 12 noon. Miss Annette Burich played the organ. White chrysanthemums decorated the church. The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a nylon frock of white embroidered organza fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves and full skirt which formed a chapel train. Her elbow length veil was held by a cluster cap of reem-broidered Alencon lace and pearls. She carried white rosebuds and Stephanotis encircling a white orchid.

Four Attend Bride
Miss Anne Turner, Central Point, was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Evans, sister of the bride, and Miss Colleen McGee, and Miss Beverly McGee, sisters of the bridegroom. They wore apricot colored brocade taffeta frocks with fitted bodices, three-quarter length sleeves and bell skirts. Their headresses were of net. Each carried a bouquet of white large and pompon chrysanthemums.

Thomas Darland, cousin of the bride, escorted her to the altar. The guests were Richard Evans, a brother of the bride, Philip McGee, a brother of the bridegroom, and Timothy Darland, a cousin of the bride. Altar boys were Charles Darland, a cousin of the bride, and James Batzer.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Mrs. Evans chose a beige and gold brocade sheath dress and bolero jacket with matching silk draped hat. Mrs. McGee wore a gold brocade two piece suit with gold accessories. Their corsages were gold tipped white carnations.

Mrs. Thomas Turner, the former Kathleen Newcomb, and Miss Daryl Zapell cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Robert Williams, Prospect, great aunt of the bride, poured coffee and Mrs. Floyd Darland and Mrs. Russell Hogue, aunts of the bride, presided at the punch bowls. Miss Viki Breen and Miss Kathy McGee, cousins of the bridegroom, were in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Walter A. Graff III, Stockton, Calif., cousin of the bride, was at the gift table.

The couple traveled through Mexico en route to Blytheville, Ark., where Mr. McGee, an airman third class in the U. S. Air Force, is stationed with the U. S. Army. For traveling the bride wore a three piece cream colored knit suit with brown accessories and the white orchid from her bouquet.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of St. Mary's High School. The bride was employed by Lerger's Shops. Mrs. Graff was accompanied by her daughter, Veronica.

Golden Ball Will Benefit Medford School of Hope

The Medford School of Hope for mentally retarded children this year will be benefited by proceeds from the Golden Ball, an annual invitational event sponsored by the Junior Service League just before Christmas. The ball is scheduled for Saturday, December 14 at 8 p. m., in the Rogue Valley Country Club. Reservations from those who have received invitations may be made by calling Mrs. Don McNeil at 772-2163 or by writing her at 7343 Westover Drive, Medford.

Basically the school's aims are to assist the trainable child in adjusting to his environment, giving him an awareness of social contact and an attempt is made to assist him in integrating into the community, according to a member of the board of directors.

A program for trainable children was instituted early in 1959. A non-profit organization was organized in May, 1959 and classes have been held continuously for each subsequent school year. The school year parallels in length with the school year of the Medford Public School System.

Certified Teacher
Classes meet at 9 a. m., and conclude near noon. At the present time there is one teacher who is certified for teaching in the state, Mrs. H. Tomlin Furnas. She has received special training in the field of instructing the mentally retarded and has studied both through the University of Oregon Extension Division and Southern Oregon College. She has had about three years' experience in teaching the trainable child.

The school now is held in the Westminster Presbyterian Church, a new facility with modern equipment.

In addition to the teacher, who is the only salaried employee, volunteer help is available from many sources. For the diagnostic, counseling and guidance services the board of directors has as members Dr. Harry Danielson, a local psychiatrist and Dr. William Miller, local pediatrician.

Also available for help is Dr. Loren Messenger of Southern Oregon College. Available too are the personnel and files of the Southern Oregon Family Child Guidance Clinic in Medford.

Paul Gaudt, a teacher of mentally retarded children in the Public School System, also is on the board and contributes much of his time and effort on behalf of the school.

Enrollment Varies
The enrollment varies from five to nine children. This year eight are enrolled. Ages are from seven to 12. An increase in enrollment would be made if additional teacher personnel were added. Financial limitations are the primary reasons for this lack, the board reports. Approximately one-half the
