

Paul Millikin and Robert Harris are shown in a scene from the New York Drama Critics' Prize play, "A Man for All Seasons" by Robert Bolt. Mr. Harris takes the leading role of Sir Thomas More in the play which will be staged in Medford Friday, December 6 at 8:30 p.m., in the Holly Theater. Single admission tickets may be obtained for this production and are available at Purucker Music House, Craterian Theater or Mrs. Arlon Skinner, 772-8913.

DAR Chapter Celebrates Anniversary

The anniversary of organization of Crater Lake Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was celebrated Saturday, November 24 at the Rogue Valley Manor.

Dessert preceded the meeting with Mrs. Judd Greenman, regent, presiding. Memorial services for the late President John F. Kennedy were conducted by Mrs. Paul G. Weidner at the beginning of the meeting.

Miss Helen E. Crumpton, chairman of the American Indians Committee, spoke of the work this committee is doing among the Indians of Oregon. She opened her talk by reading a translation of the Lord's Prayer from the Chinook which had been given her by Mrs. Emil Peil and concluded with an Indian version of the Twenty Third Psalm. Miss Crumpton stressed the needs of the Oregon Indians at Chemawa, a federal Indian school at Salem. The annual contributions for these projects was taken at this time.

A short review of the organization of the Oregon State Society, DAR and Mrs. James B. Montgomery, organizing regent and first state regent, was given by Mrs. Boone G. Harding, honorary state regent.

Mrs. T. J. Gifford, past regent of Crater Lake Chapter, traced the history of the chapter and reviewed its accomplishments. The chapter was organized November 24, 1919 at the home of Mrs. Bert Anderson, organizing and first regent. Five charter members, Mesdames H. E. Marsh, S. S. Smith, Glenn Taylor, Medford; H. D. Adsit, Atwater, Calif.; and Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini, Lexington, N. C., remain members of the chapter. Several scrapbooks compiled by members and illustrating the work accomplished over the years were shown and described by Mrs. J. L. Huck.

Mrs. Robert W. Porter, Rogue Valley Manor, was a guest at the meeting.

Party To Close Year's Events For Chapter

Alpha Beta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority members will conclude their social functions for this year at a Christmas party to be held December 10 in the home of their sponsor, Mrs. Stephen Nye, Phoenix-Hillcrest Road. During the evening gifts will be exchanged and new secret sisters will be drawn for the coming year.

Their last regular business meeting was held November 26 in the home of the chapter's president, Mrs. Richard Card, 207 Vancouver Avenue. Mrs. Nye was a guest.

Mrs. Charles Tucker reported on the progress of the state convention to be held next year and announced that many articles are still needed for decorations. The theme will be "Arabian Night" and rugs, tapestries, drapes or old curtains are needed. Anyone having any such items that the local chapters may use are asked to call Mrs. Tucker in the evenings at 773-1859.

Mrs. Edwin Jones and Mrs. Richard Schieferstein presented the cultural program for the evening.

Each member brought a "white elephant" for an auction.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Eldon Johnson and Mrs. Michael Alesko.

HORN BROOK — Mr. and Mrs. Florent Van de Weghe returned Thursday from a 10-day visit in Lorane, Ore. with their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed White and son, Buddy.

Episcopal Churchwomen Plan Annual Advent Tea

The Episcopal Churchwomen of St. Mark's Episcopal Parish will hold the second annual Advent Tea Thursday, December 5 from 1:30 p. m. until 4:30 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford, 1503 East Main Street.

This event is held for all the women of St. Mark's parish and is the final ingathering for the Harvest of Talents. This project, in which each woman was given a check for one dollar and was challenged to use her talents in making it into more, is based on the Biblical parable of talents.

Mrs. William Aesdy, general chairman of the event, has named Mrs. Barney Nurfey as chairman of a transportation committee. Anyone needing transportation is asked to call 773-3857. Mrs. Fredeska C. Lash will be in charge of reservations. The members of the organization's executive board will act as hostesses.

Footlighters to Meet Monday

The Footlighters, Inc., Medford's little theater group will meet Monday, December 2, at 8 p.m., at the Footlighters Building at the Salinasquare. After a short business meeting, entertainment will be furnished by the "Melodramatics," a barbershop quartet, and refreshments will be served.

The past production of the Footlighters was an old fashioned melodrama, "Widow Black at the Goswonds." Their new work made for a late winter production of such original ideas to be directed by Marie Wacker, Edna Mitchell and Frank Plonok, respectively.

New talent and lines are always welcome at the Footlighters meetings, the group exercises, and amateur washing. Further information may call Mrs. Helen Ashley, 773-2988 after 5 p.m. week days.

Xi Mu Chapter Plans Meeting

Xi Mu Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority will meet Wednesday, December 4, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Helen Ashley, 851 Washburn Avenue, Medford.

A program of the history and early day recollections of Jacksonville was given by Seth Ballis, a long time resident of Southeastern Oregon, at the recent meeting held at the home of Mrs. Robert Hubbard, 3562 Jacksonville Highway. Mrs. John Watkins and Mrs. Harold Jones were in charge of the program arrangements.

Mrs. Treavell Turpin was in charge of refreshments.

It was voted by the chapter that a contribution be made to the Public Library of Medford and Jackson County for the purchase of new books.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Charles Carey, vice president, in the absence of Mrs. William Hartman. Mrs. Carey was voted to be the Valentine Girl of Xi Mu and to represent the chapter at the Valentine ball in February.

Eagle Point Club To Hold Work Day

EAGLE POINT—An all-day workday will be conducted by Eagle Point Garden Club women Wednesday, December 4 beginning at 10:30 a.m. The session will be held in the home of Mrs. Betty James.

The women will work toward a Christmas show event.

Sixteen inches more... that's all!

Sixteen inches more... that's all, but what a difference these 16" make. They change the era of the short evening dress which has reigned more than ten years, back to the regal elegance of yesterday.

The dress for evening is long, and has an entirely new look. The time of great fullness is reversed; gone are the bouffancy and the fluff, the long dress shows the body in straight clean lines.

New is the ingite simplicity close to pure classic in feeling! The long gown is shaped to the silhouette so the modern lady sweeps into the room, and the elongated lines give a beauty almost unreal in its lightness.

High waisted effects and deep decolletages give an incomparable grace to the silhouette, evoking the charms of the past century. To allow sitting and dancing skirts are slim and slit, domed or draped, but confined to the simple lines. Designers have discovered the richness of new and exciting materials to create the spirit of feminine elegance.

We at La Pointe's welcome the return of the long dress which makes you sweep into a room, not stride. We welcome the rediscovery of evening elegance. The start of your social season requests your visit to La Pointe's tomorrow.
