Mayor Opens Annual CARE Event

Mayor James J. Dunlevy opened the annual CARE tea given by members of Travel Study Club, of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, held Tuesday afternoon at the Girl's Community Club. Mayor Dunlevy spoke of the CARE literacy program, and praised the club for sponsoring a fine program to "help men, women and children take their rightful place in the world."

The General Federation of Women's Clubs at local, state, national and international levels are aware of their responsibility to aid those who cannot even read or sign their names, it was said. Through CARE they will provide the necessary materials to be used in this literacy program.

Dolls Displayed
Miss Robin Zundel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zundel, Coleman Creek Road, displayed her collection of dolls, dressed in native costume, from 24 countries. She was dressed in Scottish attire. The dolls and kilt were a gift from her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pori, Medford. Robin told the country each doll was from and said her favorite was the one from Spain.

Humberto Rodriguez, Mexico City, was guest speaker for the afternoon. He is a student at Southern Oregon College and is majoring in public relations. He attended Central Oregon College, Bend, for two years and plans to spend two years at Southern Oregon College. When he graduates, he has been promised a position in a public relations department at General Motors in Mexico City. He has learned to speak fluent English since coming here. The student told of small towns and outlying districts in Mexico where it is difficult for children to go to school. Many children have to walk long distances to school, and after this hardship, do not always have the necessary material to do their lessons. CARE provides school kits for children in such areas, who could not go to school without this help, he added.

Receives Gift
At the close of his talk, Mrs. Beryl Lyon, president of Travel Study Club, presented him with a gift of Oregon myrtle wood.

Michael Phillips, Brookings, also a student at Southern Oregon College, accompanied him.

Mrs. Clay M. Lee, state projects chairman of the Oregon Federation, gave a resume of the CARE literacy program. She said Oregon sent $589.07 to CARE last year, and that the money was sent to Guatemala.

It was humbly received and a letter of thanks was sent to the club, she reported. Mrs. Lee told of receiving a letter saying how much they deeply appreciate the kits for children to work with. "It is estimated that a billion people in the world are completely illiterate and another half billion cannot read a newspaper," Mrs. Lee said. She closed her talk saying "we cannot deny these people an education, and it is vital that we support, and urge others to support this General Federation of Women's Clubs CARE - Literacy project."

Boxes In Banks
CARE boxes were placed in the United States National Bank, First National Bank, Karl's Shoe Store, and Summit Grocery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Settle was tea chairman and Mrs. John L. Mansfield was program chairman. Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Roy Nye, Ashland, state department chairman of International Affairs; Mrs. Jessie Cooley, Grants Pass, secretary of First District; Mrs. Carl W. Peterson, Ashland, past district president and past president of Travel Study Club; Mrs. Howard C. Goldsmith; Mrs. Lynabel Deck, Rogue River, First District CARE chairman, Mrs. Bren H. Starcher; Mrs. Jack Holmes, president of Medford Junior Women's Club; Mrs. Lyon and Mrs. William H. Walwyn.

Guests were Mrs. Lyon and Mrs. Mansfield. The tea table was centered with an arrangement of yellow and rust colored chrysanthemums in a silver bowl, and rust candles in silver candle holders on either side.

Women Assist
Members assisting Mrs. Settle on the tea committee were Mrs. Wilber H. Howell, Mrs. Jason Ottinger, Mrs. Carrie Walters, Mrs. Edward C. Boot; Mrs. Esther Coleman, Mrs. Cora Chandler, and Mrs. Lee.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Kent Hogan played background music on an organ provided by Purucker's Piano house.

Preceding the tea, Mrs. Lyon conducted a brief business session. Plans were made for a Christmas party for the Medford Convalescent Home. A Thanksgiving party was given the members at the Home on Wednesday, November 27.

Guests for the business meeting were Mrs. Earl C. Moore, Medford; and Mrs. Calvin Brown, Aul, Colo. Mrs. Moore became a member of the club.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, December 17, at the Girl's Community Club, and will be a Sallie Orr Dunbar scholarship tea.
