

Family Weekly

DECEMBER 1, 1963

MEDFORD  TRIBUNE

Safer, Easier Childbirth— Through Hypnosis

By RALPH V. AUGUST, M.D.

■ Many medical schools still do not teach hypnosis in their regular obstetrical programs. But more and more obstetricians are training themselves. Their desire to offer hypnosis to their patients underlines a growing awareness that it is an absolutely safe form of pain relief for both mother and baby.

(More on page 6)

Sean Flynn Says:
"Don't Talk to Me About Errol!"

"Praise the Lord
and Pass the Ammunition"
The Chaplain Who Said It Recalls Pearl Harbor