

Orville Freeman Expected To Stay In Present Post

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A source close to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman believes he will remain a member of President Johnson's official family indefinitely.

Immediately after the late President Kennedy's assassination, Johnson asked the Kennedy Cabinet to stay on, with no time limit set. This was normal procedure, although a new president, even when a previous administration is interrupted by death, generally surrounds himself with his own appointees. Sometimes a complete change-over takes months.

The source indicated that Freeman would not be replaced during the remainder of the present presidential term. The source said Freeman sounded like he expected to stay on the job.

The source represented Johnson and Freeman as good friends, who enjoy "good, cordial relations" with each other.

Johnson and Freeman are known to view agricultural problems with a great deal of similarity.

Robbery Suspect Pleads Innocent

PORTLAND (UPI) — John Anthony Vladovic, 43, of Seattle pleaded innocent Wednesday to charges he took part in the $24,000 robbery of the Hawthorne Branch of the Benjamin Franklin Federal Savings and Loan Association Oct. 26.

Vladovic was arrested by the FBI in Seattle Nov. 14 and is being held on $50,000 bond.

Two men were involved in the holdup and the FBI said it is seeking another suspect.

Over 2,000 Request Stamp Showing Salute

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — More than 2,000 persons have signed a petition requesting a commemorative stamp bearing the photograph of John F. Kennedy Jr. saluting his father's casket during the President's funeral Monday, a committee chairman said.

Jack Brandwein, chairman of a committee boosting the proposal, said the names were obtained in the first 24 hours after the project was announced.
