Evangelical Brethren Bishop To Head Council of Churches

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Bishop Reuben H. Mueller of Indianapolis, Ind., is slated to become the new president of the National Council of Churches, authoritative sources disclosed Monday.

The Rev. Dr. Mueller, 66, is president bishop of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, a Protestant denomination whose 800,000 members are concentrated mainly in Pennsylvania and Mid-Western states.

Informants said leaders of the council's 31 constituent denominations agreed informally on the choice of Bishop Mueller to serve as the chief spokesman and man-out-front for cooperative Protestantism during the next three years.

He will be formally elected Wednesday night at a public session of the National Council's triennial general assembly.

The assembly opened Sunday night with a fervent appeal from outgoing President J. Irwin Miller for churches to get their hands dirty in the fight for social justice.

Miller, a millionaire industrialist from Columbus, Ind., said American churchs too often have been afraid to speak out as boldly as they should on public issues lest they "jostle sensitive feelings."

"Through our carefulness, caution and 'patience,'" he said "the disadvantage, the hopeless, the discriminated-against, the helpless of this present day will live out their only lives on this earth unrelieved.

"And how shall we say our patience, our caution, our politicking served them? The young boy who needs access to on education needs it now—this school term. The Negro family who requires a decent house and dignified job needs it now—this winter."

More than 5,000 church leaders from all parts of the nation are here for the week - long assembly. They represent major Protestant and Eastern Orethodox bodies with an aggregate membership of 40 million persons.

This morning's session of the assembly was highlighted by a message of greeting from the World Council of Churches, delivered by its general secretary, the Rev. Dr. W. A. Visser t'Hooft of Geneva, Switzerland.

Dr. Visser t'Hooft said the Ecumenical Council of the Catholic church, now winding up its second session in Rome, has been a source of 'great encouragement' to all who are working for Christian unity.

He said the "first fruits" of Catholic commitment to the cause of reunion can already be seen in such things as "the opportunities for frank discussion" at every level down to the local parish, and "the readiness on both sides to confess guilt for the wrongs which have caused the great estrangement."

But the World Council leader warned that it would be a disservice to the unity movement to "be carried away by a romantic enthusiasm" about the possibility of resolving all difficulties soon.

"It seems to me that in spite of all the progress that has been made, our Roman Catholic brethren and we still have rather different conceptions of what genuine ecumenical dialogue really means," he said.

Methodist Bishop Gerald H. Kennedy of Los Angeles said in another address that Americans think of themselves as being very generous to their churches, but in comparison to their income, they are actually "giving very little."

He said that the Biblical standard of tithing—giving onetenth of your income to church and charity — "ought to be preached as the Christian minimum."

"A tithing American Protestantism could release so many resources that we could begin to minister adequately around the world," he said.

Ashland Police Investigate Four Accidents

ASHLAND — Four accidents, most of them involving Medford residents, were reported in Ashland during the weekend.

Two persons were injured, one was cited and police are looking for a man in connection with the various collisions.

A vehicle operated by Glenn F. Schneider, 672 Garfield St., a Medford police officer, was sideswiped by another car on Siskiyou Boulevard between Bridge and Ashland Streets Saturday about 8:15 p.m. The other car didn't stop, Ashland police said.

Latham Craig Wright, 21, of 3321 Jacksonville Highway, and Judith Lee Brookman, 18, of 722 Newtown St., both Medford, were taken to Ashland Community Hospital for treatment of injuries following a one-car crash Sunday at 9:50 p.m. on North Main Street at Coolidge Street. The car, operated by Wright, skidded sideways, hit the curb, rolled over once, knocked down a stop sign and a mail box and hit a store building before coming to rest back on Main Street. Both are reported in good condition.

Herbert Arthur Putney, 21, of 11 Beach Ave., Ashland, was cited for failure to park securely, after his car rolled down Beach Avenue and into a tree at about 10 p.m. Sunday.

Cars operated by Robert Heram Thurber, 37, of 313 Mae St., Medford, and Donald Richard Bandfield, 33, of Eagle Point, were involved in a collision at 5:05 p.m. Sunday on Siskiyou Boulevard at Bridge Street. No one was hurt, according to Ashland police reports.
