

Khrushchev's Plans For Common Market Reported Collapsed

By K. C. THALER
United Press International
LONDON (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's plans for a satellite Common Market have collapsed because of friction between his East European allies and Moscow, a Western analysis showed today.

force a "Socialist division of labor" on the satellites, creating a single economic unit out of the entire bloc and having each nation produce what it was best equipped to do. But this would have meant that backward nations like Bulgaria and Romania would have been condemned to continued agricultural production, while the more developed nations like Czechoslovakia and East Germany would have their industry built up even more.

Locals

Vending Machine Taken—Ashland police reported Wednesday that a chewing gum vending machine was torn off the wall and taken from the laundromat in the Gateway Shopping Center. The incident occurred some time during the night.

Bazaar Scheduled—A baked food sale and bazaar is set for Saturday, Dec. 7, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the Leonard Electric Company by women of First Church of God.

Grandparents—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hahner, 739 Dakota Ave., Medford, have returned to their home from Rocklin, Calif., where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald L. Hahner, and infant son, Terrence Lee. The baby, the Hahners' first grandchild, was born Nov. 23. Ronald Hahner, a 1954 graduate of Medford High School, is employed by the State of California in the Motor Vehicles Department in Rocklin.

Kawakita May Be Released Without Country After His Release

SEATTLE (UPI)—The Japanese government today was studying the case of Tomoya Kawakita, 42, who was convicted of treasonable brutality against U.S. servicemen in a Japanese prisoner of war camp in World War II.

Kawakita was scheduled for early release from McNeil Island Federal Penitentiary near Tacoma on condition he return to Japan and never return to this country.

His conditional release was authorized by the late President Kennedy as one of his last official acts.

However, Kawakita may be a man without a country according to John P. Boyd, district director of immigration here.

First project will be to organize an Hawaiian Trade Mission to be held with the National Association of County Officials' western regional district meeting in Honolulu Feb. 12-15.

Two Milligrams
Pills used originally were 10 milligrams, he said. The newer ones, studied for three years by Dr. Tyler, are only two milligrams.

Dr. Tyler said that unlike some other scientists, he does not believe the pills increase fertility right after their use is stopped.

He said he was convinced of the effectiveness of the pills for women. But added that contraceptive pills for men, which he said were developed as long as five years ago, had had side effects and there has been some fear of liver toxicity.

Judges Refuse To Check Disbarment Of Hoffa Lawyer

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Two judges refused Wednesday to review a disbarment action which touched off a new grand jury investigation into alleged jury tampering in federal cases against Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa.

U.S. District Court Judges William E. Miller and Frank Gray Jr. rejected a request to suspend their order disbarring Z. T. Osborn Jr., one of Hoffa's attorneys.

Osborn was disbarred from federal court here last month on the ground of attempting to offer a $10,000 bribe for a vote of acquittal in the forthcoming jury tampering trial of the union leader.

The grand jury which indicted Hoffa on charges of jury tampering was ordered back into session shortly after evidence in the disbarment action was disclosed. The panel reconvened Monday and was expected to remain in session throughout the week.

Among those who have testified before the grand jury were three jurors from the 1962 conspiracy trial which led to the indictment of Hoffa and six others on jury tampering charges.

Hoffa, who is also awaiting trial in Chicago, on charges of using Teamster pension funds, could be sentenced to 25 years if convicted. The trial here is scheduled to begin Jan. 6.

Trade Commission May Be Appointed By County Court

Some local businessmen may be going to Hawaii soon. County Commissioner Edwin Taylor said the Jackson County Court would appoint a five-man trade commission some time next week. This will be part of state-wide project jointly sponsored by the Association of Oregon Counties and the Oregon Department of Planning and Development aimed at improving interstate and export marketing of Oregon products.

County Judge Earl M. Miller said one of the appointees would be County Horticultural Agent Dr. Clifford B. Cordy. The pear industry has indicated they would request one of their members be appointed.

First project will be to organize an Hawaiian Trade Mission to be held with the National Association of County Officials' western regional district meeting in Honolulu Feb. 12-15.

Portland (UPI)—New contraceptive pills for women have a smaller dosage but do the same job as ones in use at present, a doctor told a scientific meeting at the American Medical Association's 17th clinical meeting here Wednesday.

Dr. Edward T. Tyler, associate clinical professor of obstetrics and gynecology at UCLA Center for Health Sciences, spoke at the closing afternoon session.

He said that at least 2 million American women are using contraceptive pills.

Dr. Tyler also is director of the Los Angeles Planned Parenthood Center and the National Planned Parenthood Medical Council.

Trade experts have reported that nearly two-thirds of the food consumed in the Hawaiian Islands is brought in from other areas, California and the Gulf provide large amounts of this food.

The Oregon Trade Commission hopes to bring the Oregon producer and Hawaiian consumer together so the Oregon farmer "may capture more of the Hawaiian agricultural market."

Lack of favorable shipping schedules has brought about the pending disruption of service. However, Matson has now announced its ships will leave Pacific Northwest ports every 12 days for Hawaii with a container service.

The new trade commission will attempt to obtain specific information on the trade problem and will attempt to set up a pattern of trade, it was explained.

Portland (UPI)—Lizzie Mae Adams, 43, was found guilty of second degree murder Wednesday in the Sept. 29 stabbing death of Willie Bolds, 59.

Sanitary District To Meet Tonight

TALENT — A meeting of the South Talent Sanitary District, the last one scheduled before the Dec. 9 election on the bond issue, will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Talent City Hall.

A tribute to Everett Schmelzer, late president of the board, will be included in the program. This will be the first meeting of the district since Mr. Schmelzer's death.

Two speakers are scheduled to bring information to the meeting. Joe Butler of the Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan, will speak on finances, and James Selbeck of Ashland will present the need for sewers to serve the area.

A large attendance is desired to enable residents to obtain as much information as possible before the bond election, Grimes said.

The district is still waiting for the County Court to appoint a member to the board to fill the vacancy resulting from Mr. Schmelzer's death. The board is now operating with two instead of three members, Bill Kerns and Grimes, who did not seek re-election. His term expires Jan. 2.

Church Maintains Position on Bible Reading, Race Justice

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (UPI)—The United Presbyterian Church will not back down on its stand for racial justice and its support of the Supreme Court ruling prohibiting Bible reading and prayer in the public schools.

This has been made clear by the denomination's General Council in a letter to the nation's 3.2-million United Presbyterians, which appears in the December 1 issue of "Presbyterian Life," the denomination's official publication.

The General Council is the permanent advisory body of the Church.

Even though this stand has aroused the "deep emotional reaction" of many church members, the General Council affirmed: "We cannot afford the luxury of being spectators of history. God calls us to be participants."

The denomination's recent actions left some church members "bewildered as they felt themselves swept along by forces they could neither understand nor control," the letter said. "Others were frustrated or angered because 'their' church had involved them in controversy not of their own making and not of their choice."

However, the General Council noted, the church acted on both issues "out of deep conviction rooted in Scripture and nourished by our Presbyterian theological heritage."

The council said the reactions to both issues may indicate

Venezuela Rebels Release U.S. Colonel Unhurt

CARACAS (UPI)—A U.S. Army colonel was released unharmed today eight days after he was kidnapped by terrorists.

"It's a great feeling to be free again," said Col. James K. Chenault after he was released.

Chenault, 45, a native of Sherman, Tex., and a World War II (anti-tank) combat officer, met newsmen at the U.S. Embassy a few hours after his release at 6 a.m. He had been kidnapped from the doorstep of his home by four heavily armed pro-Castro members of the underground Armed Forces for National Liberation (FALN).

The officer read a brief written statement and then answered questions. He wore a neatly pressed army dress uniform with three rows of ribbons.

"I was held in some section of Caracas which I cannot identify other than the fact it seemed to be heavily populated," he said. "I was guarded continually but received reasonably good treatment considering the circumstances."

Signs of God's judgment are evident, it said, in the "deep sense of neurotic guilt and hostility among Christians," separate houses of worship, and the difficulty which Negro Christians face in moderating the just demands of their people within the realm of the possible.
