WSU Fires Grid Coach Sutherland

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI) — Jim Sutherland, who developed some of the finest passing teams in the nation during his eight years as head football coach at Washington State University, will be looking for a new job when he sends his West squad onto the field in this year's Shrine game.

Stan Bates, athletic director at WSU, announced Thursday afternoon that Sutherland's contract was being terminated Jan. 30, 1964 by mutual agreement. That will be almost eight years to the day from the date in 1956 when "Suds" took over the reins of the Cougars' sagging football fortunes from the hands of ousted Al Kircher.

Best Interests Bates, in making the announcement, said the "move is being made in the best interests of the athletic program" and added that a settlement was being worked out for the one year remaining on Sutherland's two-year contract.

Sutherland said the "football program here is unmanageable and the only way they could do anything about it was to make a change."

"It's always the coach's fault when things aren't going well," he added. "That's to be expected. I have no bitter feelings toward the school."

RECEIVES AWARD PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The general manager and vice president of the Baltimore Colts, Don Kellert, Thursday received the Bert Bell Award of the Philadelphia Bakers' Club 15th annual father and son banquet.

UCLA Bruins Join Swim

By United Press International UCLA, co-favorite in the Big Six cage race, and the always rugged USC Trojans join the basketball swim tonight when they open their seasons in an inter-sectional doubleheader.

USC hosts Butler University and the Bruins battle Brigham Young tonight. The Los Angeles squads switch foes Friday.

If the Bruins can flash their predicted form this season, the Big Six race could be a great one.

Stanford looked like money in the bank when they swept a two game series against Oregon this week. Indian star Tom Dose again flashed brilliance and got unexpected help from 6 foot 6 soph Bob Bedell.

Then, California flattened St. Mary's with ease as 6 foot 10 inch center Camden Wall appeared and have completely recovered from the knee injury which has hampered his basketball at Berkeley for two years.

Now come the Bruins with dazzling backcourt ace Walt Hazzard and beefy center Fred Slaughter back again.

MEL MAY SIGN

EUGENE (UPI) — Oregon halfback Mel Renfro indicated today he plans to sign with the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League and that he probably will pass up his final year of track eligibility.

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE SPORTS

GET PAUNCH BOWL EQUIPMENT—Keith Frenick isn't actually reaching to the bottom of the barrel for football talent. He is just getting a little help from heavier teammates in getting grid accommodations from the bottom of the hamper. Members of the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce drew equipment last night from the high school for their appearance in the annual Paunch Bowl football game at Grants Pass. The game, with proceeds earmarked for Medford and Josephine County Funds, is set for 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 8, at Cavenam Field. They were challenged to the game by the Grants Pass Active 20-30 Club. Tackle football will be played. This is the first time the GP club has gone outside the Grants Pass area for a rival. Here 250-pound Don Reese and 255-pound Ken Ditty, hard-pressed for equipment to fit their heroic proportions, have the assistance of 150-pound Frenick. Reese and Ditty will be the biggest members of the team which can start with a 210-pound average line and 193-pound backfield. The Jaycees will outnumber their rivals 27 to 16, according to reports. Medford service club members accepted the bowl bid because the Active 20-30 challenge "impugns our authority, casts aspersions on our community and is generally distasteful." The GP club reportedly is practicing diligently for the contest under the coaching of Larry Stevens and Ron Maurer. Medford's crew feels that it does not need a coach.

Woods, Water, Wildlife

By Hank DeVoss

Conservationists support S. 793 as approved by the Senate. The bill has run into conflict in the House subcommittee, which has congressman Harold T. Johnson (Calif.) of the Tulelake district as a member. Johnson is proposing an amendment that conservationists and the Senate say is unneeded and undesirable, because it would subordinate the purposes of the Tule Lake National Wildlife Refuge to purely local irrigation considerations. Unless subcommittee Chairman Walter Rogers (Tex.) and full committee Chairman Wayne N. Aspinall (Colo.) are convinced of the urgent need for giving full congressional protection to Tule Lake, Lower Klamath, and the other refuges, a sympathetic member of the committee reports, S. 793 may continue to be stalled.

THE ANGLER'S LOG

Between a full moon and clearing water, and for other reasons known only to fish, the past week hasn't been one noted for its good fishing. But hope springs eternal, and this week end should be better than the last.

ADVICE?

We might hope that anyone fishing the falls area does know how to swim, and if he doesn't know how to swim he is tied to a nearby rock or tree. Swimmers ought to be tied nearby. No one should go fishing alone in the gorge; you need help to get out of the water when you do fall in, and you'll need help with any fish you catch if you don't fall in. The best attitude for those who must fish the falls area is to pick all the likely spots where you might fall in and decide what to do if and when it happens. Then it won't be such a big surprise. (The reason for the tongue-in-cheek advice is that it's not likely that anyone will take it anyhow.)

CONSERVATIONISTS AWAKE!

Stalled in the House subcommittee on irrigation and reclamation is S. 793, the bill to protect the wildlife conservation objectives of the Tule Lake, Lower Klamath, Upper Klamath, and Clear Lake National Wildlife Refuges in California and Oregon, the Wildlife Management Institute reports. Approved earlier this year by the Senate, S. 793 is much the same as a Senate-passed bill that was cleared by the House subcommittee in 1962. It died when the

Woodson Leader in KO Returns

NEW YORK (UPI) — In the midst of the San Francisco Forty Niners' most dismal season, Abe Woodson is racing toward the most impressive kickoff return record in National Football League history.

Woodson, who was a Big Ten track champion at Illinois and plays corner defense halfback for the Forty Niners, is on the verge of becoming the first NFL player to win the kickoff return championship three times.

He presently leads with a 33.8-yard average for 26 run-backs, according to statistics released today by the NFL. The 168-pound speedy has run three kickoffs back for touchdowns, including a 103-yarder against the Minnesota Vikings.

Woodson already holds four NFL kickoff return records: Most yards lifetime, 3,938; most returns season, 37 in 1962; most returns game, 7 vs. Detroit in 1962; and most yards season, 1,157 in 1962 (he is 277 yards short of that record at present).

Besides the season yardage record, five other kickoff records are within Woodson's reach this season (most seasons leading league, highest lifetime average, most touchdowns career and most touchdowns season).

There were changes in the leadership of two specialties this week, Jimmy Brown of the Cleveland Browns regaining first place in the scoring race from placekicker Jerry Kramer of the Green Bay Packers and Clemond Thomas of the Pittsburgh Steelers supplanting Roosevelt Taylor of the Chicago Bears in pass interceptions.

Jimmy Brown remained on top in rushing, Y. A. Tittle of the New York Giants in passing, Bobby Joe Conrad of the St. Louis Cardinals in pass receiving; Yale Lary of the Detroit Lions in punting, and Brady Keys of the Pittsburgh Steelers in punt returns.

Holland Resigns Portland Post

PORTLAND (UPI) — Dr. Joseph Holland resigned Thursday as director of athletics and executive officer for health and physical education at Portland State College.

President Branford Millar named Holland's assistant, Hugh Smithwick, acting athletic director effective Jan. 1. Millar said Holland would be asked to continue his other duties until the end of this school year.

Holland said he wanted to give officials "complete freedom" to reorganize his departments at the fast-growing college. An outside consultant and a faculty committee were appointed earlier this year to study possible changes.

The school has increased nearly 250 per cent in enrollment since it moved to its downtown Portland location and has virtually no athletic or physical education facilities of its own.

Holland had been at Portland State since the school was founded. He previously had been on the faculty of the Vanport Extension Center.

Cantrell New PGA President

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Delegates to the annual convention of the Professional Golfers Association picked Warren Cantrell of Lubbock, Tex., new PGA president Thursday night, apparently in a political upheaval resulting from a behind-the-scenes controversy in pro golf's administrative body.

Cantrell, who learned his golf on a Texas ranch, defeated Wally Mund of St. Paul, Minn., PGA secretary for the past three years and expected to step up to the presidency here.

Southern Cal Tops Statistics

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Southern California lost to Washington in the 1963 Big Six football race, but overwhelmed the Huskies in the battle of statistics.

Final official team figures five categories, Washington two, and UCLA one.

USC won the scoring title with 207 with lowly California second in this department at 185 points. Southern California also held foes to 114 points to edge the second place Huskies, who surrendered 124.

The Trojans also outgained the Huskies in total offense, averaging 331 yards per contest or 11 more than Washington. They also defeated the Huskies in total defense, with an average of 242 per contest to the Huskies' 272. Southern California's pass defense figure of 95 yards per contest also led the loop.

Washington had the best rushing attack and defense with USC a close second in both departments. The Huskies gained 218 yards a game to USC's 181 and surrendered 134 per contest to 147 for the men of Troy.

UCLA edged California in pass offense, averaging 156 yards per game to the Bears' 152.

OSU Faces BC Quint

By United Press International Oregon State and the University of Portland, both unbeaten after the first weekend of the collegiate basketball season, put their records on the line tonight and Saturday night.

The Beavers face University of British Columbia tonight and Washington Saturday night at Gill Coliseum in Corvallis, while Portland plays a two-night stand at San Jose State.

Oregon, which lost two games to Stanford last weekend, is idle until Monday, when it takes on Washington at Eugene.

Oregon State is expected to have an easy time with UBC tonight, but Washington showed its ability by whipping Texas Western in an opener last weekend. Steve Wilson, 6-7, is the big gun in the Huskies' attack.

Seven-footer Mel Counts scored 62 points in two games last weekend as the Beavers collected two wins over Washington State. He will be joined in the starting lineup by Jim Jarvis, Frank Peters, Scott Eaton and probably Dave Fox.
