

Burns-Todd Ceremony Held

The four grandmothers of Miss Beverly Jean Todd and David R. Burns were present when the couple was married November 23 at 8 o'clock in the evening in First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Bernard Andrews officiated, assisted by the Rev. Roy C. Price, Portland, of Christian and Missionary Alliance, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Angus Todd, 12 Ashland Avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale E. Burns, 2241 Dellwood Avenue.

Mrs. Dora B. Brantley and Mrs. W. A. Todd, maternal and paternal grandmothers of the bride, are both of Medford. Mrs. Victor Cramer, the bridegroom's paternal grandmother, is of Ashland, and Mrs. Edward Chamberlain, his maternal grandmother, was there from Eagle Point.

Guests also attended from California, Washington and other parts of Oregon.

Bride Wears Satin
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of bridal satin designed with self-fabric cummerbund and bell skirt. Her small pillbox headpiece of tulle and Chantilly lace was trimmed with pearls and held her elbow length veil of English silk illusion. The bridal bouquet was of white colonial roses and stephanotis.

Miss Dorothy Hansen, Spokane, was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Miss Julianne Yoakley; and Miss Bonnie Brantley, Santa Rosa, Calif., a cousin of the bride. Mrs. Paul Evers, Central Point, was bridesmatron.

The attendants wore gowns of antique gold satin with bell-shaped skirts and long white gloves. Their headpieces held circular veils and they carried gold pompon chrysanthemums. Miss Cynthia Ryerson, Central Point, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Cynthia Spaulding, lighted the candles. Their frocks were of crystalline and they wore wristlet corsages of white carnations.

Miss Clara Chapman, San Francisco, was organist and soloists were the Rev. Byron Evans; and the Rev. Mr. Price, who also sang a duet.

Bruce Longstreth, San Francisco, served as best man, and seating the guests were Michael Butler, Redding; Lynn Sturgill, Grants Pass, a cousin of the bridegroom; and Paul Evers, Central Point, Rick Chamberlain, Eagle Point, and Gary Smith were groomsmen.

Baskets of bronze chrysanthemums and candelabra with tapers decorated the church and pews were marked with ribbon bows and candles.

Reception Is Large
Some 225 guests attended the ceremony and reception held in the church fireplace room, and given by the bride's parents. Decorations included a garden setting with fountain. The bride's table was centered with the wedding cake encircled with ivy, and an arrangement of chrysanthemums decorated the reception table.

Mrs. L. A. Ryerson, Central Point, an aunt of the bride, was in charge of the reception arrangements and Mrs. Robert L. Brantley, another aunt, poured coffee. Mrs. Ellis Chartier served the wedding cake, and Mrs. Jackson Jones, a cousin of the bride, assisted. Mrs. Agnes Pathmann assisted with the decorating.

At the gift table were aunts of the bride, Mrs. Jack Walker, Ashland; Mrs. Harlan Mayfield, Grants Pass and Mrs. Philip Todd, Central Point. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Price, Portland, registered the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Todd wore a teal blue sheath dress with moss green accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a multi-colored silk print dress with brown accessories and matching feathered hat. Both had white carnation corsages.

The couple made their wedding trip to Northern California, returning December 1 to live in Ashland.

Many Guests
Among guests from out of town were the bride's children, Steven and Cindy, cousins of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chamberlain, Karen, Rod, Brad and Jay, Fortuna, Calif., uncle, aunt and cousins of the bridegroom; Mrs. Raymond Conley, Reseda, Calif.; Durwin Shepson, San Francisco; Mrs. Butler, Redding; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mainwaring Jr., Newberg; The Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Evers, Elma, Wash.; Miss Nancy Knippel, and Mrs. Petra Hagen and grandchildren, Karen and Debra, all Portland.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Medford High School, and has attended Simpson Bible College, San Francisco, and Westmont College, Santa Barbara. She is a senior at Southern Oregon College majoring in elementary education and is employed by Medford School District as an associate teacher.

The bridegroom, a 1960 graduate of Shasta Union High School, Redding, has attended Simpson Bible College, San Francisco, and City College of San Francisco. He is a student at Southern Oregon College, majoring in business administration.

Mr. and Mrs. David R. Burns (Southern Oregon Color photo)

Jacquelin Lou Berteau Wed to Robert Maentz

Jacquelin Lou Berteau and Robert Caldwell Maentz Jr. were married November 30 in a 2 o'clock afternoon ceremony read by the Rev. Dell E. Millard in the New Age Church, near Eagle Point.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred F. Charley, 744 Beall Lane, Medford. The bridegroom's parents are Mrs. George Rasmussen, 21 Acorn Way, Medford, and Robert C. Maentz, Oakland, Calif.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ice green brocaded satin sheath dress with light green accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds.

Mrs. Dale P. Newton, Redding, Calif., a sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. Her suit was of light green mohair and she wore a white carnation corsage.

Brother Best Man
Peter Rasmussen, a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

William Charley, a brother of the bride, lighted the candles. Nick, Chris and Terry Rasmussen, brothers of the bridegroom, and John Swartzfager, a brother of the bride, served as ushers.

Maynard Hadley was soloist. Mrs. Genevieve McCorkle was organist and Mrs. Millard played the piano.

Over 60 guests attended the ceremony and reception given by the bride's parents. Miss Janet O'Sullivan continued serving the wedding cake and Mrs. Linda Lamb poured punch. Mrs. Kenneth Curtis, an aunt of the bride, had charge of the bride's book.

Presiding at the gift table

Marriage News Of Interest Here

Miss Mary Caroline Dodge, San Francisco, daughter of Steven J. Dodge, 907 South Holly Street, became the bride of Robert Morales, San Francisco, in a ceremony held December 3 in The Wedding Chapel, Reno, Nev.

The bride, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dodge, 519 King Street, is formerly of Medford, having attended elementary and junior high school here. She is a graduate of San Mateo High School. Mr. Morales is employed by Standard Oil Company of California in San Francisco where they will make their home.

The bride, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dodge, 519 King Street, is formerly of Medford, having attended elementary and junior high school here. She is a graduate of San Mateo High School. Mr. Morales is employed by Standard Oil Company of California in San Francisco where they will make their home.

Morkert-Larson Rites Announced

Miss Lorraine Larson became the bride of Theodore Morkert Jr., 331 South Ivy Street, Medford, in a ceremony held November 30 at Reno, Nev. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole S. Larson, Route 1, Box 273, Central Point.

The double ring rites were held at 11 o'clock in the morning. The bride wore a light blue knit suit.

Mr. Morkert's parents are Mrs. C. F. Fulks, Thompson Falls, Mont., and T. R. Morkert, Prineville, Ore.

The bride is a graduate of Crater High School. Mr. Morkert served four years with the U. S. Navy and is employed by Heinz Construction Company.

The couple was honored at a reception at the Larson home December 7. They are making their home at 1120 Niantic Street.

To Elect

An outside guard and trustee are to be elected by the auxiliary to Crater Lake Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles when they meet Thursday, December 12 at 8 p.m., in the Eagles Hall.

Christmas Program Set

"Beyond Bethlehem," a Christmas program, will be presented at the Tuesday, December 10, meeting of the Women's Mission Society of Eastwood Baptist Church at 10 a.m. at the church.

Mrs. Dean Anderson, president of the society, is in charge of the program with Mrs. Deane Sitzman and Mrs. Robert Balk assisting. An offering of love gifts will be taken at this meeting rather than in circle meetings this month and the love gift for the year will be dedicated.

Hostesses for the luncheon at noon are Mrs. Harold Hewlett and Mrs. Joseph Rehmer.

Several individual Christmas trees are being assembled under the direction of Mrs. John T. Johnson. White Cross work has begun in the circles, and the quota will go to American Baptist missionary, Miss Virginia Nickerson, in the Congo.

Yearbooks have been completed and Mrs. Carl Jones, first vice president, is distributing them to members at society and circle meetings.

Fur Style Show Planned For Annual Charity Ball

A Curtis Stewart fur style show will be only one of the highlights of the Golden Ball Saturday, December 14, at the Rogue Valley Country Club.

This year Medford Junior Service League's invitational Christmas charity ball will benefit the School of Hope for retarded children.

League members will model the furs from Jean Hart's in an informal style show during the cocktail hour from 8 to 9:30 p.m.

Later in the evening the queen of the ball will be announced. Women attending will be judged for their outstanding coiffures and headresses.

Raoul Maddox's five piece band from Ashland will provide dance music for the guests during the evening.

Reservations may be made by telephone to Mrs. Donald McNeil at 772-2163 or writing her at 7343 Westover Drive.

Cochairmen for the ball are Mrs. Floyd Hart and Mrs. Robert K. Hood. Mrs. Loren L. Sawyer is in charge of decorations, Mrs. Donald McNeil, invitations and reservations; Mrs. Arlon Skinner, greeters; Mrs. Norman Capsey and Mrs. Jack Lewis, prizes; Mrs. Fred Lewis, menu, and Mrs. Gordon E. Williams, publicity.

Engagement Is Announced

EAGLE POINT — Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Westover, Route 1, Box 329, Eagle Point, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Ann Westover, to Alvin O. Aydelott, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Aydelott, 3480 Liberty Road, Southeast, Salem.

The bride-elect was graduated from Eagle Point High School and Southern Oregon College. She is teaching fourth grade at Wilson School in Medford.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Salem High School, is employed by the Oregon State Highway Department, Salem. A June wedding is planned.

Two More Experienced Beauticians Added To Our Staff

Give a Gift Certificate

It's the Holiday Season
Time to look your Prettiest

Open Evenings by Appointment

Make an appointment with one of our skilled beauticians

| | | |
|---------------|----------------|------------------|
| Chris Rose | Ann Bruning | Fay Rashe |
| Sharon Osborn | Virginia Doyle | Marjorie Hoffine |

Phone 773-1841

Rose Beauty Center 311 GENESSEE
Corner of Jackson & Genessee

To Install
JACKSONVILLE — Women's Association of Jacksonville Presbyterian Church will install officers at a meeting set for Tuesday, December 10, at the home of Mrs. Otto Niedermeyer.

Guests
ASHLAND — Mrs. B. L. Powell, 196 Nutley Street, has as recent guests her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parks of Fairfield, Wash.

Imperial cultured Pearls

Here, the purity and elegance of Imperial Cultured Pearls are interpreted in a beautifully-matched, graceful, graduated necklace. Earrings of single pearls in 10 kt. tailored gold.

Necklace, with 10 kt. gold filigree clasp $25 Up

Lawrence's
Southern Oregon's Diamond Center
21 N. CENTRAL Est. 1908
Convenient Terms if Desired
See our wonderful selection of cultured pearl pin, earring and rings!

a sweet surprise for her...
a gift of Lingerie

Give her sweet dreams... give her her under-wonders... give her the prettiest and most practical of Gifts... You'll find a beautiful selection in our lingerie dept.

"Slippers"

Mules... Scuffs... Fuzzy Styles... you'll find them all at Woods.

3.98 to 6.98

Parker WOODS Leons
220 E. Main

- Slips
- Gowns
- Negligie
- Petti pants
- Half slips
- Pj's