

Church Rites Wed Pair

JACKSONVILLE — Mr. and Mrs. James George Walker are living at 4585 South Pacific Highway, Phoenix, following their wedding trip to Southern California, Las Vegas and Reno, Nev.

The bride, the former Miss Diana Rose Maddox, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert B. Maddox, Route 2, Box 2, Sterling Road, Jacksonville. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Walker, Route 1, Box 212, Talent.

The Rev. William McLeod officiated for the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial mass November 23 at 9 a.m., in Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Mr. Maddox escorted his daughter to the altar. The bride's gown was fashioned with long sleeved bodice and overskirt of Chantilly lace over pleated nylon net. A bow accented the scalloped neckline and a crown trimmed with seed pearls and sequins held her elbow-length veil of nylon tulle. Her bouquet was of white carnations centered with a white orchid and she carried a lace handkerchief which had been carried by her grandmother at her wedding.

Sisters Attend Bride
Mrs. Clyde Smith, Eugene, was matron of honor for her sister, and another sister, Mrs. Earl Brown, Jacksonville, and Mrs. Lester S. Walker, Talent, a sister-in-law, were bridesmaids. Miss Barbara Nisle, Ashland, was bridesmaid.

Bonnie Sue Maddox, Jacksonville, a niece of the bride, was flower girl and David Michael Smith, Eugene, a nephew, carried the rings.

Marie Ann McKee, Medford, and Candy Lynn Maddox, Jacksonville, nieces of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. The attendants wore royal blue velvet frocks with bell skirts, matching slippers and crowns with veils. The junior bridesmaids and flower girl carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums and the others had cascade bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Lester S. Walker was best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Jack Walker, Ashland, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Barrett and Allen Hoffman, both Talent.

The bride's mother chose a two-tone brown wool knit suit with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a green frock with gold accessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums decorated the church and small bouquets were placed on the altars. White ribbons marked the pews.

Bruno Pellegrini was organist. Following the rites the bride's parents entertained the guests in the Tully Ho Dining Inn, Talent. About 200 guests attended the ceremony and reception. Baskets of white flowers decorated the inn. The reception table was centered with the wedding cake and a white Bible was placed on the table.

Mrs. Douglas McKee, Medford, a sister of the bride, and Janet Brown, a niece, Jacksonville, had charge of gifts. Mrs. Raymond Maddox, Phoenix, a sister-in-law of the bride, served the coffee and Mrs. H. Chandler Drew, Medford, an aunt of the bride, poured punch. Mrs. Dace Maddox, Phoenix, a sister-in-law, and Mrs. Terrance Maddox, a sister-in-law, served the cake. Mrs. Richard Lee, Ashland, a sister of the bridegroom, registered guests. Mrs. Rupert Maddox had charge of the reception.

Bride Is Secretary
The bride attended Jacksonville schools, and was graduated from St. Mary's High School and attended Southern Oregon College for two years. She is a secretary for the Sno Cat Company. The bridegroom is a Talent High School graduate, having attended Talent schools for the full 12 years. He is self employed as manager of the Jim Walker Company, Talent. Prewedding events included three showers for the bride-elect.

One was at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Rose Singler, Medford, given by her cousin, Mrs. Paul Stewart. About 20 guests attended. The second shower was given in the home of Mrs. Dace Maddox, Phoenix, by her sister, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Raymond Maddox and the hostess. Some 40 persons attended.

The third event was given by a sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Mrs. Lester S. Walker, Talent, in her home, and Miss Barbara Nisle. About 25 guests attended.

CENTRAL POINT — The engagement of Miss Tamara Croucher and David Young was announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Croucher, 2969 Sunnyvale Road, Central Point, during a recent family gathering. The bridegroom-elect is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Young, Hillcrest-Phoenix Road, Medford. Miss Croucher was graduated from Medford High School and attended Robertson School of Business. Her fiancé is a St. Mary's High School graduate.

Calendar Is Crowded With Yuletide Events

By OLIVE STARCHER

Dozens of Christmas parties are on the social calendar for coming days. At several of these gifts will be collected for underprivileged children, for those in hospitals or confined to their homes. Christmas music will be presented for others.

St. Catherine's Guild
Gifts for shut-ins are to be collected during the traditional Christmas party of St. Catherine's Guild. The group will assemble at 8 o'clock Monday, Dec. 9, in St. Mark's Parish Hall, Fifth and North Oakdale Avenue. Members are asked to attach a label to the gift, indicating whether it is suitable for a man or a woman.

The program will feature Christmas music, according to Mrs. Sam Jones, chairman.

Election of officers for 1964 will follow the report of the nominating committee.

Mesdames William Ardry, Hale Greenman and A. D. Roach will be the hostesses for the evening.

St. Elizabeth's Guild
St. Elizabeth's Guild of St. Mark's Episcopal Church will meet Friday, December 13, at 12 noon at the church for the annual Christmas party. Small gifts are to be exchanged.

Studio Dance
The annual Toys for Tots Christmas party will be given by the Arthur Murray Dance Studio staff and students Thursday, December 19. This event will be open to the public and admission will be one toy.

A buffet dinner will be served and music will be furnished by the Caesar Muzzioli combo. The party will be held at the studio, 320 East Main Street.

Mothers of Twins
Mothers of Twins Club members will meet for their Christmas dinner and party Thursday, Dec. 12 at 7 p. m., in Ping's Restaurant. The dinner will be a no-host event and those who attend are to take inexpensive gifts. Secret pals will be revealed.

Any interested mother of twins is invited and further information may be obtained from Mrs. Robert Lance, 664-3125.

Women of Rotary
Women of Rotary will hold a Christmas party Wednesday, December 11, at the home of Mrs. S. R. Dippel, 1 Eastwood Drive. Members wishing to make reservations are to call Mrs. Dippel, dial 773-1856.

Luncheon at 12:30 p. m. will be followed by a business meeting and gift exchange. Those who wish may play cards.

Chrysanthemum Circle
The annual Christmas potluck dinner is planned by Chrysanthemum Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, Monday, Dec. 9, at 6:30 p. m. at the Eagles hall. Turkey for the dinner will be provided.

Each member attending is asked to contribute canned foods for a Christmas basket.

A business meeting will follow dinner. The committee is headed by Mrs. George Culy.

Lutheran Women
An annual Christmas luncheon meeting for all women of Zion Lutheran Church is announced for Tuesday, December 10 at the church. The meeting will open at 11 a. m.

Special guests will be women from Mt. Zion Lutheran Church, Yreka, Calif., and St. Peter's and Ascension Lutheran Churches of Medford.

Mrs. Walter Nunley is the luncheon chairman and Mrs. Jack Teeters is in charge of decorations. The program will be presented by Mrs. Henry Moyer and will be done in the Advent theme. Vocal solos will be presented by Miss Catherine Watson.

Security Club
A Christmas party and a dance have been announced by Security Benefit Club members. The party is to be held Wednesday, December 18 and the dance, Friday, December 20, both in the Pythian Building.

The club also will furnish Christmas baskets for needy members.

An open invitation is extended to all interested persons to attend the club meetings, held each Wednesday, beginning at 11 a. m., in the same building. Dismissal will be at 3:30 p. m. during the winter months, instead of 4 p. m., because of weather conditions, officers have announced.
