

Newlyweds Make Home In Dallas

PROSPECT — Mr. and Mrs. Roland J. Giesbrecht are making their home in Dallas, Ore., following their return from a wedding trip to Camas, Wash.

The bride is the former Virginia L. Eastman, Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Eastman, Prospect. Mrs. Giesbrecht is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Giesbrecht, Dallas.

The Rev. Clarence H. Walth officiated at the 8 o'clock evening rites held at the Salt Creek American Baptist Church in Dallas. About 100 guests attended the November 15 double ring wedding. Mrs. William Giesbrecht, aunt of the bridegroom, played the organ wedding music and accompanied Terry Murry, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin and she carried a bouquet of roses and carnations.

Miss Jill Hedgpeth, Prospect, attended the bride. She wore a red brocaded dress with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of red and white carnations.

Gary Giesbrecht, Dallas, served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Clifford and Delbert Hoekstre.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church by Mrs. Orvel Aebi and Mrs. Gid Hevener.

The bride is a graduate of Prospect High School and is employed in the business office of the Oregon Public Welfare Commission. Mr. Giesbrecht, a graduate of Dallas High School, is a machinist with the Gerlinger Carrier Company in Dallas.

Medford Student To Be Soloist

MARYLHURST — Kathleen Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric W. Allen Jr., 48 Windsor Avenue, Medford, will sing a solo in the 1963 winter concert to be held December 15 at Marylhurst, Ore.

Miss Allen, a sophomore and biology major, is a 1962 graduate of Medford High School.

Rouhier-Meeker Rites Held at Catholic Church

When Miss Patricia Ann Meeker became the bride of David Eugene Rouhier, November 30 in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, members of the Marian Choir of St. Mary's High School sang the wedding songs.

The nuptial mass was celebrated and the wedding ceremony performed by the Rev. William McLeod at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. Sister Miriam Joseph directed the choir.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leland D. Meeker, 991 James Road, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. John Rouhier, 315 South Grape Street, and the late Mr. Rouhier.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a full length gown of lace and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Sisters Attend Bride Miss Kathleen Meeker was honor attendant for her sister, and Debra Meeker, another sister, was flower girl. Their gowns were of orchid brocade and they carried bouquets of white and pink chrysanthemums.

Gary Meeker carried the rings and Glen and Dennis Meeker were altar boys. All are brothers of the bride.

Thomas Depner served as best man and ushers were Thomas Rouhier, and James Rouhier, brothers of the bridegroom.

The reception was given by the bride's parents in their home.

Cake was cut and served by the Misses Kerry O'Hara and Charlotte Brown. Punch was poured by Miss Jennifer Espey and the bride's sister, Kathy Meeker, had charge of the guest book.

Guests from out of town included Jack Rouhier, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Waggon and children, Eugene; Mrs. Lorimer Ireland, Kathy Ireland and Mrs. Ned Barraclough, all Ashland.

The couple made their wedding trip to Eugene and now are living at 848 1/2 West McAndrews Road, Medford.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended St. Mary's Grade and High Schools. The bride also attended Holy Names College, Spokane, Wash., and the bridegroom has attended Southern Oregon College.

Ceremony In Chicago Weds Pair

ASHLAND—The marriage of Miss Sydney Ann Schweizer, formerly of Ashland, to Joseph Jerome Dean, Chicago, has been announced by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce J. Schweizer, 580 Clover Lane, Ashland. The bridegroom is the son of Stephen W. Dean, Cairo, Ill., and the late Mrs. Dean.

The double-ring ceremony was performed November 23 by the Rev. Thomas B. Lally in St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church, Oak Park, Ill. Rolle Hudson, River Forest, Ill., was organist.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a street length dress of ivory brocade and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Diane Flanagan, Chicago, attended the bride. She wore a blue lace dress and carried white carnations.

John Kennedy, Maywood, Ill., served as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Schweizer traveled to Oak Park for the wedding. Mrs. Schweizer chose a teal blue silk dress with white carnation corsage for the ceremony.

The bride is employed by the Connecticut General Life Insurance Company. Mr. Dean is with International Business Machines. They are making their home in Chicago.

Party

A Christmas party and gift exchange is planned by Griffin Creek Grange Home Economics Club for Monday, December 9 in the home of Mrs. W. H. Arnold, 2322 Lucky Lane. All interested Grange women are invited.

Marriage Of Interest In Valley

A wedding of interest to Rogue Valley residents was held recently in Beaverton, Ore., when Mrs. Julia Dawn Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne B. Ezell, Aloha, Ore., former Central Point residents, became the bride of Lloyd L. Minten, Salem. Several area residents were members of the wedding party.

The Rev. Brendan Fleming officiated at the November 23 rites held at St. Cecilia's Church in Beaverton, Ore. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. S. A. Minten, Beaverton, and the late Mr. Minten.

Chrysanthemums in fall colors, carnations and iris decorated the church for the one o'clock afternoon rites. Mrs. Emma Balfe was organist and accompanied William McNicholas and Joseph Jamieson, soloists.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a white bouquet taffeta gown fashioned with fitted Chantilly lace bodice and gathered skirt accented with lace panels embroidered with seed pearls and rhinestones. Her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl tiara and she carried a nosegay bouquet of baby roses and carnations.

From Medford

Mrs. David McGee, Medford, was matron of honor. Her other attendants were Mrs. David Benson, Portland, her sister; Miss Connie Morris, Portland, and Mrs. Betty Stephenson, Medford. They wore gold and orange brocaded sheath dresses with orange net hats and matching shoes. Each carried a single large long stemmed brown chrysanthemum with white streamers.

William Reiling, Beaverton, served as best man and seating the guests were Richard Soule, Bruce Moore and John George.

David Minten, brother of the bridegroom, was altar boy. Carl of Minten, his sister, was flower girl, and John Ezell, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

The reception which followed was at DeVault's in Beaverton. The couple is at home in Sa-

Skiing Will Be Subject For Evening's Program

"See and Ski" will be the theme for an evening of entertainment to be provided free of charge by Medford Jaycees in the Medford High School auditorium Wednesday, December 11 at 7:30 p.m.

Two films on skiing will be shown, one an instructional film and the other showing French ski racing in which some of the participants are members of the French Olympic ski team.

Non-skiers particularly are invited. Jaycees officers announced.

Ski fashions furnished by Rogue Ski Shop will be modeled and after-ski lounge wear will be shown by Burelson's Ladies Ready-To-Wear store. The Rogue Snowmen queen and court will serve as models.

Caesar Muzzioli will furnish entertainment. A school of instruction for skiing will be sponsored by the Jaycees in early 1964, tentative plans calling for January.

Keep two sets of towels, distinguished by different colors and patterns handy at the kitchen sink. Use one set for drying hands, the other only for drying dishes.

Rebekahs Plan Holiday Party

Plans were made by Olive Rebekah Lodge women for a joint Christmas party with the Medford Independent Order of Odd Fellows when they met last week. The party is to be held December 22 at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Bruce Matheny, district deputy president of Ruth Rebekah Lodge, Jacksonville, was introduced and presented a corsage at the close of an addendum. Mrs. Matheny qualified newly-elected 1964 officers.

Refreshment tables were decorated to represent different seasons of the year in observance of members' birthdays. E. a. c. b. was presented a sash favor.

Economists To Hear Consultant

Miss Dorothy Klingler will speak for a meeting of Rogue Valley Home Economists in Homemaking at Medford High School, Room 16, Monday, December 9 at 7:30 p.m. Miss Klingler is a nutrition consultant for the Oregon Dairy Council.

She plans to show two films. One will be "Nutrition Sense and Nonsense" done by the College of Home Economics, Cornell University in cooperation with the New York Cooperative Extension Service; and the other is "Science Tells Why Food Additives" put out by the Manufacturing Chemists' Association in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture.
