The doctor will speak on his recent experience in Hamadan, Iran. Special guests for the evening will be Medford High School Future Medics Club. All interested nurses in the valley are invited to attend this Christmas meeting.

Fiftieth Anniversary Observed at Open House

When Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vosika, 2208 College Way, Medford, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary Saturday, November 30 some 150 friends and relatives, some from as far as Florida, called on the couple between the hours of 1 and 4 p.m. The open house was held at the home of the couple's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zundel, Route 3, Box 122A, North Foothills Road, Medford.

Hosts for the event were the couple's daughters and sons and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Zundel, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Vosika, all Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Vosika, Santa Ana, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Vosika, Evanston, Wyo.

This was the first time the Vosika family had been together in 35 years.

Theme Is Gold

The Zundel home was decorated with yellow and gold chrysanthemums with gold tinted laurel leaves. The wedding cake centered the buffet table.

Granddaughters of the couple assisted. Mrs. Robert Kubick, Portland, poured coffee; Miss Sylvia Zundel served tea, and Miss Cherylann Vosika registered the guests and took charge of gifts. The gift table was centered by a gold money tree, a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kubick.

Mrs. Wood poured punch and Mrs. Zundel and Mrs. A. D. Vosika cut and served the cake.

Norman Larson, a nephew, sang and a medley of songs was furnished by the men present.

From out of town were sisters of Mr. Vosika and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bessler, Sioux Falls, S. D.; Mrs. Elizabeth Jochim, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. John Larson, Mattawa, Wash.; his brothers and families, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vosika, Seattle; George Vosika, Van Nuys, Calif.; his nephews and families, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Larson, San Jose; Gordon Larson, Grand Coulee, Wash., and Gary Larson, Rich-
