Paunch Grid Bowl Tiff On GP Field

It's not to be confused with Rose, Sugar, Orange, Cotton or Dust Bowls.

That's what they are saying about the Paunch Bowl. Whoever "they" are.

Anyway the Paunch Bowl is to be played at 2 p. m. today at Caveman Field in Grants Pass. It is supposed to be a football game but someone has said, "Football game? Ho-ho-ho!"

This contest is to match the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce against the Grants Pass Active 20-30 Club.

Black Nights

There is an admission charge. Very important persons will pay the most. Proceeds will go to the United Fund of each community.

The Medford club has been dubbed the Black Nights and the Climate city aggregation the Neanderthals. It is reported that the Jaycees have been called the Black Nights (notice, no K) because they have left everybody pretty well in the dark about their team.

They have said that they have accepted the challenge and that the game will be played. A picture has been taken showing three of the players drawing equipment. The jaycees have even produced a roster with a bunch of nicknames and some imposing weights.

But they've not given out a bit of information about a possible starting lineup or about their practice sessions.

Comet Grapplers Victors Over Roseburg Indians

CENTRAL POINT — Crater High wrestlers flexed their muscles Friday and came up with victory in their opening match of the year.

The Comet matmen overcame Roseburg 27-22.

Crater took six of the 13 matches outright, two by pins, and gained one verdict by default. The Indians were winners in five bouts and garnered one match by forfeit.

Steve Jorde got the other Comet victory.

Crater's Butch Bray, 106, lost to Don Langeberg but was credited by Coach Jim Tacchini with a tremendous job against a more experienced man. The Comets' Detliff Kirkendall, 148, dropped a nod to one of Roseburg's best racers in Ron Begley.

Destroyer To Wrestle At Armory

A match which would be a main event in any city on the west coast has been signed for the semi-windup on next Thursday night's all-star wrestling card at Medford armory.

It will pit The Destroyer, a fast and skillful 240-pounder who conceals his identity with a mask, against popular Nick Bockwinkle, who won the coast heavyweight champion from Tough Tony Borne here about six weeks ago.

The Destroyer, who insists on being billed as "The Intelligent, Sensational Destroyer," is a former National Collegiate Athletic Association wrestling champion and is on leave as a line coach with an eastern college football team. He has been making so much money as a wrestler that he is considering abandoning his coaching career to stay on the mat. Two weeks ago he drew a gate of $40,000 in Los Angeles.

The opener, set for 8:30 p.m., will introduce Bing Ki Lee, a sensational 215-pounder from Hong Kong, who will battle Art "Boom Boom" Mahalik, former professional football player.

Ringside reserved seats are available at Lamport's Sporting Goods store in Medford.

Oregon's Frosh Trim Truckers

EUGENE (UPI) —Nick Jones and Dave Romppanen each scored 19 points to pace the Oregon Frosh to a 74-61 basketball triumph over the Porter Truckers Friday night.

The Frosh held a 42-27 halftime lead over the McMinnville AAU team.

Mel Renfro Signed By Dallas Cowboys

By JAMES F. COUR
United Press International

PORTLAND (UPI) —Mel Renfro, called by many Oregon's greatest all-around athlete, will play professionally for the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League.

The 21-year-old University of Oregon football and track star signed for an undisclosed bonus Friday.

"We think we have the finest athlete in the country," Gil Brandt, personnel director for the NFL team, said at an afternoon news conference called to announce the signing.

"We have been watching him since he was a sophomore."

Renfro, who also was drafted by the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League and was sought by the Vancouver, B.C., Lions of the Canadian Football League, was Dallas' second draft choice.

Will Be Flanker

Brandt said that the 6-foot, 195-pound senior would replace Billy Howton as the Cowboys' flanker back. Howton announced his retirement Friday.

Renfro's signing made him ineligible to compete in track this spring but he said he would remain in school. He will lack about 13 credits for his bachelor's degree this spring.

Brandt did not reveal the salary or length of Renfro's contract. However, he said it was for more than one year.

The Oregon halfback was on United Press International's first All-American team as a junior but was handicapped by injuries this season and dropped to the third unit.

Suffered Broken Rib

He suffered a broken rib and a badly bruised side against Washington and cut his wrist in a freak accident involving a mirror at his apartment Nov. 22. He missed two games.

He still was wearing a cast at the news conference.

"We didn't take Renfro in the first round mainly because of the wrist injury," Brandt told newsmen. "But since then we have found out that there is no question now. According to a doctor's report, everything will be okay. The injury is in the healing process."

Renfro, who was born in Houston, Texas, said "the cast should come off soon and I hope to start working out in a month."

Skowron Bought by Washington

By HAL WOOD
UPI Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Departing major league officials put a reverse twist on the old gag of don't-call-me-I'll-call-you as they left for home Friday with plans to stay in touch and possibly complete several deals still hanging fire.

Six player transactions in all were made during the week-long meetings that began in San Diego and finished here but a number of baseball men said they still hope to make a deal before the inter-league trading deadline on Dec. 15.

"We'd certainly like to get another outfielder," admitted manager Bill Rigney of the Los Angeles Angels, who acquired first baseman Joe Adcock from Cleveland Friday to conclude an earlier Leon Wagner-for-Barry Latman swap.

Jackie Brandt of Baltimore is the outfielder Rigney would like to have and the Angels aren't the only club still in the trading market.

The world champion Dodgers, who sold first baseman Bill Skowron to Washington, still are seeking a pitcher; manager Yogi Berra of the Yankees confesses he'd like to have catcher Bill Rodgers of the Angels; Milwaukee and Cincinnati both are after a relief pitcher and the Philadelphia Phillies are shopping around for a third baseman.
