

Family Weekly

DECEMBER 8, 1963

MEDFORD  TRIBUNE

The Skiing Life

■ Half the fun of skiing (which is growing by leaps and bounds from California to the Carolinas) is not so much in knowing how to schuss down a slope as in dressing for it. And what a fresh palette of ski togs is being unveiled this season! (See page 10)

First of a Series on the Contenders for '64:

NELSON ROCKEFELLER—
The Women in His Life

Behind a Historic Medical Event:

My Boy's Arm Was Severed and Reattached—
But He Wouldn't Cry!

By MRS. EVERETT KNOWLES

What Happened to MILTON BERLE?