Indeed (and this I must deplore), Once we have eaten, it takes more. Oh well, our breakfast nook, no beauty, Serves well, in fact does double duty: It's there we eat and, sitting, rising, It's there we do our exercising.

The couple looked dubious, so the counselor explained: "You need a meeting of minds, see?"

"Oh, that," the husband said. "We've got plenty of that—but around our place it sounds more like a collision." —Ken Kraft
