

Lucas Promoted to Police Sergeant

George L. Lucas has been promoted to sergeant in the Medford City Police Department, according to Acting Police Chief Capt. Clyde Fichtner. Lucas assumed his duties as sergeant of the midnight to 8 a.m. shift today.

Lucas joined the local department June 10, 1956, and has been a patrolman with all three platoons since that time. He was one of the original instructors with the Jackson County Driver Improvement School, which was started in January, 1962, and will continue teaching the class, Fichtner said.

Lucas replaces Tom Furnas who has been transferred to the daytime shift as a patrolman. Furnas also has served in the detective division.

Lucas attended Medford schools and has served four years in the U. S. Marine Corps.

Four Accidents Are Reported to Police

Four automobile accidents were investigated by Medford police Tuesday afternoon and this morning.

Arrested on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and lodged in the Jackson County jail shortly after 1 o'clock this morning was Kenneth Paul Mays, 26, of 417 N. Oakdale Ave. He was arrested after the car he was driving hit a parked car registered to Blaine Biles at 617 N. Holly St., according to police.

Two dogs were injured and a parked car slightly damaged in three accidents Tuesday. A bassett, registered to Lee Wimberly, 30 S. Barneburg Road, was injured about 1 p.m. when hit on Highland Drive by a car operated by Mrs. Enid Mary Rankin, 18 Richmond St., and a small brown dog owned by James E. Taylor was injured when hit by a car operated by Iral Guy Van Winkle, 801 S. Peach St., in front of the Taylor home at 13 Hawthorne Ave.

A Pepsi Cola Bottling Company truck was slightly damaged about 1:20 p.m. while it was parked in the Big Y Supermarket parking lot. The other vehicle did not stop, according to police.

Lost Gold Mine Hunter Found Safe

GRANTS PASS (UPI) —Harley Herman Johnson, 44, Oregon City, lost since Monday while searching for a lost gold mine, was found safe Tuesday afternoon.

Josephine County deputies found Johnson in a cabin about 40 miles south of here following a search Monday night and Tuesday.

Officers said Johnson and a friend, John Hughes, were to search for a gold mine in the Onion Mountain area. Hughes reported that he waited at a designated spot in a ravine near Onion Mountain Monday afternoon but Johnson didn't show up.

Johnson told deputies he found the cabin and waited because he thought he would be discovered there. Bloodhounds were flown in from The Dalles, but Johnson was found before they were put to use.

Harvey Workers Reject Union

THE DALLES (UPI) —Harvey Aluminum Co. production and maintenance employees have rejected union representation for the third time since the company began operating here in 1958.

The vote was 276 to 137 in rejecting an affiliation with the Aluminum Workers International Union AFL-CIO. Employees voted on the issue Monday and Tuesday. Out of 417 eligible voters, 413 cast ballots.

The election was conducted by the National Labor Relations Board with representatives from Harvey and the Aluminum Workers Council of The Dalles looking on.

E. G. Strumpf, field examiner for the NLRB, said both interests had seven days to appeal the election with the Board's Portland office.

...another important reason to bank at First National!

Webster's Dictionary says that convenience is "freedom from difficulty, discomfort or trouble." Mr. Webster was not one of our depositors, but he could well have had First National service in mind when he wrote his definition.

Everything about First National banking has been planned with your convenience in mind. Nearly 100 branches throughout Oregon, most of them right where people live, work or shop, make it easy for you to get cash, make deposits, or arrange a loan.

Free parking at most locations, drive-in banking, complete banking service—all these and easier-to-read checking account statements, too—have been designed to make it easier for you to enjoy the protection and satisfaction of First National service.
