Man Held on Drug Influence Charge

Medford police Thursday afternoon arrested a 38-year-old man on a charge of driving while under the influence of drugs. He was lodged in Jackson County jail.

Officers said James Wallace Spradling, 1111 1/2 N. Riverside Ave., was the operator of a car which collided with two vehicles and struck a sign post and a tree within about 10 minutes shortly after 5 o'clock.

According to reports, Spradling's car collided with a vehicle operated by Eston Bruce Humphrey, 3482 Ross Lane, about 5:02 p.m. on Central Avenue between Sixth and Main Streets.

Spradling's car also struck a city-owned sign post and a tree on property of the U.S. National Bank in the same accident, officers said.

Spradling failed to stop at the scene of the accident, for which he was later issued a citation, and at 5:12 p.m. his vehicle collided with a car driven by Maxwell Paul Guiley, 229 Sunrise Ave. That accident occurred at Fourth Street and Central Avenue.

Officers who took Spradling into custody said there were no injuries received in any of the mishaps.
