Foreign Students To Marry

ASHLAND — Invitations were issued this week by Miss Lois May for the marriage of Miss Priscilla Mbuvi to William Senga on Saturday, December 21, at 8 p.m. in the First Presbyterian church. The two Southern Oregon college students are both natives of Kenya and were among some 1,500 on this country who received greetings from the new nation's leader, Jomo Kenyatta, upon formal declaration of Kenya's independence. Upon completion of their college education the young couple expect to return to Africa. Mr. Senga, an economics major, plans to follow a diplomatic career. Miss Mbuvi hopes to be a social science teacher. Since arriving in Ashland two-and-a-half years ago Miss Mbuvi has made her home with Miss May, 564 South Mountain Avenue. Miss May, a teacher in Walker elementary school, is president of the Ashland branch, American Association of University Women, the organization which has given assistance to the Kenya student. Other groups have been interested in Miss Mbuvi and have helped during her course at SOC.

Installation of the new officers will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, January 12, at the Eagle Point Primary school gymnasium, Eagle Point. The public is welcome to attend. The Misses Debbie Wilson, Cheryl Hefley, Janet Hatcher and Lynn Bedingfield were presented with proficiency certificates. Secret dads devotion night will be held Thursday, December 19 at the VFW Hall in Shady Cove. A dinner for the secret dads, their wives and families, Bethel members and families will be held at 7 p.m. followed by a Christmas party. Refreshments were served by the Misses Donna Weitman and Nanette Koellner and their mothers at the last meeting.

FOE Auxiliary Plans Party Games and refreshments are planned for the Christmas party to be given by the auxiliary to the Crater Lake Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles Thursday evening, December 19. All are to take wrapped gifts for an exchange.
