

Mistletoe Camp Elects; Club Party Is Planned

Mrs. W. E. Howell was named orator of Mistletoe Camp, Royal Neighbors of America Lodge, at recent elections. Mrs. L. S. Basha is the retiring orator.

Mrs. A. H. Webster was elected vice orator; Mrs. Alvin L. Lehman, chancellor; Mrs. Margery Pearson, recorder; Mrs. Ruby Mallory, receiver; Mrs. Irwin Patten, marshal; Mrs. William S. Russell, assistant marshal; Mrs. Frank E. Gidney and Mrs. Thomas Mee, inner and outer sentinels; Mrs. Thomas B. Lynch, Mrs. Mae Morrison and Mrs. Ruby Hicks, managers and Mrs. Pearl Bailey, musician.

Others elected were Mrs. C. D. Hershiser, faith; Mrs. Ray Anderson, courage; Mrs. Mary Fredericks, modesty; Mrs. Dot Coss unselfishness; Mrs. Thomas B. Lynch, endurance and Mrs. Mae Morrison, flag bearer.

The December 19 meeting has been cancelled and a practice session will be conducted December 28 in preparation for the formal initiation ceremonies January 2.

Members of Mistletoe Club, RNA, and families will meet for a Christmas luncheon Wednesday, December 18 at 12 noon in Girls Community Club. A gift exchange will be held and donations will be accepted on project to aid the deaf. Mrs. Irwin Patten, of the lodge, is chairman of the project.

Mrs. George Culy, Mrs. David N. Fraysher, Mrs. Alvin Lehman and Mrs. W. E. Howell make up the day's committee.

Relatives and Friends Attend Eugene Rites

When Miss Ruth Ann Bennett, Springfield, and Mason H. Ludwig, Eugene, former Medford resident, were married November 30 in Eugene, several relatives of the bridegroom from Medford and Applegate were among the guests.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Bennett, Springfield, and the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. B. Ludwig, 511 Austin Street, Medford, who went north for the ceremony.

The rites were read at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the Central United Presbyterian Church. The Rev. John Ashwood, minister of the church, and the Rev. Ross Knotts, Ebert Memorial Methodist Church, Springfield, officiated.

Wears Taffeta

The bride's gown was of floor length taffeta with an overdress of lace which revealed a front panel of the taffeta accented by a lace bow with streamers. Her fingertip veil, held by an Elizabethan cap of lace and pearls loaned by Mrs. Ralph Bennett, Eugene, who served as honor attendant. She carried a white orchid with gold chrysanthemums and she wore crystals which had belonged to her grandmother.

Other attendants were Miss Audrey Crawford, maid of honor and Miss Judy Gunkler, bridesmaid. Their gowns were similar to that worn by the bride, all in gold tones with yellow lace overdresses. Their headpieces were gold lace and they carried bouquets of gold chrysanthemums.

Karen Joanne Bennett and Kathryn Ann Bennett, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. They wore white dresses with white hats and carried baskets filled with gold chrysanthemums. Craig Matheny, Applegate, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the rings.

Lighting the candles were Mrs. Robert Deck and Mrs. Gary Mead. Their frocks were of dark gold and their bouquets were in the same shade.

Richard Brown, Hollywood, Calif., was best man.

Brother Attends

Wallace Ludwig, Richmond, Calif., and Ernst Ludwig, Whittier, Calif., brothers of the bridegroom; Donald Day, Portland, Ray Bradshaw and Ralph Bennett seated the guests.

The church was decorated with yellow and gold chrysanthemums.

The reception was held in Fellowship Hall. Mrs. James Snow had charge of the reception. Mrs. Walter Steinke and Mrs. Budd Griffin served the wedding cake, while Mrs. Marshall Sweet, Medford, a sister of the bridegroom and Miss Jean Bolt-

Installation Is Held

ASHLAND — With dedicatory prayer the Rev. B. J. Holland installed officers of the Presbyterian Women's Association at the December meeting. The service in the church sanctuary was followed by luncheon in the fireside room and a Christmas program in the afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Phillips was re-elected president of the association. Others installed were Mrs. Gene Morris, vice president; Mrs. O. L. Wright, secretary; Mrs. Eugene Clark, treasurer, and chairman of the committees.

Christmas carols were sung by a group of children from Walker School under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Cecil and accompanied on the organ by Mrs. J. W. McCoy. The birth of Jesus in prophecy and fulfillment was the afternoon program theme presented by Mrs. Richard Berninghausen, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. Don Nichols, Mrs. C. A. Stothers and Mrs. McCoy.

During a short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Phillips plans were made for an informal coffee hour the following week and announcement was made of the congregational meeting January 12. The regular association meeting next month will be January 9 instead of January 2.

Luncheon hostesses were the Mesdames Ben Christlieb, V. A. Wattell, Clifford Miller, Nichols and Clark.

Lodge Members Entertained At Yule Party

A musical program furnished entertainment for members of the Degree of Honor Lodge at their annual Christmas party held December 9 in Girls Community Club.

A variety of numbers were played by Alexander's Band. St. Mary's Girl Scout Troop 76 sang carols led by Mrs. J. A. Carrara and other selections were sung by Tina Carara; Mary and John Schuchard and Kay Smith. Susie Schuchard and Carl Ann Schuchard played piano numbers.

Members of the committee were Miss Adabee Selier and Mrs. J. W. Stewart. Refreshments were served and boxes of candy were given the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason H. Ludwig

Yule Programs Are Announced

Christmas programs will be given at meetings of two PEO Sisterhood chapters this week.

Chapter CG will meet Wednesday, December 18, at the home of Mrs. G. T. Haupert, 222 Valley View Drive. A gift exchange will be held and Mrs. R. E. Mencke will give the program, "Time for Christmas."

Chapter CP will meet for lunch Wednesday, December 18, at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Reichers, 2447 Hillcrest Road. She will be assisted by Mrs. Allen Smith and Mrs. Donald Gardner.

The Christmas program, "Christmas Jewels" will be given by Mrs. Irving A. Mirick to be followed by a gift exchange.

Dinner To Honor Royal Arch Masons

JACKSONVILLE — Royal Arch Masons and their guests will be honored at a potluck dinner Tuesday, December 17 at 6:30 p.m., in the Jacksonville Masonic Temple, given by Royal Arch Widows of Jacksonville.

The committee is made up of Mrs. Don C. Shore, Mrs. Helen Buffington and Mrs. William Couller.

Mrs. Roy Picard will preside at a business meeting for the women after dinner.

A sudsy cloth or soft brush is best for cleaning chrome.

OUR CHRISTMAS PRESENT TO YOU

Here is a small way in which we would like to say "Merry Christmas" to all our friends and customers. From now until Christmas we will feature a special selection of dresses. For each dress you buy we offer as our gift to you—One Free Dress.

Clara and Doreen

2 FOR THE PRICE OF ONE!

As always, we feature a large selection of the latest fashions with full size ranges. You'll love the Town and Country look. And, there will not be a better time to take advantage of these special prices than now.

P.S. For those who wait for first of the year sales . . . DON'T. This is it.

"Only The Look Is Expensive"

TOWN & COUNTRY SHOP • WHITE CITY, ORE.

In The All New Cascade Shopping Center

So others may eat

Help share our farm abundance with a hungry world. Every $1 to CARE will deliver a Food Crusade package with your friendship from America. Please care . . . Mail as many dollars as you can.

CARE Food Crusade
660 First Ave., New York, N. Y. 10016
or your nearest CARE office

Here is $..... so others may eat.
Name _____
Address _____

LOOK!

Jorgensen's

FIESTA ICE CREAM

for dessert tonight!

What a treat for young folks . . . and old folks, too! Smooth, luscious, grand-tasting FIESTA ICE CREAM in each one's favorite flavor. It's made even better with Jorgensen's exclusive nutrient —NUTRIMIX—added! Holiday-season meals are so much easier to plan with EASY-TO-SERVE FIESTA ICE CREAM solving the dessert problem! Be sure to stock up with plenty of convenient-size, colorful FIESTA ICE CREAM cartons for every emergency—desserts, smacks, party treats! It's an INSTANT TREAT that will make a real hit—INSTANTLY!

TOPS IN TASTE

For Fine Dairy Products, Always Ask for "Jorgensen"