Station Plays Wrong Music for Dancer

BIRMINGHAM, Eng. (UPI)—A British television network apologized today to dancing instructor Harry Cohen for playing the soundtrack of "Jealousy" while he danced "The Royal Empress Tango" on television last week.

The different music — which was substituted when the original soundtrack became mutilated—made it appear that the dancers were out of step, Cohen said.

VANCOUVER, Wash. (UPI) — Arraignment of Mrs. Florence E. Hayes, a Vancouver woman charged with grand larceny for embezzling city water bill receipts was continued for three days Friday.

Clark County Superior Court Judge J. Guthrie Langsdorf disqualified himself because of his acquaintance with the Haynes family.

Charges were filed against Mrs. Haynes last week by Clark County Prosecutor R. Dewitt Jones after State Auditor Cliff Yelle discovered a shortage of $4,450 in her accounts.

A statement in which Mrs. Haynes admitted taking approximately $2,000 was included in Yelle's report.
