Apple Vendor Learns People Will Still Buy

TOPEKA, Kan. (UPI) — Eddie Patrick of Topeka wanted to see if people still buy apples from street corner venders. And boy, do they!

Patrick, who is unemployed, said a well-dressed man bought two apples for 15 cents each and handed him what looked like a $5 bill.

When business slowed, Patrick said he examined the folded money. There were four $50 bills.

CHRISTMAS COD

OSLO, Norway (UPI)—Tradition demands Christmas dinner in Norway begin with rice pudding, followed by "lutefisk" (a dried, treated codfish), then roast leg or side of pork with pickled cabbage. In western and northern Norway, many people subs[illegible]

Railwaymen Object To Christmas Greeting

LANCING, England (UPI)—Railwaymen at the Lancing roundhouse Wednesday angrily ripped up Christmas greetings from British Railway czar Dr. Richard Beeching wishing them a Happy New Year and a "Brighter Future."

The roundhouse is to be closed Jan. 1 and most of the 1,000 men expected to be fired.

TIME (SALES) FLYING

NEW YORK (UPI)—For the second straight year, watches are expected to be the biggest selling Christmas item in the nation's jewelry stores, according to a poll of jewelers by the Bulova Watch Co. Traditionally silver and diamonds outpaced timepieces in Christmas sales.
