Medford Contends At Willamette High

Medford High's Black Tornado cagers played Willamette a couple weeks back. They play Willamette this Friday and Saturday. But, don't get those Willamette's confused.

The Tornado opened the hoop season against the Willamette University jayvees. This week end, in its first road trip of the season, Medford will encounter Willamette High School varsity at Eugene.

The non-loop series will help each club get an idea of how it may fare against a rival in its own league. Medford, of the Southern Oregon Conference and rated No. 2 in the state, has split a series with South Eugene, the top ranked A-1 team and a member of the Midwestern Loop. Willamette, of the Midwestern, has bowed to Ashland, of the Southern.

Has Played Four

Medford has played four games so far this season. Willamette has had just the game with Ashland, so far as can be learned.

Coach Chuck DeAutremont at Willamette has tall men in John Rosso and Lee Merwin, 6-4. Other possible starters are Terry Stahel, Gary Ross and Bill Keithly, all under 6 feet. Stahel was a regular last year and Rosso saw part-time varsity duty.

The Wolverines reportedly are a fairly quick team. DeAutremont has said that, if the tall men rebound and score well, Willamette will have a pretty tough ball club.

This will mark the third successive year of rivalry between Medford and Willamette. The clubs met twice last year and once in 1961. Medford has won all three past contests.

Bertrand Turns Ankle

Medford sophomore Bruce Bertrand sprained his ankle in practice yesterday and his availability is a question mark. Said Coach Frank Roelandt, "I'm not looking forward to him playing much this week end."

The mentor reported Hal Holman still not at full strength but rounding back into shape. Holman turned an ankle in the Linfield JV game and has had sore foot trouble. Roelandt said that the ankle is pretty good but that Holman's feet are still sore. The player was in uniform last week end but did not play against South Eugene.

Larry Stockman, who missed the South Eugene action because of flu, still has a cough, according to the coach, but is feeling much better.

Alertness Pays Off

Roelandt this week has worked Tornado offense against zone defense and has worked with different combinations in order that players can get used to each other's moves on offense.

Roelandt in reviewing the Eugene series said that mental alertness was the big difference in fashioning the Medford win on Saturday after Friday loss. He pointed out that the Tornadoes were a little more alert and quicker on Saturday and that the Axemen were that way on Friday.

"All five were 'with it' Saturday night," Roelandt also commented. "And our board strength was so much better." The coach also was "real pleased with a lot of individual good moves."

TORNADO WRESTLER — This is Rusty Smith, Medford High 123-pound grappler who will be in action at Grants Pass this evening. A mix-up in identifying photos resulted in a wrong picture being used for Smith yesterday. The grappler shown was Jim Jones who is some 60 pounds heavier than Smith.

Black Tornado Matmen Tussle at Grants Pass

Medford High wrestling varsity, traveling for the first time this season, anticipates some rugged rivalry tonight.

The Tornadoes vie at Grants Pass.

Medford's No. 2 men are making the trip, along with the No. 1s, and will wrestle in preliminaries beginning at 6:30 p.m. Regular matches will open about 8 p.m.

"They'll be tough like they always are," said Medford Coach Ralph Monroe concerning the Cavemen. He mentioned that some wrestlers with GP last season did not turn out for this year but the Cavemen still look tough.

Light Weights Strong

Grants Pass is reported strong in the lighter weights where they have Mickey Furlong, 98-pound state champ in 1963, who is wrestling this year at 106. Craig Kingman will have the task for Medford of facing Furlong.

Mike Miller is slated to contend at 130 pounds for Medford. Mike Orr, who has more experience, has been ill. Sickness also may sideline George McNair and Fred Graten could go for Medford at 148.

Medford jayvees won from Eagle Point 40-15 on Tuesday.

Steele Given Beaver Post

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — Dave Steele, 33, will take over as general manager of the Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League next Jan. 2.

Steele, business manager of Fresno of the California League for the past four seasons, was named Tuesday to replace Hub Kittle.

The 46-year-old Kittle resigned to become field manager of the Yakima, Wash., Bears of the Northwest League for the Milwaukee Braves.

Comets To Battle Lebanon Warriors

CENTRAL POINT — Third annual series between the Lebanon Warriors and the Crater High Comets is slated this week.

The Comets of Central Point go to Lebanon for the Friday and Saturday night games.

These contests will be the fifth and sixth between the two schools. Crater has won all four of the previous tangles. Coach Lloyd Hoffine takes a Fireball crew to Lebanon for the second time. The Warriors are under the helm of a new coach, Terry Ziegelman.

Crater and Lebanon each are 2-1 in their pre-league campaigns.

Four Warrior lettermen are back from the squad Crater encountered last season. They are Steve Simpson, 6-1, and Jerry Joslin, 5-9, who'll likely start against Crater, Mike Grieve, 6 feet, and Roger Clark, 6-1.

Other probable starters are Dan Standley and Joe Briskey, each 6-3, and Del Spiker, 5-8, and Darryl Abbott, 5-9, at guards with Joslin and Spiker.

Depends on Rebounding

Tom Mechals, 6-1, is another player figuring in Ziegelman's plans.

Lebanon has defeated Sweet Home 65-46, West Linn 63-60 and lost to Tillamook 63-50. In addition the warriors, in two halves played in a jamboree, outscored Sweet Home and Corvallis.

Ziegelman feels that the success of his club will depend on how the rebounding strength develops. It has been off and on so far but Ziegelman feels it will get stronger.

Lebanon contends in the Valley League and Crater in the Southern Oregon circuit.

Crater has won from Eagle Point 71-44 and Fortuna, Calif., 58-54 and lost to Cottage Grove 49-46.

Coach Lloyd Hoffine's efforts in Crater High drills have been aimed at "trying to get a little spark in the ball club." He said that spark seemed to be lacking in both of the Comets' contests last weekend. The Fireballs, however, have not worked real hard, he said. He reported his squad "all healthy."

Tom Nichols with 20 and Cincy Powell with 17 led the Portland Scoring. Don Murray, Roy Sipp and Rich Rollins each had 10 for the visitors.

Rich Whelan Named Starter

CORVALLIS (UPI) —Coach Slats Gill of Oregon State indicated today he would have sophomore guard Rich Whelan in the starting lineup when the Beavers play Indiana in a two-game basketball series this weekend.

Whelan impressed last weekend with deadly shooting against California. He will team with Jim Jarvis at guard with Frank Peters moving to forward. Scott Eaton and Mel Counts round out the starting five.

OSU meets Indiana here Friday night and in Portland Saturday night.

Ring Challenger Recognition Asked

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — John J. (Harp) Vaughan suggested today to fellow members of the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission that it ask the World Boxing Association (WBA) to recognize the winner of Friday's Emile Griffith-Hurricane Carter fight here as challenger for the middleweight crown.

Griffith of New York already is world welterweight (147-pound) champion and Carter of Paterson, N. J., is the WBA's top contender for the middleweight (160-pound) title.

"I am making this suggestion," said Vaughan, former quarterback of the Pittsburgh Steelers, "because middleweight champion Joey Giardello declared this week that he wants a return title fight with Dick Tiger in spite of the fact that return title bouts are banned by the WBA."

Crater Wrestlers Whip Roseburg High

CENTRAL POINT — With the big men taking their cues from the small men, Crater High wrestlers recorded their second victory of the season over Roseburg's Indians here last night.

And, the second win was more decisive than the first. Last night's score was 36-16. The Comets won the earlier engagement 27-12.

Crater last night won eight of the 13 regular matches and drew in another. Butch Bray, Don Anderson, Sherm Simmons, John McNichols and Don Ehrheart scored pins for the Comets and Steve Weige, Steve Jorde and Frank Armstrong gained decisions.

Mike Reiche tallied a fall and Wayne Grey, Pat Doyle and Ron Begley got decisions for the Indians.

Small Men Please

Coach Jim Tacchini of Crater was particularly pleased with the results from the small men. Tom Campbell, 98, out for just three days, did good work although he lost. Bray, 106, chalked up his first win. He had been badly beaten by Roseburg's Don Langeberg in the first match. Anderson, 115, and Weige, 123, did fine jobs, Tacchini reported.

The four, he said deserve the applause for their effort. "I hope this set a precedent," Tacchini remarked, pointing to the morale boost a team gets from winning its first bouts on a card.

Roseburg piled up a 39-12 margin in matches among second men.

Baylor Pro Offense Problem for LSU

HOUSTON (UPI) — Louisiana State's biggest problem in Saturday's Bluebonnet Bowl game against Baylor will be stopping an offense that many coaches say "can't possibly work in college football."

At least they were saying this until Coach John Bridgers' Bears won seven of 10 games this season against topflight competition and came within a hair of beating the nation's number one team, Texas.

Bridgers did it with a pro-style offense that has quarterback Don Trull passing out of protective pocket, flankers scurrying hither and yon and a genuine two-platoon system.

LSU, with an identical 7-3 record, is expected to play a ball control and defensive game against the pass-happy Bears. Baylor is a two-point favorite.

Winnemucca To Sea Hoop Opener Bills Lakeview Against Eagle Pointers

One team from each end and two from in the middle will contend Friday and Saturday in the Winnemucca-to-the-Sea basketball tournament at Lakeview.

Brookings from the Oregon coast and Winnemucca from inland Nevada will be adversaries in the Friday opener. Eagle Point and Lakeview, members of the Rogue League, clash in the second game. Friday's losers tussle in the Saturday first game with the opening night winners opponents in the tourney concluder.

Eagle Point will aim for its first win of the season. The Eagles, who have dropped four contests, have worked this week at developing more scoring punch, especially from the guard positions. Coach Dale Bates has had his charges do a lot of outside shooting and the Eagles have drilled at new offensive patterns.

Glasgow Up

Yesterday the Eagles worked the ball against various types of zone defense and were to do the same today.

Bates has brought Russell Glasgow up from the junior varsity with the hope that the move will give the Eagles better outside shooting and improved ball handling. He's certain to see duty in the two-night tourney.

Unless illness dictates otherwise Bates plans to start George Adams and Lonnie Mesloh in the pivot spots, Frank Charley and Bill Ayres at forwards and Richard Wilson at guard, with Bob Colpitts likely to see quite a bit of duty.

Colpitts, however, missed Monday and Tuesday workouts because of flu and Bob Corliss was absent on Monday. Ayres and Mesloh have been nursing colds.

Bates said that the Eagles would like to bring back at least one win this week end. He stated that the EP cagers have made a lot of mistakes which have proved costly. But, he said that the Eagles still have a lot of spirit and are working hard and, with a little luck, may fool somebody.

Lakeview Splits

The Eagle Pointers particularly would like to face Brookings on Saturday night. Brookings downed EP 52-47 last week end in the coast town.

Lakeview, host team and Eagle Point's opening adversary, has had just two games so far. The Honkers split with Burns, winning 38-34 after losing 44-33.

Honker lettermen back are Dennis Warren, 6-5, Vernon Plato and Jeff Sullivan. Con Fitzgerald and Bill Duke saw some varsity play but did not letter. Larry Samples, a letterman, transferred to Douglas High.

Coach Ted McKee has said that the Honkers have good height and good speed but don't have enough experience at the forwards. Sullivan, 6 feet, Fitzgerald, 6-3, and Duke, 6-1, figure to see duty at those spots.

Others on the varsity are Greg Leavitt and Cletus Huddleston, Stevens, Darwin Harris, John up from the junior varsity.

St. Mary's Hosts St. Francis Team

A non-league battle of parochial schools is billed in Medford this Friday and Saturday nights.

St. Mary's of Medford will take on the St. Francis of Eugene basketball team at 8 p.m.

Games will be at the SM gymnasium at Holly and 11th Sts. Butte Falls varsity will meet the St. Mary's jayvees in the Friday preliminary.

The series will mark the second and third games of the season for the Crusaders of Medford. SM beat Riddle 72-60 two weeks ago.

St. Mary's drills this week have been on offensive patterns which did not look good in the Riddle mix. The Crusaders went a lot on defense last week. Work included rebounding and fundamentals.

Roberts Back

Coach Dick Paup reported Ron Roberts back with the squad after being sidelined by an ankle sprain. He said that Roberts may not start against the Saints but likely will see a lot of action.

Mike Soran is coming along well in practices and could start this week end.

Paup reported practices going well with better teamwork shown. There's a lot of hustle and spirit is good, he said.

The St. Mary's - St. Francis bill of fare will provide Medford with its basketball bill-of-fare while Medford High is out of town.

Luis Aparacio Heads Fielding

BOSTON (UPI) — Baltimore Orioles shortstop Luis Aparicio led the American League's shortstops in fielding for the fifth straight time in 1963 but it took a record performance to beat out the man for whom he was traded last winter.

The 29-year-old Aparicio won defensive honors with a .9826 percentage that erased the mark of .9823 held by Lou Boudreau and just did nip Chicago White Sox shortstop Ron Hansen's .9825 percentage. Aparicio and Hansen switched uniforms last January in a six-player deal between the Orioles and White Sox.

Jim Gentile and Brooks Robinson of the Orioles led the first basemen and third basemen, respectively, with .9953 and .976 percentages to give Baltimore three of the seven individual leaders.

Gus Triandos of the Detroit Tigers led the catchers with a .998 mark, Nelson Fox of the White Sox topped the second basemen with .9877, Jim Landis of the White Sox led the outfielders with .993 and Bill Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox handled 68 chances to rank No. 1 among 41 pitchers who went through the season without committing an error.

Dial Traded For Appleton

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Buddy Parker feels defense cost the Pittsburgh Steelers the National Football League's Eastern Division crown this year and he has taken a calculated risk intended to put his club in the winner's circle next season.

Parker dealt Buddy Dial, the Steelers' star pass catcher, to the Dallas Cowboys Wednesday in exchange for rights to the Cowboys' No. 1 draft choice — All-America tackle Scott Appleton of the University of Texas.

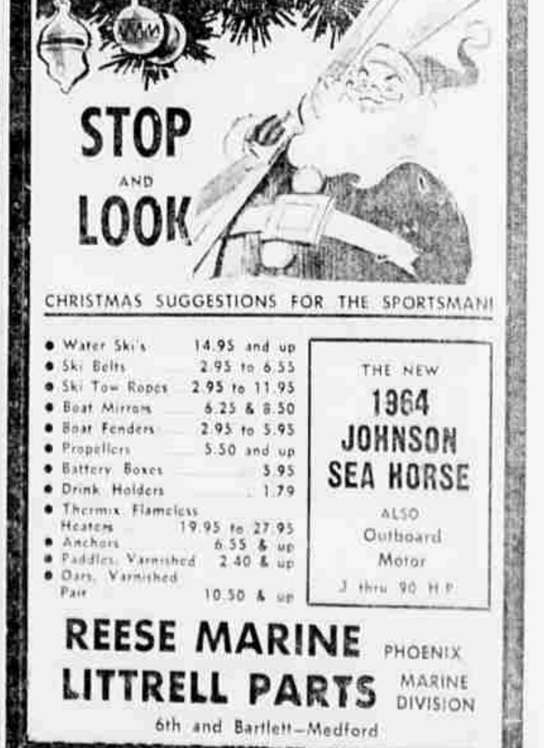
Dial, who spent all of his five years in the NFL with the Steelers, holds club records for most touchdown passes caught in a season (12), most yardage gained in a season (1,295), longest touchdown pass (88 yards) and most yards gained in one game (235).

"He's a fine receiver," Parker said of Dial, "but we need defensive strength. We've got to build our defense up if we're going to stay in contention next year. If we had a stronger line we might have made it this year."

Owens Shakes Up Backfield

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI) —Coach Jim Owens shook up the University of Washington backfield Wednesday with the exception of quarterback Bill Douglas after three days of practice for the Rose Bowl.

Owens demoted halfbacks Dave Kopay and Ron Medved and fullback Junior Coffey from the first team, replacing them with halfbacks Dick Wetterauer and Steve Bramwell and fullback Charles Browning.

"They've just done a better job at practice," Owens said in explaining the elevation of the new trio to the first string, signified by purple practice jackets.


Even Douglas was under pressure as Bill Siler, who had missed almost the entire season with hepatitis, moved up from the third to second string.
