Oregon State Beats Indiana Five 70-57

CORVALLIS (UPI) —Magnificent Mel Counts poured in 42 points and collected 24 rebounds to lead Oregon State's Beavers to a 70-57 basketball victory over the Indiana Hoosiers Friday night.

The 7-foot Counts scored 16 points in the first half and added 26 in the second half to break Oregon State's modern school scoring record. He hit 11 of 24 field goal attempts and made 20 of 25 free throw attempts.

The previous modern record was 38 set by Counts against Washington State this season and Red Rocha against Idaho in 1947. The school mark is 47 set by Nollie Reed against the Winlock Athletic Club in 1907.

The decision left the Beavers with a 6-1 record and the Hoosiers with a 4-3 mark this season.

Oregon State, behind 31-30 at halftime, broke the game open with eight straight points to run up a 46-37 lead with 15 minutes remaining.

The Beavers were ahead 30-23 with three minutes left in the first half but the Hoosiers reeled off eight straight points to take their halftime lead.

The only other player for Oregon State in double figures was Frank Peters, who scored 16. For Indiana, Tom and Dick Van Arsdale had 16 and 13 points, respectively, and Larry Cooper added 11.

The Beavers made 22 of 56 field goal attempts for a .393 percentage and the Hoosiers hit 18 of 53 shots from the floor for a .339. The winners held a 44-40 edge in rebounds.

Oakland Confident

By United Press International

Jumping from pushover to serious contender in one season makes anything seem possible — so the Oakland Raiders are confident they can tie San Diego for the first place in the Western Division of the American Football League today.

The Raiders, in second place with a 9-4 record, meet the Houston Oilers in Oakland and they must win. At the same time, San Diego (10-3) will be meeting Denver and if the Chargers win or tie, they will clinch the Western title. New York plays at Kansas City in the other AFL game.

UCLA Belts Baylor Cage Crew 112-61

By United Press International

Something had to give when unbeaten powerhouses UCLA and Creighton collided in Long Beach last night.

The Bruins warmed up for their big battle by swamping Baylor, 112-61, to lead West Coast cage powers to their biggest night of triumph in the young season.

Stanford and Oregon State, considered the West's best along with the Bruins, also won and California, Southern California and Washington State made it a West Coast night Friday by thumping intersectional foes.

The fast-breaking UCLA team rolled up 41 points in the opening 11 minutes of play and then coasted home. Walt Hazzard and Gail Goodrich played less than half the contest but still hit 23 and 22 points respectively.

Creighton's Ninth Straight

The tall Creighton quintet dumped Long Beach State, 99-93, for their ninth straight win. Paul Silas, slowed by a knee injury, scored 23 points and grabbed 20 rebounds. Long Beach State faces Baylor Saturday night.

Unbeaten Stanford seemed a bit rusty after a two-week layoff, but still outlasted San Jose State, 56-50. Tom Dose hooped 18 before fouling out to move into third place among all time Stanford scorers. He has meshed 1,023 points.

Oregon State looked especially powerful in belting Big 10 strongboy, Indiana, 70-57.

PORTLAND (UPI) —Michelle Kay Morrison, 20-year-old Oregon State University education major, has been named queen of the 1963 Far West Basketball Classic here Dec. 26-30.

The selection was made by the Portland Linebackers, an athletics booster group.

Miss Morrison, of Ione, was one of eight queen candidates from schools participating in the tourney.

LOST FOR SEASON

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI) — Senior guard George Shary, just 57 points short of the school scoring record at the University of Tampa, has played his last collegiate basketball game.

The 5-10 Little All-America candidate broke both bones in his left arm and dislocated several bones in his left hand during a game against Tennessee Wesleyan last week and will be lost for the rest of the season.

BATZER TALLIES FOR SM — John Batzer (32), who drove in after a jump ball, scores for St. Mary's in second quarter of basketball game here Saturday night with St. Francis High of Eugene. St. Francis led at this time 22-20 but the Crusaders of Medford surged in the second half and were 87-81 winners. SF players shown are Scott Taylor (14), Pete Schmitz (below Batzer) and Allen Herold (32). At right is St. Mary's Dennis Rose (44).

St. Mary's Sizzles To Top St. Francis

St. Mary's High's Crusaders, sizzling in the third quarter and early fourth, blazed over St. Francis of Eugene 87-81 in a parochial school basketball conflict here Friday night.

The Crusaders, pulling together in an aggressive, pressing ball-hawking effort, erased a seven - point midway deficit and charged to a 23-point lead before Coach Dick Paup sent reserves into the battle.

Tide was turned by a 31-point St. Mary's output in the third quarter. In the meantime, the Saints of Eugene were getting 15.

Mike Soran got nine points, John Batzer seven and Randy Corliss also seven in the big quarter. St. Francis had 20-17 and 39-32 half and quarter differences. At the end of three cantos it was 63-54 for the Medford aggregation.

Corliss Has 27

In the first three minutes of the fourth panel, St. Mary's ran up another 14 points, with Corliss getting seven, while the Saints failed to tally. That made the score 77-54.

Corliss led all scorers with 27 counter. Batzer had 19 and Soran 15. Lyal Thomas, who spirited the late surge for St. Francis to narrow down the score, totaled 14 points. Mike Kehoe tabulated 13 for the Saints and George May 11.

The Crusaders with the second half aggressiveness, had 38-26 margin in rebounding with Corliss clearing the boards 15 times during the game. Soran had eight rebounds for the SM club and Kehoe six for St. Francis.

St. Mary's took the starting lead in the skirmish. St. Francis caught up at 7-all. The lead then switched five times and was tied once more in the quarter. The Saints kept the upperhand through the second quarter.

Crusaders Go Ahead

In the third period, the Saints got a free toss by Kehoe for 40-32. Then Batzer and Soran hit long pushers, and Batzer scored on a driver and fast break for SM while Larry Welch put in a gifter for the Saints. It was 41-40. Another Welch free shot and a tipin by Kehoe made it 44-40.

Dennis Rose sank a foul toss, Ron Roberts goaled on a swipe and drive and Mike Soran potted a rebound for 45-44 St. Mary's. Kehoe hooked from the side for 46-45 St. Francis. The Soran hit from the side on a feed by Corliss for 47-46 and the Crusaders were ahead to stay.

Corliss collected three field goals and a free heave in the next three minutes to help SM pull away.

Ted Scott on a Roberts' pass, Soran on a fast break and Corliss on a long push got the Medford club off on its early fourth period spurt. Thomas got 10 points and Dan O'Neil and Larry Matson each six as the Saints rallied to narrow the SM advantage.

East-West Shrine Tilt Sold Out

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Officials of the Shrine East-West game report that all 60,000 seats in Kezar Stadium have been sold out for the Dec. 28 renewal of the football classic.

Meanwhile, East and West Friday opened their drills at Santa Clara and Stanford respectively.

East head coach Jack Mollenkopf installed his offense and then expressed pleasure at the passing of Purdue's Ron DiGravio and Penn State's Pete Liske.

Likes Receiving

Mollenkopf, who coached DiGravio at Purdue, also said he liked the receiving turned in by Notre Dame's Jim Kelly, Ohio State's Paul Warfield, and Paul Martha of Pittsburgh.

Coach Jim Sutherland of the West was still trying to pick from among quarterbacks Bill Munson, Pete Beathard, and Don Trull for his starter. Trull was not in camp yet, since he was to lead Baylor in today's Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston.

USC's Beathard was ticketed for defensive duty, but looked sharp passing in drills Friday and still might do some pitching in the Shrine battle.

Owens said Friday he was pleased with the way the Huskies were shaping up since they arrived here Monday.

"They are all working real hard and showing a lot of improvement," he said.

He gave special praise to linemen Koll Hagen and Mike Briggs. "They have been doing real well," he said.

The Huskies faced the prospect of not having alternate first string end Don Safford available for the game when the team physician reported Friday his twisted knee could turn out to be a serious injury.

The Huskies will take a day off today, and return to the practice field Monday for one session.

Tornadoes Rally To Subdue Willamette Quintet 79-68

EUGENE — Medford High picked up momentum in the second quarter here Friday night and, wiping out the effects of a bad first canto, went on to overcome Willamette high 79-68 in non-league basketball.

Willamette headed 22-12 after one period. By halftime the score was knotted at 36-all and at the end of three stanzas it was 57-49 with Medford leading.

Willamette outhustled the Black Tornado in the first session. The Medfords' poor defense and cold shooting was taken advantage of by the Wolverines. Then, the Whirlwinds "tightened their belts and worked a little harder." And, this got results.

Knight Sparks

The Medford aggregation caught momentum with the entry of Rich Knight into the hassle. Defense started doing better, the club started breaking better and the Tornadoes were more efficient on the backboards and used better judgment on their shots.

The Southern Oregon crew managed just a .200 average from the field on four goals in 20 tries in the initial quarter. It fired at a .500 rate over the rest of the route, getting a good number of buckets on fast breaks.

Good rebounding by three players and double figure scoring by four men figured in the triumph. Mike Barnes had 20 points, Larry Vowell 18, Steve Davis 17, and Bill Enyart 11. Enyart retrieved 19 rebounds, Davis 13 and Barnes eight.

Stahel Has 24

Terry Stahel of Willamette was high scorer with 24 points. John Rossow had 11. Rebounding and shooting statistics were not available on Willamette.

Willamette had a margin of 12 points at one stage of the first half. Medford caught the Wolverines at 30-all. In the third quarter the Tornado went ahead to stay at 48-47 and then moved to 57-47.

Vowell hit six of seven free shots for Medford and Enyart five of six. Medford shot 29 of 70 or .414 from the field.

Victory was the second for Medford in five games. The outcome left Willamette 0-2.
