Many Guests Attend Rites

PROSPECT—Miss Helen Lucille Jantzer became the bride of Kenneth Lee Ashley in one of the valley's larger pre-holiday weddings. The rites were read in the Medford Seventh-day Adventist Church December 15 at 8 o'clock in the evening. Elder Lyle Cornfort, Mil o, Ore., officiated for the ceremony witnessed by some 200 guests.

The bride is a foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Burrill, Prospect and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ashley, Route 1, Box 35, Mt. Angel, Ore.

Given in marriage by her foster parents, the bride wore a peau de taffeta gown with basque bodice, long sleeves and portrait neckline overlaid in Alencon lace re-embroidered in pearls and iridescent sequins. The controlled bell skirt was accented with lace medallions and accented with a detachable chapel train which was attached to a looped bustle at the waistline. Her veil of English illusion was arranged from an open pillbox crown of Alencon lace with a full-blown lace fleurette trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of red and white rosebuds.

Sister Is Matron Mrs. Dennis Bjelland, Kernville, Ore., was matron of honor for her sister and Mrs. James Heath, Medford, was bridesmatron. Bridesmaids were the Misses Mary Ann Hubbard, Penny Caldwell, Fairbanks, Alaska, and Sandi Burrill, a sister of the bride.

Patty Tribett, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Lyle Follett, Elgin, another cousin, was Bible boy.

Lighting the candles were Gina and Kevin Burrill, sister and brother of the bride.

The bride's attendants wore gowns in identical style made of red satin with princess bodices and flared skirts with smooth fronts over panels and controlled back fullness. Their miniature open pillbox hats were of white fur with float veils, and they carried white fur muffs with holly and red carnations. Their slippers matched their gowns.

The flower girl's frock was of white nylon embroidered in red. Her red hat was trimmed with white fur and she carried a muff with white carnations and holly.

The candlelighter's dress matched those worn by the attendants and she wore a small pillbox hat with veil and white gloves.

Norman Lee, Salem, was best man and ushers were Michael Burrill, a brother of the bride, Fidel Gairollo and William Hartman, both Salem, and Don Green, Roseburg.

Greenery in Church White chrysanthemums and holiday greenery decorated the church and white bows marked the pews.

Mrs. Clifford Fellows was organist. Soloists were Alvy Bowman and Mrs. David Gardner.

The reception, given by Mr. and Mrs. Burrill, was held at North's Restaurant. Decorations were in the holiday theme. Mrs. J. Culp, Scotts Mills, a sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Archie McKillop and Mrs. J. Gallagher cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Everett Shafer, Prospect and Mrs. Norman Jantzer, Prospect, a sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Janet Bean, Medford, were in charge of pouring coffee and punch.

Mrs. Lorene Reid and Mrs. Forrest Biggers, both Medford, and Mrs. Bowman were in charge of the reception. Background music was furnished by Mrs. Joe Hoyt, and registering the guests was Miss June Brack.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Burrill wore a lime green suit trimmed with fur and matching fur hat with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a blue-gray silk frock with jacket and black accessories. Both had bronze baby orchids.

Many Guests Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Georgia Jantzer, the bride's mother, Miss Fay Jantzer, a sister and Gordon Jantzer a brother, all from Amity.

Others from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Swanberg, Woodland, Wash.; Mrs. Esther Hansen, Battle Ground, Wash.
