CAVE JUNCTION—Miss Pamela Sue Holzhauser, daughter of Mrs. Jane Ann Holzhauser, became the bride of Donald Robert Johnson, Cave Junction, in a ceremony held December 14 at the Cave Junction Community Church. The Rev. Gene Denning officiated at the double ring ceremony held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Arthur W. Bolinger, Grants Pass, the bride wore a floor length white satin gown with hoop skirt, three-quarter length sleeves, and fitted bodice. Her veil was held by pearl tiara, and she carried a bouquet of white baby orchids. Her single strand of pearls was a gift from the bridegroom and she carried a blue lace heirloom handkerchief belonging to her grandmother.

Sister Is Attendant
Miss Judy Holzhauser was maid of honor for her sister, and bridesmaids were Miss Linda Versteeg and Miss Linda Wells, niece of the bride. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Sara Versteeg and Miss Susie Wells, another niece. They wore avocado green frocks in afternoon length with short sleeves and short white veils. Their head-dresses and bouquets were red and white carnations.

They are all aunts of the bride. Mrs. Larry Preston was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Dale Brown and Mrs. Ole Nassen were at the gift table.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Holzhauser, Harbor, Ore., grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Florence Strong, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Crescent City, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mooney, Grants Pass, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bolinger and children, Medford, uncle, aunt and cousin of the bride.

Anthuriums Produce Rewarding Blossoms
Any house plant display could benefit by the addition of one or more members of the exotic-flowering anthurium family. They like warm temperatures and a humid atmosphere, which can be maintained by double-potting them in clay pots, plunged into jardinières and planters lined with sphagnum and peat moss, or by keeping them on trays paved with pebbles.

The dramatic anthuriums produce rich and rewarding blossoms of many hues ranging from red and orange to pink and rose.
