

South Tops North; Baylor, Miss. St. Win in Bowl Action

By JOE GERGEN
UPI Sports Writer

George Mira of Miami (Fla.) walked off with a "hometown" decision over Boston College's Jack Concannon, but a rematch has been arranged for a neutral site next year.

Mira and Concannon, two of college football's most glamorous quarterbacks, hooked up in a tremendous passing exhibition Saturday in Miami's North-South All-Star Game. Mira was declared the unofficial winner on the basis of the South's 23-14 victory—but the two are due for another meeting in the Senior Bowl at Mobile, Ala., on Jan. 4.

Don Trull, statistically the top passer in the nation for the past two seasons, also staged a spectacular aerial display to lead Baylor to a 14-7 victory over

Louisiana State in the Bluebonnet Bowl at Houston.

But the only passing done at Philadelphia's frigid Liberty Bowl was by the fans, who passed up Mississippi State's 16-12 victory over North Carolina State in record numbers.

Both Have Signed

Both Mira and Concannon, who already have signed with the San Francisco Forty Niners and the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League, respectively, turned in thoroughly professional performances in the North-South contest.

Mira, playing before a hometown crowd of 19,120 at the Orange Bowl, connected on 27 of 42 passes for 359 yards and two touchdowns to steer the South from a 1-0 deficit. The 14 Northern points were the work of Concannon, who scored one TD and passed for the other while accumulating a total of 327 yards.

All the North's scoring was crammed into the first period. Concannon drove the Yankees 72 yards to the Rebels' eight late in the opening session. But on a third-down situation, Coach Bump Elliott replaced Concannon with George Bork of Northern Illinois, and the threat died.

Trull shredded the LSU pass defense for 26 completions during the day, but the Bears didn't reach the end zone until the fourth quarter. Trull passed seven yards to end Jim Ingram to tie the game at 7-7, then hit Ingram with another TD toss for 13 yards and the victory.

Took Early Lead

Louisiana State had taken an early 7-0 lead in the opening period on Buddy Soelker's eighth scoring dash, but the crowd of 50,000 saw Trull easily erase the Bluebonnet passing records in the process of erasing the Tigers' lead.

The Liberty Bowl was played in 22-degree weather and attracted a sparse gathering of 8,300—a crowd which barely filled the concession stands in vast Municipal Stadium, which accommodates 102,000 people every year for the Army-Navy game.

Mississippi State did all its scoring in the first half. Tommy Inman picked up a blocked Wolfpack punt and raced 11 yards for the first touchdown. The Bulldogs then capitalized on a short North Carolina State quick kick and drove 47 yards with quarterback Sonny Fisher scoring from the three.

Justin Canale's 43-yard field goal closed out the Bulldog scoring before the Wolfpack could make the score. Jim Rossi ran for one touchdown and passed five yards to Ray Barlow in a vain North Carolina State comeback attempt.

Phoenix outscored the Vikings but did not dominate the boards. The margin was 39-35. Even scoring again helped Phoenix and Durham's bench strength enabled him to rest his starters and keep them out of danger from fouls.

The Pirates hit 14 of 42 shots from the field for 333 and Myrtle Creek 15 of 57 for 263.

Myrtle Creek won the jayvee game 47-31 with 12-10, 22-12 and 26-23 quarter leads. Dan Billings had 10 points for the Vikings and Lloyd Campbell nine for Phoenix.

Beavers Complete Sweep of Indiana With 56-52 Win

PORTLAND (UPI)—Oregon State is ready to defend its Far West Classic basketball title.

The Beavers, who have won every tournament since it was started in 1953, completed a two-game sweep over Indiana with a 56-52 victory before 9,123 here Saturday night.

The sweep left Oregon State with a 7-1 record for the season and established it as the favorite for the eighth annual Classic, which begins at Portland Thursday night and runs through Monday night.

Seven-foot Mel Counts scored 21 points and collected 12 rebounds to lead the Beavers to their second triumph over Indiana.

The Classic opens Thursday and runs through next Monday with a day off Sunday.

Opening night games sent Oregon State against Louisiana State and Iowa against Colorado State. On Friday night Oregon meets Washington State and Seattle University clashes with Brigham Young.

Jim Jarvis scored 15 points and Frank Peters tallied 13 for the Beavers.

Dick Van Arsdale had 16 for Indiana, which now has a 4-4 record.

The Hoosiers held a 24-20 halftime lead and were in front 28-23 early in the second half. The Beavers went ahead to stay at 30-29 on a three-point play by Counts with 15:55 left.

PHOENIX OVERCOMES VIKS IN OVERTIME

Phoenix headed most of the way. The Viks got the opening bucket but the Pirates forged on top soon afterward and stayed there until a jumper by Jerry Wilson gave Myrtle Creek 34-33 edge with 3:10 left in the game.

Jon Granby tied the mix at the free line and a Sauer layin made it 36-34 for Phoenix. Tony Quinn's jumper with two minutes left sent the game into extra.

Phoenix 10-point leads were 24-14 and 31-21. Five Wilson free tosses and his jumper, a bucket by Pringle and two by Fuller enabled the Viks to wipe out this last deficit. In the meantime, the Bucs had picked up just two free points by Ken Hawkins.

Pirate tallies were distributed among eight players and Sauer was high with 10. Fuller had 16, Wilson 11 and Pringle 10 for Myrtle Creek.

Two New Boats Join Hydroplane Circuit

DETROIT (UPI) — At least two new boats have joined the unlimited hydroplane circuit.

Famed boat builder Les Staudacher this week sold a new Notre Dame to Mrs. Shirley Medelson McDonald of Detroit and earlier announced that he is building a new craft for Bill Harrah of Reno, Nev., to be christened Tahoe Miss.

Notre Dame will be powered by a Rolls Royce engine. The old Notre Dame scored well in the past two years for Mrs. McDonald, but was badly damaged by fire earlier this month while undergoing a test run on Lake Washington.

The damaged Notre Dame will be returned to Staudacher's shop at Kawkawlin, Mich., for repairs and will be converted to a two-seat pleasure boat.

Tahoe Miss, the third in line to bear that name, will be tested on the Detroit River in April before its first race at Guntersville, Ala., June 21. At 32 feet, it will be one of the longest boats in unlimited racing.

Giardello Says 'No' To Return Bout With Tiger

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (UPI)—Ex-champion Dick Tiger is "out" as challenger for Joey Giardello's middleweight crown and Rubin (Hurricane) Carter is confidently offering $100,000 to get the title shot.

Obeying the World Boxing Association (WBA), champion Giardello of Cherry Hill today announced the abandonment of plans for a return title fight with Tiger of Nigeria, from whom Joey won the 160-pound crown at Atlantic City, Dec. 7.

At the same time, Joey smacked his lips over a $100,000 guarantee for a defense against top contender Carter of Paterson, N.J., who blasted out a sensational first-round knockout over world welterweight (147 pound) champion Emile Griffith at Pittsburgh Friday night.

Michigan Bumps Duke

By United Press International

Basketball is no longer a sometime thing at the University of Michigan and may even become the only thing if the Wolverines make a successful invasion of the West Coast later this week.

As recently as two years ago basketball was of minor importance on the UM campus in respect to football and the team did little to enhance its appeal.

The situation is changing rapidly, however, and Michigan can solidify its position as one of the nation's top basketball powers when it takes on some of the best in the Los Angeles Classic starting Dec. 26. The Wolverines' first-round opponent will be seventh-ranked UCLA.

Michigan, rated No. 2 in the last ratings of the United Press International board of coaches, gave itself a big boost by overpowering fourth-ranked Duke 83-67 at Ann Arbor last Saturday. It was the sixth straight success without defeat for the sophomore-dominated Wolverines.

Kentucky is another school with a lot to be grateful for at this time of year. The third-ranked Wildcats, coming off their worst season in the 35-year reign of Coach Adolph Rupp, also boosted their record to 6-0 Saturday by trouncing Wake Forest 96-75 in the final round of the University of Kentucky Invitational.

Brookings Wins Over Eagle Point

EAGLE POINT — "I think we're going to come."

So remarked Coach Dale Bates yesterday concerning his Eagle Point High School basketball squad.

The Eagles lost both of their games in the Winnemucca-To-The-Sea Tournament at Lakeview during the week end, leaving them with an 0-6 record. Just the same, there were indications of brighter days ahead. EP turned in two good quarters on Friday night and played fine ball the first three on Saturday.

"It's the best we've done so far," Bates declared. "We'll have to iron out a few things then. I think, we'll be right in there."

Brookings beat the Eagles 52-43 in the Saturday consolation game after Lakeview had won 51-39 from Eagle Point on Friday.

Winnemucca Champ

Winnemucca, Nev., took the tourney trophy with a 46-41 Saturday victory over Lakeview. On Friday the Nevada team beat Brookings 53-50.

Named to the tourney all-star team were Lonnie Mesloh, Eagle Point; Dennis Warren, Lakeview; Bob McNeely, Brookings; and Gene Lauricira and Jim Robinson, Winnemucca.

Eagle Point had 16-13, 31-22 and 40-32 quarterly spans on Brookings on Saturday. In the final quarter, the Bruins capitalized on a couple of EP ball-handling miscues for layins. That gave the Oregon coast team momentum toward a 20-point effort. Brookings out-hustled the Eagles, got a few rebounds and picked up in its shooting.

Eagle Point began forcing its play and could not run its patterns effectively. And, EP shooting cooled.

The Eagles hit only four of 22 from the field in the last half for 181 average and made only one field bucket in the last quarter. Brookings put in 13 of 29 for 448 in the last two periods.

Darr Wins Slalom Title

GOVERNMENT CAMP (UPI)—Joe Darr of Government Camp won the class A men's division of the 25th annual Arnold Lamm Slalom at Multnomah Hill Sunday with a time of 52.8 seconds in a 60-gate slalom race.

Darr was skiing for Cascade Ski Club.

His brother, Peter, had the day's fastest clocking in 51.6 and took first place in the junior expert men's division.

Paul Flatley Named NFL's Rookie-of-Year

NEW YORK (UPI) — Paul Flatley of the Minnesota Vikings, who was only the 44th college selected in the National Football League draft one year ago, has been named the 1963 NFL rookie-of-the-year by the United Press International.

The spring-legged, 22-year-old former Northwestern star, who swiftly learned all the tricks of pro pass-catching, won the honor by a one-sided majority in the annual UPI poll of 42 writers who covered the NFL regularly (three from each city).

Flatley received 25 votes, compared to 5 for Don Brumm, the St. Louis Cardinals' defensive end who was runner-up in the voting. John Mackey, Baltimore Colts tight end, and Lionel Aldridge, Green Bay Packers defensive end, each received two votes.

The 6-foot-2, 187-pound Flatley caught 51 passes for a total of 867 yards and 4 touchdowns during the past season. He ranked in a tie for 10th place among NFL pass receivers.

Flatley developed surprisingly fast as a pro. Despite his impressive college credentials, Flatley was not selected until the fourth round of the NFL draft a year ago in January.

"We figured Flatley was a tremendous football player and he didn't disappoint us," said Coach Norm Van Brocklin of Minnesota. "We are not surprised at the outstanding season he had."
