

IV Cougars Nick Phoenix 64-63 For Holiday Toga; Eagles Tip SM

CAVE JUNCTION — Ron Thornhill scored three free shots on two trips to the line in the last seconds of overtime here Saturday night to give Illinois Valley High School the championship in the Lions Club Holiday Classic Basketball Tournament.

With 33 seconds to go Thornhill tied the score with a pair of gifters. With two seconds to play he made the first try of a one and one opportunity for a 64-63 victory over the Pirates of Phoenix High in the finale of the tourney.

IV's Cougars, who once trailed by 10 points and were being hit in the closing canto, pushed on top in the last seconds of regular time only to see the score tied at 50-all with seven seconds left on a free try by Jim Construk of Phoenix.

The championship is the second straight for the Cougars. Eagle Point, as usual spurred by tall Lonnie Mesloh, who added the final touch, nicked St. Mary's 46-44 in Saturday's first game for consolation honors.

Mesloh's short hook shot with seven seconds left was the winning bucket. He ran up 28 points and pulled down 30 rebounds as the Eagles recorded their first triumph in eight games so far this season.

Anybody's Race From the tourney outcome it was evident that the Rogue League campaign, which opens this Friday night, still must be considered "anybody's race." All four tourney participants are members of the circuit.

IV reached the tourney finale by beating Eagle Point on Friday evening 59-42. Phoenix chalked a 73-66 opening night verdict over St. Mary's.

The Cougars took a 61-59 lead in the Saturday title game's extra session on a set shot by Tony Piller. But successive jumpers by Dan Beeson and Lex Hamilton gained Phoenix a 63-61 lead with 41 seconds to go. Then, Thornhill made good for the host team from the charity stripe. The loss was the first for Phoenix in seven games.

Darryl Gellert, the game's high scorer with 22 markers, teamed with Tom Pickle and John Baumgardner for the points which pulled the Cougars from behind in the final quarter.

Tied At Half IV charged off to the lead in the title's first panel and headed 17-11 at the intermission. But, in the second quarter the Pirates pulled up.

At halftime the teams were even at 28-28. Phoenix hit a hot streak in the third quarter to surge in front 45-35. Tally at the period end was 45-39.

For the victors Roger Martin with 12 points and Thornhill with 11 supported Gellert's 22. Beeson's 14 was high for the Buccaneers. Jon Granby and Dale Sauer each had 11 as all Phoenix players got into the scoring column.

Scoring difference was at the free throw line where IV hit 18 of 33 to the 13 of 21 by Phoenix. The Pirates had better field shooting on 25 of 59 for .424 while the Cougars hit 23 of 70 for .329.

John Barker and Beeson each made 12 retrieves and Paul Diederich eight as the Bucs paced the rebounding 48-37. Gellert, along with his high scoring, cleared the boards 12 times for IV. Martin had 11 snares.

Knotted At 47 A free shot by Piller and jumps by Gellert and Martin closed the difference to 45-44 as the final stanza got underway. Barker netted a jump goal for Phoenix but Baumgardner with a field shot tied the contest at 47 with 5:40 on the clock.

Beeson's hook restored the Pirate lead but Gellert knotted the fray with a lay-in. Two free casts by Granby and a bucket by Sauer gave Phoenix 53-49 margin. Gellert got two points at the gift stripe but jumpers by Jim Construk and Beeson took Phoenix to 57-51.

A Cougar pressing game then enabled the host club to catch up. Gellert goaled for IV and Granby put in a free marker for the Bucs. Tom Pickle picked up two tallies on a Phoenix in-traction. Gellert scored on a jump and Baumgardner on a lay-up for 59-53 Illinois Valley with a half-minute remaining. Then Construk sent the tussle into extra.

Count was tied at 30, 32 and 34 in the third quarter. Sauer, Granby, Hawkins, Diederich, Williams and Beeson all contributed to the scoring as the Bucs stretched ahead.

Barber Switches Phoenix respect for the offensive aggressiveness of Gellert played a part in keeping Bucs from matching the 28 points of the night leader. Coach Ebdon Durborn switched his position in the lineup and pass and go offense with the purpose of lessening Gellert's offensive effectiveness. Consequently Barber did not have the scoring opportunities Phoenix afforded him the night before. Gellert guarded Barber in the 35 seconds to-man defense.

Darbarn had parties for 90-00.

for the rebounding and defense by Diederich who say duty for about half the game.

Eagle Point came from seven points down in the third quarter and nosed the Crusaders of Medford in a nip-and-tuck finish. The Eagles went into the final quarter on top 49-47. They relinquished the lead and got it back. The score was then tied twice before Mesloh's winning basket.

Mesloh gave EP 51-47 edge with a short jumper. Ted Scott came back with a goal for St. Mary's. After George Adams' free loss for the Eagles, Mike Soran of SM narrowed the count to 52-51 with a tip-in goal.

Adams added two more gifters and Dennis Rose responded with a lay-in for the Medford club.

St. Mary's Lead Mesloh scored on a tip-up and John Batzer swished a pair of St. Mary's free tosses. EP still headed 56-55. Then, a tip-in by Scott made it 57-56 for St. Mary's with four minutes left to play. Only one minute later Bob Colpitts' jumper made 58-57 for Eagle Point.

Scott knotted the game at the gift line but Mesloh was good on four free chances for a 62-58 Eagle spread. Just over two minutes remained. Ron Roberts swished two 15-foot jump shots for the Crusaders and the game was knotted at 62 apiece with 58 seconds on the clock.

SM's Randy Corliss deadlocked the mix with a jump shot. Mesloh made it 47-45 with a hook and Randy got another short jumper for 47-all. Frank Charley's goal gave the Eagles their lead at the period end.

IV now has a 4-1 season record, Phoenix is 6-1, St. Mary's 3-2 and Eagle Point 1-7.

Liston Training Show Profitable At Las Vegas LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Las Vegas doesn't have the Sonny Liston-Cassius Clay title fight, but it has the longer-running and profitable Liston training show.

The heavy weight boxing champion of the world arrived at this gambling and entertainment city during the weekend and immediately began the same type of drill that drew hundreds of spectators prior to his successful title defense here last summer against Floyd Patterson.

Free shots made the overall difference in the final score. Each team had 28 field buckets. At the gift line Humboldt put in 10 of 12 and SOC six of 11.

SOC, with Kiser getting 13 grabs and Jack McWhorter nine, led rebounding 41 to 24. Darrell Barbieri had nine retrieves for the 'Jacks.

The Raiders hit 418 from the field and Humboldt 389. Central Washington's probable lineup includes Jim Clifton, Roger Ottmar, Dale Hall, Bob Smith and Barney Berg. For SOC it likely will be Bill Franks, Jerry Shilts, Kiser, McWhorter and Paul Munson.

The Raiders jumped off to an early lead in the contest with the help of Kiser's shooting and top rebounding efforts. But, the Oregon team was unable to contain Good and the Lumberjacks went in front for keeps with 10 minutes left to play.

Oregon State, Brigham Young Vie Tonight in Far West Hoop Finale

PORTLAND (UPI)—Oregon State's once-beaten Beavers and the fast-breaking Brigham Young Cougars collide in the finals of the eighth annual Far West basketball classic tonight.

The Beavers, led by 7-foot senior center Mel Counts, will be seeking their eighth straight classic championship in the final game at 9:15 p.m.

Oregon State edged Colorado State 53-51 and Brigham Young defeated Oregon 80-70 before a record classic crowd of 12,309 in the semi-finals Saturday night.

Colorado State meets Oregon at 7 p.m. for third place. Seattle center Mel Counts, will fifth place at 4 p.m. and Iowa took on Washington State for seventh spot at 1:45 p.m.

High-ranking Oregon State, which has a 9-1 record for the season, figures as a solid favorite against Brigham Young which owns a 5-3 mark. However, the Beavers, who now have 20 straight classic wins, must stop the Cougars' withering fast break.

Looks For Break "We always look for the break," Brigham Young Coach Stan Watts said. "They'll try and slow us down and we'll try and make them run."

"We don't throw fast balls fast ball hitters," Oregon State Coach Stas Gill said. "The Cougars also have a defensive problem—stopping Counts."

"There's an option," Watts replied in reference to the big center who poured in a record 48 points in the Beavers' first night.

"You can either play them honest and give Counts 30 points or you can sag off on him and gamble the outside men will be cold. I don't know yet which we'll do."

Counts scored 17 points and collected 19 rebounds in Oregon State's victory over Colorado State. The Beavers built up a 16-point lead early in the second half after gaining a 28-16 halftime lead and then held on to win.

Rick Whelan added 15 for Oregon State. Dave Sigafos had 16 for Colorado State.

SKI MEET SET McCALL, Idaho (UPI)—Ski teams from six northwestern universities will compete here Friday through Sunday in the second annual University of Idaho invitational meet.
