IMPROVEMENT CLUB HAS SUCCESSFUL MEETING

The Womans Improvement Club had a most successful meeting on Friday of last week when Mrs. Lawrence Scholl and Mrs. McShane were hostesses. Following the usual business session, a delightful program was enjoyed. Mrs. McShane read a splendid paper on "Oregon Indians." Mrs. Homer Beck related the weird and interesting "Legends of the Oregon Indians." Miss Lois Simms gave a beautiful vocal solo and encore, Mrs. Beckman, accompanist. Mrs. Ella Stauffer favored the club with a pleasing vocal solo, Mrs. Beckman, accompanying her. Miss Velma Scholl gave a piano solo—an Indian selection, which was much enjoyed, Mrs. L. Scholl and Mrs. Stauffer closed the program with a pretty duet, Miss Velma at the piano. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses and a social hour enjoyed.

The Club is now a member of the State Federation of Womans Clubs from which it will derive much benefit. Present at the meeting were Mesdames Homer Beck, Beckman, Waldo Brown, Cassidy, Cleaver, Melvin, McShane, L. Scholl, Miss Simms. Guests: Mrs. Richmond, Mrs. Ella Stauffer and Misses Velma and Vesta Scholl.

The next meeting will be held on Friday, March 4th, Mrs. Henry Scholl, hostess.

LOCAL MAN TAKES INTER-STATE PRIZES

A feature of the Black Minorca show was the exhibit made by George W. Speight of Hubbard, Oregon. Mr. Speight won first on each cock and cockrel, taking $41.00 prize money, then selling both birds during the show for a high price. Old fanciers might take a lesson from this as there is a good chance to sell the birds at most every important show and "distance" of the breeder might often "lend enchantment to the view."

The same week Mr. Speight had birds at the National exhibitions at Denver and Sherwood.

BERRY GROWERS NAME PRICE FOR 1921 CROP

At a meeting of the berry growers of North Marion County at Woodburn last Saturday in the city hall, a special committee appointed by the president reported a minimum price on berries this fall should be seven cents for loganberries, 12 cents for raspberries, 9 cents for strawberries and 7 cents for gooseberries. The prices on evergreens was not considered at this time as it was too early.

E. J. Forsythe of Woodburn was re-elected president of the organization; F. W. Wolfe was chosen vice-president; Ray Glatt, secretary and Theodore Nehl, treasurer. An executive committee was appointed consisting of W. L. Bentley, L. Lawrence and C. G. Gulliford.

Twenty-three new members were received into the organization making a total of fifty in all. Many other local growers are expected to join soon.

"Our organization is formed for the mutual benefit of berry growers," said E. J. Forsythe, president of the association. "It is not primarily a marketing association. Any member may market his berries in any manner he sees fit. We growers have many problems in common and we have formed an association so that we might profit by each others' experience and cooperate in growing and marketing our crops to the best mutual advantage."

The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright had a narrow escape from very serious injury last Thursday afternoon during the absence of Mrs. Wright. Somehow, the little one crept from an upstairs window out onto the porch and from there fell to the walk below, a distance of about twelve feet, landing on her face and side and breaking her right forearm. Blood flowed from a cut lip which made the accident look more serious at first than it proved to be. The little girl is now getting on all right.

Hubbard citizens are not the only ones who see the need of protecting their streets from heavy traffic in the form of trucks. Oregon City has the matter up for adjustment. The ordinance when passed will affect oil-delivery trucks, as well as those who deliver flour, grain and other supplies direct from manufacturers.

MRS. SILAS YODER DIES FEBRUARY 5.

After an illness of but a few days, Loma, wife of Silas Yoder, died at her home near Elliott Prairie, Saturday, February 5, aged 25 years and 10 months; of inflammation of the bowels.

On Monday of that week Mrs. Yoder remarked to her husband how well she felt. The attack which caused her death beginning Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Yoder was the daughter of J. C. and Emma Hartzler and was born in Harrisonville, Mo. She leaves four small children, a son and three daughters; father and mother, four sisters and four brothers.

Funeral services were at the Zion Mennonite church, Monday, February 7th, conducted by Ministers D. D. Kaufman and Fred Gingerich, interment in Zion cemetery. Funeral arrangements were in charge of E. N. Hall. The sympathy of the community goes out to the family in their bereavement.

Since the death of Mrs. Silas Yoder, Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Yoder have been helping in the home, the little son Glenn having been quite sick and the children of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Yoder, Thelma, Dewey and Dale, have been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Yoder in Hubbard.

JUSTICE IS TEMPERED WITH MERCY FOR J. P. HELD AS MOONSHINER

John Owings, who carries the rather unusual distinction of having been re-elected to the position of Justice of the peace for his district down Hubbard, was last night languished in the county jail in Portland, pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon before Federal Judge Bean to the charge of having moonshine equipment in his possession and was fined $100. The light punishment was recommended by Assistant United States Attorney Austin Flegel on the grounds that another man had brought the still to Owings' house and put it in operation. Owings is a widower, practically destitute and with four children ranging from 1 to 10 years of age. He declared yesterday he would be unable to pay the fine except with the help of friends.—Telegram (Tuesday Feb. 22.)

MILWAUKIE-HUBBARD GAME CITY HALL TONIGHT

Friday night the boys and girls basket ball teams of Milwaukie and Hubbard will play on the local floor. The previous games between these schools have been snappy and thru it all the best of school fraternity has been enjoyed. The Milwaukie students have proven themselves good losers and winners, for they, like the Hubbard teams, have had both experiences. The game tonight promises to be worth planning to go see.

GEORGE GRIMPS CUTS HIS FOOT

While cutting timber Wednesday near the home place south of town George Grimps accidentally cut his left foot. The double bitted axe which he was using cut a gash about an inch and a-half upward from the big toe and somewhat to the left. Only the ligament controlling the second small or central toe was cut. George was working on boggy land at the time and the foot that was cut was about six or eight inches deep in the mud. This and the fact that he wore a very heavy shoe saved his foot to a large extent. Jake Ott brought George to town in his car. They found that Dr. Schoor had just left in his car for some out of town destination. They started away and right here luck met them or rather they found that the doctor had stopped to fill the gas tank of his car at a local garage. The doctor promptly turned his car after learning of the cut foot and returned with the boys to the hospital. The gash though tied and bound by the boys before coming to town was yet bleeding, but this was soon stopped by the doctor. It will be a few days before George can wear a shoe. Nevertheless he feels himself lucky for it might have been worse.

Wednesday of this week the Kenagy Bros., George and William, who have been for some time on the old Grover Giesy farm east of here, started loading their personal property into a large box car at the local S. P. station. Among this personal property was a fine farm tractor, a Case. The boys intend to make their headquarters for a time near Edmonton, Canada. Wheat is the big thing with these young men. The two thousand acres which they intend working lies about seventy-five miles east of Edmonton in Alberta.

THE WOODBURN-HUBBARD BASKET BALL GAME

Last Friday night a good sized audience saw the boys basket ball team go in the best game on the floor this season. The game was free from the rough plays that sometimes work in. The first half resulted in neither side getting well acquainted with the basket, though a few points were made by both teams. The final score was 7 to 16 with the visitors taking the large number.
